COLONEL FOWLER'S BATTALION IS TO BE NUMBERED 104TH

The 88th Will Be a Western Unit—Some Further Rumors Affecting the Wintering of Soldiers in St. John

There is still no further word as to whether or not the 84th battalion will be quartered in St. John. Lieut.-Col. Fowler was in the city today on his way to Sussex from Ottawa, but had no authoritative information on the subject. He said the battalion, of which he was to have command, known up to now as the 88th, was henceforth to be known as the 104th, the former number being given to a western unit.

What Will Come Here

The O. C. of the latest New Brunswick battalion had no word as to what unit would be quartered here. So far as the 104th was concerned, he said, the instructions were that one company was to be stationed in Woodstock, one in Fredericton, and two in Sussex. This would mean that none of the 104th, at least would be here, and, according to Lieut.-Col. Fowler, the siege battery now being organized here and practically filled, will be sent to Fredericton for winter training.

These announcements have been heard with mixed feelings of surprise and protest about the city by those who have been active in recruiting as well as many of those who have joined the colors. They are of the opinion that the lack of further word from Ottawa with regard to a battalion coming here, signifies much in favor of Halifax, where there are already two battalions of infantry, an artillery unit, members of the permanent force, besides the naval officers and men.

Ready to Go

Word from Sussex by men who have come to the city within the last few days says that the 84th is about ready to strike camp, and that there is a firm belief among officers and members of the unit that Halifax will be their station during the winter, and not St. John. Quarters are being made ready in Sussex now for the stationing of the two companies of the new battalion there, but it is felt that the 84th will not remain in camp much longer. There has been talk to the effect that the 55th will be brought here, but this suggestion is scouted by those in contact with the military situation, who are convinced that it will winter overseas.

The Siege Battery

The first announcement as to the siege battery's period of training was that they would go to Woolwich, Eng. That this will be carried out is the view of some military men here. If it is not followed, they are asking why should it be necessary to send the unit, which will be composed of 300 men, almost every one a St. John man, to Fredericton, when they can be quartered here so comfortably. It is not thought if the battery is to receive most of its training on this side that it will be taken from the city for the purpose, and furthermore, it is the belief that the unit will be sent overseas very soon after its training.

Recruiting

Several applications for service with the 104th were made at the Mill street office this morning, but only three men succeeded in passing the medical examinations. One of these does not wish his name published at present, while the other two are Alex. Graham Brown of this city and Philip Capinsky, a Russian. Two recent recruits with the siege battery are I. C. E. employes, James Harrison, of the freight office staff, and Phillip Leo McBride, a brickman, both of whom enjoy the best wishes of their associates for success with the colors.

NO PROPERTY SALES

The semi-weekly report of real estate transfers in the province shows not a single deed recorded in either St. John or Kings counties. There are, however, at least the usual number of mortgages. Other counties show an average number of transfers.

ALEXANDRA GIRL REPORT

In the drawing conducted by the Alexandra Circle, Soldiers' Comfort League this week, Mrs. G. W. Higgins was the winner with No. 24. Among the donations received was a pound of tobacco from James Newman. The collection of cents by the children resulted as follows: Vera Carlin, Pearl Sears, Marjorie James, Charlotte Hoffman, Florence Gallop, Helen Archer and Roy Beckett, one yard each; Margaret White, Doris Ingraham, Dorothy Sutherland, and Dolly Chipman, two yards each, and Helen Logan, three yards.

OPENING OF NIGHT SCHOOL.

The evening technical classes this year will be opened on next Monday at 7 p. m., in the Centennial school. Many have doubtless been awaiting this announcement with interest, as the school last year was well attended and most of those who took the course will be present for more advanced studies this season. It affords an excellent chance for young men or old who have not had an opportunity of attending the regular schools and every effort is made to have the course up-to-date and interesting, with simplicity prevailing as much as possible in the methods of instruction.

The teacher of the regular school classes in writing, arithmetic, etc., will be Rex Cormier, while W. S. Vial will instruct in mechanical and other drafting. The tuition at all the classes is free.

MEETING OF PATRIOTIC CIRCLE.

The second meeting of the "Patriotic Circle" of the Victoria Street Baptist church was held at the home of Mrs. Scott, Adelaide street, on Thursday evening with twenty members present. The officers—President, Miss Phoebe Vanwart; vice-president, Mrs. Scott; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. John Appleby; chairman of material committee, Mrs. Oliver Akerley. Last year the meetings were held in the parlors of the church, and much valuable work was accomplished. This winter they will be held at the homes of the members. The treasurer reported a balance of $18 on hand from last season. Miss Bertie Campbell and Miss Mabel Scott gave delightful musical selections, and the dainty lunch was served by the hostess. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. E. H. Fleming, Cedar street. The meeting was brought to a close by the singing of the national anthem.

ST. PHILIP'S CHURCH AFFAIRS

K. J. Hamilton writes to the Times protesting in behalf of the colored people of St. Philip's church against a charge made by Rev. J. H. H. Franklin in the appeal by him published in the Times on Tuesday. Mr. Franklin said: "I found petty grafting and many things unbecoming in a church, and I have vigorously fought them and by so doing have incurred the ill-will of some of the congregation."

Mr. Hamilton says he is sure that accusations of this sort unsupported by evidence, do not or should not bear much weight with the public. He adds that they are an injustice to the colored people, and especially to those who have supported the church in the past but will do so no longer under the present pastor.

HIS WOUNDS SERIOUS, ST. JOHN SOLDIER NOW IN ETAPLES HOSPITAL

Information received from Ottawa today by Miss Mary Birmingham, 149 Brussels street, tends to show that the wounds received by Private Duncan James Grey, No. 69,335, of the 29th Battalion, as reported in yesterday's casualty list, are quite serious. Friends here will hope for his recovery from his injuries. Official word received this morning by Miss Birmingham from the adjutant general, Ottawa, said that Private Grey had been admitted to hospital at Etaples, France.

His wounds were described as including a gunshot wound in his left side, and the severance of his right hand. Further particulars were promised when received at headquarters. Private Grey is a native of Scotland, but has resided for the last sixteen years in St. John, and was employed with J. Rodrick & Son, woodworking factory.

"General Depression"

It seems as if this most annoying of all warriors, "General Depression," has been put to rest. Certainly he is now beating a most vigorous retreat.

Good crops and "General Optimism" have been too much for him.

Business is reviving. Employment is now numerous.

People are developing the buying spirit.

Merchants and manufacturers will find this a splendid time to begin their newspaper advertising campaigns.
