JUDGMENT OF THE CRITICS.

The Christian Guardian.—Dr. Burwash has produced a work that indicates his right to a high place among the Biblical expositors of the day. We know of no work heretofore published in Canada which presents in equal degree evidences of thorough Biblical scholarship and theological acumen.

The New York Christian Advocate.—We congratulate our Canadian brethren on the appearance of such a scholarly work. While not as pretentious in size as some other works on the same epistle, it is learned, careful, and richly exegetical and expository. We have been especially delighted with the exposition of the difficulties of the famous eighth chapter. The book has many such valuable passages, and establishes the author in the front rank of theologians.

Canadian Methodist Magazine.—The commentary is lucid and convincing, evading no difficulties, but patiently grappling with them and seeking their solution. To all Bible students, but especially to the ministers of our Church and candidates for its ministry, we cordially commend this volume, one of the most important contributions to the exegesis of this epistle yet given to the world.

Rev. Prof. Shaw, LL.D., Wesleyan Theol. Coll., Montreal.—You may most profitably consult Dr. Burwash on any of the great passages which in this epistle deal with the difficult problems of man's condition, and in all his exegesis you find evidence both of thorough research and of wise and independent judgment. Read for example on Romans v. 12, "And so death passed upon all men," etc., one of the most difficult sentences in the epistle, and views similar to those of Hofman and Dietzsch, which Golet and Meyer so summarily dismiss, are ably, and, I think, correctly defended. The work is a credit to Canadian scholarship and to Canadian Methodism.
