

Order Paper Questions

2. How much of the amount was used to pay legal fees and/or other technical expert consultants?

3. How much money went to native people participating in the work of the Yukon Native Brotherhood?

Mr. Yvon Pinard (Parliamentary Secretary to President of Privy Council): In so far as the Department of Indian Affairs and Northern Development is concerned: 1. Yes. Contributions: 1971-72, $130,506; 1972-73, $205,650; 1973-74, $510,726; 1974-75, $485,697; 1975-76, $181,764; 1976-77, $373,720; 1977-78, (commitments) $9,772. Organization and Maintenance, 1977-78, (commitments) $15,000.

2. Approximately $60,735 was expended on consulting and legal fees.

3. The department does not have the records required to respond to this question. While the Yukon Native Brotherhood accounts to the department that funds are spent for the purposes for which they were requested, the accounting does not reflect whether a consultant, a lawyer, or a supplier hired by the brotherhood is or is not a native person.

In so far as the Department of Employment and Immigration is concerned: 1. 1974-75, $8,220; 1975-76, $10,200; 1977-78, $6,406. Total, $24,826.

2. Nil.

3. $24,826.

In so far as the Department of National Health and Welfare is concerned: 1. Yes. Year, 1976-77. Amount, $3,700.

2. None.

3. $3,700.

In so far as the Department of the Secretary of State is concerned: 1. The following amounts were granted to the Yukon Native Brotherhood under the department's core funding programme: (b) 1971-72, $155,000; 1972-73, $155,000; 1973-74, $155,000; 1974-75, $176,325; 1975-76, $186,555; 1976-77, $186,555.

2. (a) Generally 5 per cent of the amount granted each year is required to pay for technical consultants such as auditors and financial advisors.

3. Core Funding Programme: Core funding grants are given to status Indian, Métis and non-status Indian and Inuit associations with demonstrated support of their declared constituents for costs in the following areas: (a) staff and salaries, (b) travel expenses, (c) office costs, (d) expenses of meeting, (e) professional services. The Yukon Native Brotherhood received the grants indicated in 1 above primarily for its work with its constituents.

In so far as other Departments are concerned: Nil.

INDIAN BROTHERHOOD OF NORTHWEST TERRITORIES—
FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE

Question No. 57—Mr. Orlikow:

1. Was any financial assistance given by the Department of Indian Affairs and Northern Development or any other department to the Indian Brotherhood of the Northwest Territories since the Brotherhood was organized and, if so, by year, what was the amount?

[Mr. Orlikow.]

2. How much of the amount was used to pay legal fees and/or other technical expert consultants?

3. How much money went to native people participating in the work of the Indian Brotherhood?

Mr. Yvon Pinard (Parliamentary Secretary to President of Privy Council): In so far as the Department of Indian Affairs and Northern Development is concerned: 1. Yes. Contributions: 1972-73, $35,000; 1973-74, $125,000; 1974-75, $582,000; 1975-76, $656,240; 1976-77, $153,507. Loans: 1975-76, $300,000; 1976-77, $345,000; 1977-78, (commitments) $760,000.

2. Approximately $50,000 has been expended on legal fees and consultants.

3. The department does not have the records required to respond to this question. While the Indian Brotherhood of the Northwest Territories accounts to the department that funds are spent for the purposes for which they were requested, the accounting does not reflect whether a consultant, a lawyer, or a supplier hired by the Brotherhood is or is not a native person.

In so far as the Department of National Health and Welfare is concerned: 1. Yes: Year, 1972-73. Amount, $30,000.

2. None.

3. $30,000. To conduct a survey on health attitudes in selected communities in the Northwest Territories.

In so far as the Department of the Secretary of State is concerned:

1.	Fiscal Year	Core Funding Programme	Native Communications Programme	Total
	1971-72	$176,000		$176,000
	1972-73	176,000	$169,000	345,000
	1973-74	176,000	68,000	244,000
	1974-75	220,000		220,000
	1975-76	231,616		231,616
	1976-77	231,616		231,616

2. Core Funding Programme: Generally 5 per cent of the amount granted each year is required to pay for technical consultants such as auditors and financial advisors. Native Communications Programme: None.

3. Core Funding Programme: Core funding grants are given to status Indian, Metis and non-status Indian and Inuit associations with demonstrated support of their declared constituents for costs in the following areas: (a) staff and salaries; (b) travel expenses; (c) office costs; (d) expenses of meeting; (e) professional services. The Indian Brotherhood of the Northwest Territories received the grants indicated in 1 above primarily for its work with its constituents.

All other interested departments and agencies have reported as follows: Nil.