Local News.

John Sheraton and Charles Hawks will leave this evening in the yacht Dido for a run up river to the Cedars.

The steamer St. Croix sailed this morning. She took away 1061 bags of coal, commonly called cobble, to the Boston market.

A new boat was stolen last night from a schooner lying at Market Ship. The police department thinks that someone was late for the last trip of the ferry and rowed across by means of the stolen boat.

The steamer Seneca, on her recent trip to this port, brought six new fishing dories from Lunenburg (N.S.). Quite an extensive business is being done with this kind of fishing boat. The above lot is for Campoloco parties.

The Windsor, N. S. bark Trinidad, Captain McLeod, cleared from this port yesterday for Rosario, South America, with a cargo of sugar, coffee and plants. She is now lying at anchor off Partridge Island waiting for a fair wind to sail.

The new woodhull schooner Lorain, owned by Captain Alexander Gale, has arrived at Indiantown from Cumberland Bay, Grand Lake, Queens County. She is 63 tons net register and is intended for the river business.

D. G. Smith, of Chatham (N.B.), fishery commissioner for the province of New Brunswick, is in Toronto. He is there to look after the exhibit of the Intercolonial Railway at the coming exhibition. This will be placed in the old Art Gallery, and will include displays of live fish, mounted wild animals, hunting pictures and other scenic attractions along the route of the Intercolonial Railway.

Among the many floor emblems which have been sent to Moncton as a tribute to the late J. E. Price, general superintendent of the I. C. R. is one from the employes in St. John, which was forwarded this morning. It is a broken wheel about three feet across, the rim is composed of cut at intervals of about four inches. The spokes are of pink carriages and other pieces from various branches of the system, all testifying to the esteem in which the late general superintendent was held.

THOSE SUNDAY SHINES

Cases Against the Boot Blacks Will be Heard in the Police Court This Afternoon.

The cases against the boot-blacks were to have come up this morning, but as all were not present, they were adjourned until this afternoon at two o'clock.

When the first case was ready to be proceeded with the police informed the court that the "blacks" had been ordered to attend court. His honor said that if they did not appear he would issue warrants against them.

Subsequently Peter Petropoulos, accompanied by John de Angeles, attended. At W. Macrae stated that he considered that the defendants should have been notified to appear by means of the summons process, on account of the peculiar manner in which the information was laid. He stated that the defendants were brought to court on a retainer. Mr. Macrae stated that he did not wish his honor to deliver judgment in the absence of some of the defendants, because it would not be a binding judgment then, according to the case of ex parte Ritchie.

The court quoted the Green cases and stated that five of the last case was not paid yet. A. W. Macrae stated that the Green case was tried under Sec. 1 of what is now chap. 167 of C. statute, and that in that case Mr. Macrae stated that the government paid the prosecuting attorney, presumably to make it a test case of their own statute.

Regarding the other three defendants Mr. Macrae said that he wished information laid in the correct manner as he did not wish to plead to anything of a verbal nature.

Mrs. W. H. Merritt returned home today from a very pleasant visit to Sussex.

WILL INVITE SIR WILFRED TO Open the Exhibition at Fredericton Next Month.

FREDERICTON, N. B., Aug. 4.—(Special)—Local agents are greatly excited over the run of salmon in the St. John River at Fredericton and scores of them are daily whipping the pools of that locality. James S. Neil killed two grise yesterday afternoon and another was taken by T. A. Peters. W. Whithead, M. P. F. who is a member of the Tobique Salmon Club, thinks there are a number of good prospects for the season. Woodstock where salmon would rise to go to sea.

KING OF BRUSSELS ST.

This is the Title James McGilvary Thought He Had This Morning—His Sanity Is Doubtful.

"I am the King of Brussels Street!" So said James McGilvary, the ex-boot and shoe man this morning. He proceeded to claim his property and that of everyone in his neighborhood. He even accused Mr. Harrigan, who owns property near Mr. McGilvary's and made an impression in the Harrigan household. He struck Mrs. Harrigan.

James being king naturally thought that he had a claim on all property and Mr. Harrigan didn't serve in time of war. James is a daily visitor to the police court and this morning he was sent to jail where he will be examined for mental trouble by Dr. Bryerman.

ON THE WAY TO JAPAN

Miss Minnie Robertson, of St. John, who is on her way to Japan, arrived in the city Friday and is staying at the Willard Home for a few days previous to resuming her journey.

Miss Robertson is taking rather a unique journey, she travelling 8,000 miles before reaching her destination. She is bound for the town of Kofu in Japan, where she is engaged in educational and missionary work under the auspices of the Women's Missionary Society of the Canadian Methodist church. Miss Robertson is a very ardent worker in her time to it, having spent 12 years in Japan. She is now returning after a furlough of sixteen months for another seven years' term.

Miss Robertson will sail from Vancouver on Aug. 14, where she will meet with Miss Veary, of St. Stephen, and three ladies entering the work for the first time—Mantolite Free Press.

KEEP OUT CHEAP AMERICAN PAPERS

(Continued from Page 1) these people that the best people as a whole could not go to the country, as they had not money enough. "The best people," said Dr. Stephenson, "are not necessarily the rich. For often the poorer class do more for the church than the rich."

In our summer schools we should give our students good, healthy reading and give the people good British literature. In speaking of the duties of the missionary leaders Dr. Stephenson thought that the main ones were to study the Bible, to keep in touch with all the missionaries, to find out where they are, and how they are making out.

In Toronto High School, teachers in their holidays often conduct summer schools and why shouldn't the teachers in this city do the same. They are good teachers, well studied in geography and could do valuable work.

In closing Dr. Stephenson said that the expense of holding summer schools was not very great, as he attended one school which was in session for one week and the sixty members only had to contribute fifty-three cents each.

Rev. E. C. Hestrich, next spoke on "Young People on Missions." He talked for some time on the missionary work. New Brunswick and showed that the different Methodist bands were doing fine work. Mr. Hestrich brought to the mind the fact that the work of the mission leagues was not looked upon, only to help matters for the year, but they were trying to plant in Christianity that would wave and guide the coming generation.

The morning session adjourned shortly after noon.

OPEN AIR CONCERT

Enjoyable Entertainment at Brown's Flats Last Evening.

A very enjoyable open-air concert was given on Thursday evening from the verandah of the hotel on the Sealup grounds. The performers were the members of the summer sojourners' colony under the management of Miss Lillian Noble, to whom much credit is due for this pleasing entertainment. The evening was a charming one and the audience, numbering about seventy, enthusiastically applauded the youthful singers, many of whom received well deserved encores and choice bouquets. The performance commenced at 7:20 and lasted about one hour. The following is the programme:

- Sunshine chorus. Recitation—Maintaining her big sister's beau, Etta Story. Song—Straight and tall, Gertrude Wilson. Recitation—A Bad Mistake, Kathleen Knowles. Song—Baby is going to Byelovland, Ethel Bustin. Song—Blue Bell, Robert Knowles. Recitation—Up in the tree, Mabel Curtis. Song—Blossom Bell, Emily Knowles. Recitation—Suppose, Mildred Knowles. Song—Spring time is coming, Ellen and Gertrude Wilson. Recitation—The Three Copecks, Emily Knowles. Song—Here's a ball for baby, Gertrude Wilson. Song—Butter Cups and Daisies, Kathleen Knowles. Song—Pretty Molly Shannon, Muriel Bustin. Recitation—Freddie and the cherries, Edith Bustin. Song—Naughty Tom, Etta Story. Song—Spring time is coming, Sibelle Knowles. Chorus—Just a little Pansy. At the close of the programme a few repeats were requested for the benefit of some who had been late in coming. At the close Mrs. Thomas, the North End hostess, moved a vote of thanks to the juvenile performers and Miss Noble for the enjoyable and interesting entertainment, and carried unanimously.

A DISGRACEFUL SCENE

St. John's Need of a Patrol Wagon is Once More Made Evident.

Last evening about 7:30 o'clock a woman under the influence of liquor was arrested on Brasel's St. by Officer McVey who had a hard tussle with the woman, and when finally he obtained a tussle and had her placed upon it she resisted violently. On the way to the police station the team was followed by about one hundred people, the majority of them young children, who listened to obscene language from the unfortunate woman.

Yesterday afternoon about 5:30 o'clock the intoxicated woman, who lives on Strait Street, endeavored to participate in the foot of Waterloo St. all the while being followed by a crowd. The scene was very disgraceful and disgusting.

Later on she was arrested and the scene for a patrol wagon was once again evident.

THE GEORGIA MINSTRELS

A "Capacity" Audience Saw a Good Show in the York Theatre Last Night.

The York Theatre was crowded last evening when the Georgia Minstrels in fine array ready to participate in the best part of an excellent show. The company is strong in every particular and the type of performance is the dandy showmen to the letter. To attempt to particularize the leaders in the performance would be unfair, for they all show marked ability. Robert William has a magnificent voice and his whistling was an enjoyable feature. The most marked feature of the whole performance was the acrobatic members of the troupe who performed here, but few reached the standard of the performers last evening.

A happy vein runs through the whole show and those who see it will regret the manner of the evening spent.

TRAFALGAR DAY

English and Scotch Societies Are Considering Its Celebration.

It is expected that St. George's and St. Andrew's societies will co-operate in celebrating the 100th anniversary of the battle of Trafalgar, Oct. 21 next.

At the quarterly meeting of St. Andrew's Society last evening a committee was appointed to meet with a committee from the English Society and talk the matter over. The former committee consists of B. R. Macaulay, Chas. K. Cameron, Gordon Leavitt, J. Mack, J. E. M. Baxter, Andrew Malcolm and Dr. T. D. Walker.

It is felt that the anniversary of the battle of Trafalgar offers an exceptional opportunity for joint action on the part of the two organizations, and a most successful one. It is being forwarded to them. There was no discussion as to what form the celebration might take for such a matter is as yet somewhat premature.

There were songs and instrumental selections during the evening, and about 10:30 o'clock the meeting closed. The society formed up and, headed by the pipe, escorted the president, B. R. Macaulay, to the railway station, where he took the train for his summer residence.
