

CHARGES MADE AGAINST HEAD OF RAIL BOARD

Rogers Declares McKeown Ordered to Give Certain Decisions

OTTAWA, Jan. 21.—After an absence of eight years, the voice of Hon. Robert Rogers was again heard today in the House of Commons. He spoke in the debate on the address which promises to continue till the end of next week. He described the Speech from the Throne as "born of political fright and political contradictions." He declared that the raw materials of Canada were being poured into the United States and coming back as finished products. And he charged that every member of the House knew that Chief Commissioner McKeown "had directions to do and give certain decisions concerning cases. I do not propose—Mr. Rogers went on—to deal with that now, but I will deal with it at a later period."

"Will my hon. friends permit me," interrupted Hon. Ernest Lapointe, acting Government leader, "is he referring to any member of the Railway Commission having received directions from this Government?"

"To the chairman of the Railway Commission," replied Mr. Rogers. "As to his decisions?" queried Mr. Lapointe.

"To the chairman of the Railway Commission," repeated Mr. Rogers. "It is rather a serious charge," observed Mr. Lapointe.

"It is a serious charge, agreed Mr. Rogers.

"Worse than that," commented Hon. H. H. Stevens.

Travel Story At N. H. S. Enjoyed

Under the auspices of the Justamere Club of the Ladies' Aid of the Portland United Church, a greatly enjoyed travelogue was given last night in the Natural History Society's rooms by Miss Muriel Fanjoy and Miss Grace Waring, who told of a recent trip to California and back. They had traveled by a different route on the return journey.

Miss Fanjoy described the outward trip and Miss Waring told of the homeward journey. Their description of the country through which they passed was greatly appreciated and the very fine series of lantern slides, shown by Dr. William MacIntosh, made the scenes still more realistic for their audience. Rev. H. A. Goodwin, pastor of the church, presided.

During the evening vocal solos by Lester Rowley were much enjoyed. After the program, refreshments were served by Mrs. McIntosh.

BORE FOR 20 HOURS GET ALCOHOL HOARD

Eight Robbers Pierce Thirty-inch Wall—Loot Estimated at $100,000

NEW YORK, Jan. 22.—After 20 hours of uninterrupted labor, during which they smashed through a 30-inch brick and concrete wall with electric drills, crowbars, cold chisels and other tools, eight men aboard two trucks drove away from the Burlington Industrial Alcohol Corporation, at 894 Greenwich street, with loot estimated at $100,000. This included 88 casks of grain alcohol from the Burlington Corporation and $5,000, violins, crockery and furniture from the Penn Commercial Corporation, importers, at 888 Greenwich street.

Throughout their operations they held as prisoner Frederick Jesse, a watchman for the Penn Corporation. They treated him with a peculiar consideration. Jesse was not bound, gagged or otherwise mistreated. Food was offered to him when the robbers ceased work for a while and sent two of their number out for coffee and sandwiches. Later Jesse was permitted to telephone his wife, in Ridgefield Park, N. J., that he had met some "jolly old friends" and would not be home as usual.

The robbers ignored many casks of denatured alcohol and with fine discrimination selected only the pure grain alcohol. They worked in relays for a time, and once had almost decided that the fortress-like wall was not penetrable. While this question was under consideration, however, some of their number put in the "spare time" attacking a safe, which yielded $5,000.

Policemen Warned To Shun Boasting

NEW YORK, Jan. 22.—Modesty in narrating their exploits to newspapermen was imposed upon the policemen of Jersey City in General Order No. 12, issued by Director of Public Safety John Beggans.

The order warns against "ornamentation" of stories given to reporters by the "individual policeman involved, upon whom the reporters sometimes have to depend." Mr. Beggans said he had investigated a number of newspaper accounts of fires, crimes and other events in which the police had acted, and had found that the facts did not support the assertions credited to some of his policemen.

Disciplinary action will follow violation of the director's wishes.

Sight Is Neglected

In money matters we keep a close watch whether we are getting ahead or behind the game.

We keep a pretty fair idea of the state of our general health.

We may neglect our teeth for a time, but severe pains soon tell of trouble.

But our Sight may go overstrained for years without direct eye pain. And since four in five need the corrective aid of Glasses we should all have an examination without waiting in vain for understandable symptoms of trouble.
