daily attendance was better in the last school year than in the year 1901-2, the comparison being 77 per cent in 1901 and 88 per cent in 1924.

The recently adopted schedule for teachers' salaries and regulations for janitors are printed in the report, which has also the course of instruction for common schools in this province and the grade to girls in grade 11 dress.

A hearty vote of thanks was extended to Mr. Goodwin. The league orchestra was present under the direction of Stanley Goodwin.

The annual meeting of the society will be held at the parsonage, 90 Main street, on next Friday evening.

Roman scientist, Morichini, traced evidences of oil at various locations along the Tiber valley within the city.

The legends attaching to the fons olei are shown to have a substratum of truth, and while evidences of ancient wells do not perhaps justify intensive research and sinkings today in the precise locations indicated by history, modern engineers nevertheless are now following up the traces opened by these

ROME, April 9—That the subsoil of Rome contains various potential oil volumes of the long looked-for mineral gushers comes as an exasperating rearegerly for native petrol, and is, on the other hand, determined to restore Rome to its classic dignity as a radiant capital under unsullied skies.

The presence of oil has not only been tevenled by modern experiment, but has been known for hundreds of years—if the generations had only been able to read their Roman history in the light of present-day scientific knowledge.

SUBSOIL OF ROME

This thesis with a surprising succession of facts in a contribution to the official municipal publication "Capitolium." Working from an analysis of the history of Rome's subsoil, he shows that a volcanic rent revealing burning oil explains rationally the sacrifice of Quintus Curtius in the flaming pit that opened amidst the Forum, and also holds the secret of the eternal light peculiar to the cult of Vesta.

BIRNING WATERS.

HORSE IN DIFFICULTY.

Influenza and la grippe, like typhoid fever, take a terrible toll of physical strength. Even after the immediate danger of pneumonia has passed and the patient is "getting well," the road to recovery is a long and wearisome way.

What is neded is food and fuel to repair the wasted tissues and supply the blood stream with wholesome nourishment.

HORSE IN DIFFICULTY.

A horse owned by Manchester Robertson Allison, Ltd., while hauling a delivery wagon at the corner of King and Charlotte streets yesterday morning at 9.20 o'clock, was thrown to the ground when one of his shoes became caught in the street rallway tracks. The car traffic was delayed for some time while the willing workers helped to get the hoof clear of the rails. Other than a slight strain to the animal's leg, than a slight strain to the animal's leg, no other damage was caused.
