The country market will be fairly well supplied for tomorrow's trade. Beef is not so plentiful as last week, poultry especially good turkeys are reported scarce. Owing to the stormy weather and heavy roads, farmers have been unable to get into town for the past few days, but some country produce is expected today.

Prices are the same as last week with the exception of honey eggs which are quoted from 39 to 35 cents per dozen, as compared with 35 to 40 cents last week. Canned eggs which brought 30 cents per dozen last week are now selling at from 25 to 28 cents.

Prices are expected to take a decided drop in many lines.

EVERY DAY CLUB

The debate in the Every Day Club last evening was much enjoyed by a large audience, despite the storm. Porter, Colwell and Keirwood decided that the affirmative presented the strongest array of argument. The club singing class meets this evening at seven o'clock.

MONEY WAITING FOR WM. RYAN'S RELATIVES

Sailor Who Died in San Francisco Believed to Belong to St. John.

Mayor Sears has received a letter from Walter R. Hearn, British Consul at San Francisco, asking for information about the relatives of one William Ryan, a seaman on the German ship, Magdalena, who it is believed belongs in this city.

If there are any relatives here they are asked to communicate with the assistant secretary, Finance department, Board of Trade, London, England, to whom the wages and other documents concerning his death have been sent.

The following letter from the German consul at San Francisco was enclosed in Mr. Hearn's letter.

Kaiserlich Deutsches Konsulat, San Francisco, Jan. 25, '08.

Hon. Walter Hearn, British Consul General, San Francisco.

Dear Sir and colleagues.—On the 15th of this month there died at the U. S. marine hospital of this city a sailor of the German ship "Magdalena," William Ryan, a native of St. John, N. B. He signed the muster roll at New Castle-on-Tyne on July 23, 1907, stating that he was born in January, 1850. My efforts to obtain more definite items in regard to this person especially his relatives, have failed, no letters or anything that could further disclose his origin have been found.

Apparently he was unable to write as he signed the muster roll by making three entered names.

Enclosed please find certificate of death, also statement of wages to the amount of $100.00 for which I herewith hand you a check.

The deceased did not leave anything of value and was buried in his only suit of clothes. I have the honor to be, Sir, Yours most respectfully,

(Signed) BOFF Imperial German Consul.

THE SEMBRICH CONCERT

Socially Important As Well As Musical.

A climax of interest in the Sembrich concert will be the opening of the seat sale next Friday morning for subscribers only. Those who have not signed the list at Landry's and secured the right to secure seats on that date should do so immediately. Important as is the Sembrich event musically, it is equally so socially. Among the many theatre parties arranged to come to St. John from outside points is that of Governor Tweedie, who is bringing probably the largest number. The hour arranged for the seat sale Friday morning is nine o'clock, and all subscribers who are on the list up to Wednesday evening will receive notification from the management through the mail, so there will be no likelihood of overlooking the matter.
