BOOKS FOR GIFTS

Book Department—Main Floor Other Book Circles on Second Floor and Fifth Floor

A delight to the lover of fine illustrations is such a book as this copy of "The Tempest" with delightful illustrations in color, by Edmund Dulac, price, $2.50, or Eugene Field's "Poems of Childhood," illustrated by Maxfield Parrish, price $2.00. "The Mysterious Stranger," by Mark Twain, has exceptionally clever pictures by N. C. Wyeth, the man who illustrated so well Stevenson's "Treasure Island." These two books are priced $2.00 each.

New Books of Poems. Salt Water Poems and Ballads, John Masfield, $2.00. The Watchman and other Poems, L. M. Montgomery, $1.40. Doreen and the Sentimental Bioko, C. J. Dennis, 75c. WE RECOMMEND

Mr. Wells' novel of the Great War is by far the most "understanding" presentation by any novelist to date, and is also Mr. Wells at his best. Price, $1.25.

The clean and wholesome stories of Harold Bell Wright have won a place of their own with lovers of the breezy West. Price, $1.25.

A delightful book for a little girl—and one that won't bore or harm grown-ups, either. Price, $1.25.

For Boys and Girls. A book for the wide-awake boy, that will help to turn his surplus energy to good account, is "The Boy Mechanic." Price, $1.35. Other books that will keep him quiet by their absorbing interest in everyday things are "How It Works" and "How It Is Made," each priced $1.00, and are interesting to older people as well. How many of us, for instance, know exactly how a tap works, or how pins are made? "The Look-About-You Nature Book" ($1.50) and the book called "Dwellers" (90c) with its various sub-heads: "— in the Pond," "— in the Meadows," "— Woods," "— Garden," "Underground," etc., are books designed to satisfy the thousand "whys?" A child will ask about various "birds and beasts" that come beneath his notice. These books are both well and profusely illustrated.

Old favorites, tried and true, and even better than usual this year, are "The Boys' Own" and "The Girls' Own" annuals, at $1.75, "Chums," at $1.65, "Chatterbox," 75c, Herbert Strang's Annual, $1.00, and Blackie's Children's Annual, 85c.

"Rinkitink in Oz" is the latest of the very popular Oz fairy tales. The price is $1.40, and besides this one, we have "The Road to Oz," "The Emerald City of Oz," "The Patchwork Girl of Oz," "Tik-tok of Oz," "The Land of Oz," "The Scare-crow of Oz," and others at the same price.

The famous "Peter Rabbit" Series is 25c for each little volume, while another favorite series, Burgess "Bed-time Stories," is 50c a volume.
