POLICE HAVE THIRD MAN FOR THROWING OF BOMB

One Accuses Other, Alleging Unrequited Love, But Foolish Prank is Suggested.

With the arrest yesterday morning of William Smith, 312 Richmond-street, charged with Trooper Woodward and Herbert Wilkinson with blowing up Sam Lee's restaurant at 209 York-street Wednesday night, still another theory of the Strange event is introduced.

Smith, who was taken on the statement of Woodward that it was he who had placed the fateful explosive, turned upon Woodward with the accusation that the soldier had done the blowing, hav-ing previously declared that as his love for the queenly Quennie Oliver was not for the queenly Quennie Oliver was not returned he was going to blow the whole works to an uncharted locality of constant and excessive heat.

The theory generally accepted is that whichever of the men it was who placed the bomb, which is pretty clearly shown to be part of the exhibition fireworks, did so purely as a prank, and that he had no idea of the extent of the devastation that would follow.

Woodward and Wilkinson were remand. ed a week in police court yesterday morning, after having pleaded not guilty. Magistrate Denison expressed a doubt as to his jurisdiction to try the case. This will be decided at the next hearing. Two hundred medicine bottles were broken in the drug store of C. D. Harris at York and Queen-streets by the con-

Harry E. Smallpeice Elected to Succeed H. A. E. Kent as Trustee.

Bloor-street technical school site wil. not be sold to the Toronto Arena Com-

Harry E. Smellpeice will succeed Harry Simpson as trustee, the latter having declined the appointment as successor to the late Herbert A. E.

It took the board of education two and a half hours, last night, to do these things.

After Mr. Smallpeice's election, Trustee Miss Martin raised the point that the solicitor's opinion should have been obtained as to the legality of the ac-tion. Altho Mr. Simpson's refusal was presented at last meeting, it was de-batable whether he had been really a trustee or not. There was a hot debate, resulting in a motion being passed on the supervi-sion of the rules, asking the solici-

T. H. Carter was defeated for the office by a vote of four to five, Messrs. Jas. Simpson and Dineen refusing to Oppose the Arena.

The biggest deputation that ever waited upon the board appeared to protest against the sale of the Bloor-street site to the Arena Company. They thought it would be unfair for an educational body to do anything that would interfere with the respon-sibilities of churches that had the guid nce of thousands of lives to look to. They also argued that altho arena was designed as a musical auditorium, yet it was calculated to admit other attractions that would be as much out of harmony with musical functions as the arena scheme was with the wish of the property owners in the vicinity. Those who spoke were: Dr. J. E. Elliott and Dr. R. A. Reeve, representing the property owners; Geo. H. Kilmer, K.C., St. Paul's Church; J. K. McDonald, Westminster Church; E. Fielany. Central Methodist Church; Hon. A. B. Morine, other interests. They were introduced by Trustee C. A. B. Brown. Supervising Principal.

The management committee's recommendation for supervising principal of high schools was referred back. From the trend of the discussion, it would appear that such an office will, however, be created. -Trustee Bryans remarked that Jas.
