PLAYS, PICTURES AND MUSIC

MADISON.

Maria Doris, one of the celebrated dramatic artists of the stage, formerly Frohman star, will be seen at the Madison, commencing this evening, in a new play, "The Girl in the Red Dress," written especially for her by Marian Fairfax.

"Common Sense" is a new play, showing the mental and spiritual awakening, through love, of a child of the slums, employed in an artificial flower factory. How she meets, falls in love with, and eventually saves from ruin, at the hands of political parties, a young judge, is the basis of this most unusual play. The methods of the army of parasites connected with the city institutions, and their dealings with the unfortunate of the underworld, are vividly exposed. Miss Doris is surrounded with a cast of unusual excellence.

AT THE GAYETY.

"The Roseland Girls," with all its tuneful melodies, refreshing sales of laughter, scenic and gorgeous costumes, will come to the Gayety. The big revue is an extraordinary lavish and ingenious combination of music, spectacle, dancing and travesty, with Holly Ward, Frankie Rice, Joe Perry, Stella Wood, the Big Four, Minerva Emmett, Lynn Cantor, all dancers of the glories of the stage, and waves of laughter, with bevy of fascinating beauties in the large chorus, as well as among the principals, are contributing to the success of the elaborate production.

MARY PICKFORD AT REGENT.

On account of the popular demand, the management of the Regent Theatre decided to give an extra day's run of "Hullabaloo" next week in the Dutch play, in which dainty Mary Pickford plays the title role. The first performance will be given today, and will continue tomorrow and Saturday. Mary Pickford has been starred in characterizations of many picturesque nationalities, but this little Dutch girl has never been surpassed in humor and genuine appeal to the heart. In addition to the fine feature, there will be a new topical, "The Regent Graphic," showing the latest events in the old land.

"THE BIRTH OF A NATION."

It is a fair estimate that one-half of the six million people who have seen this spectacle have seen it more than once. The enthusiasm of the vast crowds has known no bounds. The historic features of this presentation have attracted wide attention and educators all over the world have been convinced that there is no more effective way to tell the story of a nation. Running through the story is a column of the south, in which a colonel of the south loves the sister of an officer of the north, and the equally proud of the northern maid are shown in as thrilling and gripping a story as has ever been staged. Tickets should be procured in advance at the box office, where they are on sale for every performance.

HIPPODROME.

William H. Thompson, America's greatest character, will headline the bill at the Hippodrome next week in the wonderful five-part Triangle release, "The Eye of the Night." "Dreams of Art" is the title of an impressive and pretentious posing and electrical novelty. Dan Burke and his Broadway Girls have a miniature musical comedy, featuring smart songs, clever comedy, and pleasing dances. Morris and Bosley have a comedy musical act that comes well recommended, while the Flying Kaaferla perform some particularly daring aerial feats. Fox and Ward have a host of laugh-provoking chatter. Neal, Segal and Franklin are comedy singers and feature Keystone film comedies complete an excellent bill.

SHEA'S.

Walter C. Kelly, "The Virginian Judge," will headline the bill at Shea's next week. Gus Van and Joe Schenk are two clever young men who know how to play a piano, sing and dance. Dorothy Reed, clever character comic.

dienna, who was featured at Shea's last season in "The Telephone Tangle," returns this year with a new playlet entitled "The Cigar-Store Girl." Kurtis Educated Roosters perform many novel stunts that defy imitation. It is the only show in the city that has a vaudeville. With a scene laid on the boardwalk in Atlantic City, Renard, Cole and Fawcett are in a playlet entitled "Are You Lonesome?" Bessie Rimple and her playmates have a particularly effective offering, and with the Lavelles, wire-walkers, and feature film comedies, complete a well-balanced bill.

SHEA'S SUBSCRIPTION SEATS.

The management of Shea's Theatre would ask that patrons holding subscription seats make their reservations for the coming season within the next two weeks. There have been many inquiries and the seats are being reserved at the rate of two weeks at a time. Seats that have not been renewed will be disposed of.

"THE GINGER GIRLS."

Gertrude Ralston and "The Ginger Girls" will be the attraction at the Star Theatre next week, and surrounded with a beauty of thirty graceful and charming girls and a cast of comedians and entertainers that takes rank with the best in the city.

With a scene laid on the boardwalk in Atlantic City, Renard, Cole and Fawcett are in a playlet entitled "Are You Lonesome?" Bessie Rimple and her playmates have a particularly effective offering, and with the Lavelles, wire-walkers, and feature film comedies, complete a well-balanced bill.

"ON TRIAL" STAYS ANOTHER WEEK.

"On Trial," Cohan and Harris' melodramatic sensation, which holds the boards at the Alexandra Theatre this week, will again be presented at that theatre next week. It has been suggested that no dramatist would have dared to play tricks with an audience as is done in "On Trial," and that the motion picture play which shifts its scenes here and there and everywhere, gave Mr. Rosenfeld his idea. Be that as it may, the fact remains that "On Trial" is the most tremendous play ever laid in a court room, well carried to the smallest detail. The excellent company appearing in "On Trial" includes Frances McGrath, Rowland G. Edwards, Florence Moore, Luella Morey, W. B. Clarke, Eugene La Rue, Edmund Abbey, Russell Parker and others.

"THE BLACK FEATHER."

Clean, legitimate humor, stirring episodes and refined emotional appeal are the elements that have been built into "The Black Feather," which the brilliant actor, Albert Brown, is making the vehicle of his present Canadian tour.

Convenient when death occurs in hotels, hospitals or apartment houses, with motor service, any cemetery or funeral home direct or same to train or outside city.

House all next week. The play has been especially written for Mr. Brown by Mr. A. Tremayne of Montreal, a veteran Canadian dramatist, who has scored many notable successes in the past. Mr. Brown's tour in "The White Feather" last season was momentarily more successful than that of any other thespian of his sex on the continent. In "The Black Feather," which, the an entirely original play, also deals with the war, he has an even greater opportunity to display his amazing skill and versatility.

LOEW'S THEATRE.

Miss Ethel Whiteside will headline the bill at Loew's Theatre next week, when she will present her latest one-act production, "Around the World," in six beautiful scenes.

The Empire Comedy Four, in a riot of fun and songs: "The Monarch of the Accordian," Helen Smith & Co., in the domestic comedy playlet, "Hiring a Maid," are the featured attractions.

Louise Mayo, the lady dainty at the piano; the Belmonts, presenting thrilling feats in mid-air, and other acts complete the show.

GALT, Ont., Sept. 6.—Plums and pears are in abundance in Goderich and district this year. Every tree is heavily laden with the fruit, which is of good quality. In all probability the prices will drop in the near future.

The apple crop is almost a total failure; but a few scattered here and there are to be seen on the trees throughout the best orchards of the adjoining townships.

BRANTFORD, Ont., Sept. 6.—With crop prospects in Brant County at their lowest ebb for many years, the soil condition is such that the fall wheat for next year promises to be even worse. Roy Schuyler, district representative, states that hay was a bountiful crop, but that already it has to be fed to live stock owing to pasture shortage. Wheat turned out about 25-30 bushels per acre, oats 35, barley 20, away below last year's average. Clover seed is a very poor crop. Corn will be about two-thirds normal, but roots with lots of top have practically nothing below. Potatoes are practically an utter failure, local growers now buying potatoes for their own use. There will be practically no fruit here for export, and for fall wheat, only sixty per cent. of last year's acreage will be sown this fall.

CAUSE IS ADMITTED

IN BOAT COLLISION

Captains' Testimony Shows Lack of Lookout and Unheeded Signals.

ACCIDENT OFF BAY ST.

Reverse by Turbinia Failed to Prevent Collision With Primrose.

Testimony from the captains of the ferry Primrose and steamer Turbinia, which collided off the Bay street slip, Aug. 13, established the facts that the steamship Turbinia had no lookout on duty, and that the Primrose disregarded the danger warnings of the Turbinia and heaved to right in for the slip. The hearing was held before Wreck Commissioner A. F. Demura.

Capt. R. W. Bonnard of the Turbinia said he tucked out of the port street slip and proceeded dead slow westward towards the coal dock. When he saw the Primrose heading in he gave the danger signal, but the Primrose kept coming. Shortly after the accident he reversed, but could not avert the collision.

Capt. Bonnard said he had the right of way, and that it was the Primrose which struck him. He admitted having been penalized before for a collision in the bay.

Capt. Brown of the Primrose admitted he did not know the speed of his vessel, nor her length, beam or draught. He heard the danger blast from the Turbinia, but did not know it was meant for him. He said he did not slow up the Primrose because he was barely drifting.
