The quarterly board meeting of the Church met recently and considered a number of reports of the work done during the year.

The membership of the church showed most satisfactory increase, and the finances are in such splendid shape that it is expected that the last installment of the church debt will be paid in a few weeks.

The elections resulted as follows: Recording Steward, John H. Chapman, Stewards, Messrs. George Rob-

MR. BARRON IN BOSTON
Will Devote Some Time to Composition Teaching.

The Boston correspondent of Musical America says:
W. Caven Barron, pianist, composer, teacher and principal of the London Conservatory of Music, who was founded in 1891 in London, Ont., has returned to Boston, where a number of years ago he pursued his early studies in music in the New England Conservatory of Music, and has taken studios on Huntington avenue, where he will devote much of his time during the next two or three months to composition teaching.

Mr. Barron was born in St. Marys, Ont., and after studying some time at the conservatory in this city, went to Leipzig, where he continued his study of the piano with Martin Krause, and of composition with Jadassohn.

Returning to this country, he decided to open a conservatory of music in Canada, and his work there has been especially successful. The school has several hundred pupils and has graduated many who have become successful professionals. One of the pupils who was recently graduated is Gertrude Huntley, who is now studying with Moszkowski, in Paris.

Mr. Barron recently received an interesting letter from Moszkowski speaking of Miss Huntley's success in a recital which she gave in Paris.
Mr. Barron has devoted much of his time to composition and has produced a number of interesting piano pieces which have been published by the John Church Company. Among his latest compositions are three which comprise an Irish suite, entitled "The Colleen," "Lullalo," and "Forsaken." Of his Scotch pieces, "Departure," "Absence" and "Return" should be mentioned.

Mr. Barron has also written three

DISTRESS AT LA GUIRA Death List From Plague Grows and Entire City is Affected.

Willemstad, May 11.—W. W. Russell, the American minister to Venezuela, sailed from here yesterday on the steamer Caracas for the United States, where he will spend his vacation of two months.

That there is a tension in the diplomatic relations between the United States and Venezuela was shown by the fact that none of the Venezuelan officers was on hand at Puerto Cabello yesterday to bid Mr. Russell goodbye.

Thomas P. Moffatt, United States consul at La Guaira, is still in that city without the means of communication because of the plague, and it is feared without the necessities of life. It is thought the United States may send a gunboat there for the purpose of transferring the consul, for at present there are no American interests to care for. President Castro's decree quarantining La Guaira may be prolonged or until a full week passes without new cases of the plague making their appearance.

There is great distress among the unemployed there, the death list is growing and the whole town seems to be infected.

badly burned that they are not expected to live. Kennedy's wife al-children in the place, and then set it on fire. The man and woman have been living apart, and the ques-

Rev. Rutledge Speaks On Both Classes

In an Interesting Sermon—Many Topics Touched Upon in London Churches.

The "Biography of a Quitter" was the subject on which Rev. W. L. Rutledge preached to a large congregation at the First Methodist Church last night. Mr. Rutledge chose his text from the second book of Timothy, 10, 10: "For Demas hath forsaken me, having loved this present world."
"Many people," said Rev. Mr. Rutledge, "are, like Demas, filled with great enthusiasm for a short time and then cool off. Demas is not the first person in the New Testament of a quitter, and there have been quitters in the church ever since. It was wordliness pure and simple that led Demas to desert the disciples, and it is wordliness under and of its many heads that characterizes the quitter in the church. It is responsible for the failure of a great deal of church work.
The theater has undoubtedly done much harm, but there are not people who go to the theater who are much better in many ways than those who go to the churches? Why is it more harm to roll balls about on a green table than to roll them on a green lawn? The open air of the theater is a danger, but are all the people who do not go to the theater on the way to heaven? Dancing has led many young people astray, but there can not be much harm in young people meeting together in such an exercise on a country green as they used to do many years ago. What is wordliness in one age is not in another. John, in speaking of wordliness, means whatever makes it difficult for us to love God, the church and our neighbor, but will forgive a quitter if he makes an earnest effort to live right."

Rev. Walter Moffatt spoke last night at Chalmers Church on "An Interesting Young Man," taking as his subject the young ruler who, apparently an ideal youth, came to Christ seeking truth. When Christ revealed to him he did not like it and went away without accepting it. Mr. Morfett showed how it was possible for many people to be apparently ideal human beings, and yet to be wanting in the requisites of a truly perfect character.

During the evening, Miss Forrester sang most acceptably.

This morning, the committee, of which Mr. Moffatt is convenor, consisting of Revs. J. G. Stuart, H. F.
Jelly, W. L. Huxon, and J. Huxon, goes to Canada and Ivan to try and arrange those districts more satisfactorily. Tomorrow they will go to Payne's Mills, and the results of their investigations will be contained in a report to be given at the next meeting of the presbytery.

Special anniversary services were celebrated at the Southern Congregational Church yesterday, when the pulpit was occupied both morning and evening by Rev. William Spence, of Embro. Large congregations were present at both services, and the sermons were greatly appreciated. Mrs.
Spence sang at both services.

church, preached in Embro yesterday.

preached at the Empress Avenue both morning and evening, and Mr.

Osterhout's sermons were most practical and instructive. Rev. Mr. Wallin preached at Kintore.

The Christian Workers' Church on King street was well filled last night, when Rev. Mr. Garrett preached on "Take Heed How Ye Hear."
"Mistakes," he said, "are always eager to hear, but are generally most unwilling to obey, and Christ chose his parables from the very simple things around him to show that the commonest things have voices and are speaking to us always. Now, as then, they generally fall on deaf ears. In An inspiring service of song was held at the First Congregational Church last evening, the benefit of credit upon the organist, Mr. G. E.

Goslin, and his efficient choir, as well as upon the special soloists of the evening. The anthems were "Praise Ye the Father," "Hark, Hark, My Soul," and "Hark, Hark, My Soul," and were all rendered with fine effect.
The various parts were well taken and Miss Nellie Moule's rich alto voice deserves special mention. Mr. Wilfred Blakie and Mr. Ernest Moule each sang in splendid voice. Mr. Moule's solo being, "Fear Ye Not, O Israel," and Mr. Blakie's "A Voice From Paradise." The pastor, Rev. D. S. Hamilton, gave a brief address on the subject of praise, and the hearty singing of the hymns by the congregation contributed to an uplifting season of worship.

with neuralgia of the heart, he was his duties.

Mr. Moule was exceptionally well

Mr. Moule came to Cleveland in
