Fatality at Game.
Toronto, Feb. 7.—Edward Curtin, 35 years old, who witnessed a hockey game at the arena here on Saturday night, between Canadians and St. Patrick's, from behind over the bleachers, fell about seven feet and alighted on his head. He died two hours later.

Murray Cannot Go.
Fredericton, N. B., Feb. 7.—For their B. H. L. game here on Thursday night the Fredericton and Murray's men agreed upon C. M. Murray of St. John as referee, but today word was received that Mr. Murray is laid up at his home at St. John with tonsillitis and will be unable to act.

Brown as Referee.
Fredericton, N. B., Feb. 7.—Frank M. Brown of Moncton has been agreed upon as referee of the Maritime Intercollegiate Hockey League game here tomorrow night between U. N. B. and Acadia.

May Go Outside.
Fredericton, N. B., Feb. 7.—The Campbellton and Chatham clubs have failed to agree upon a referee for the crucial game of the N. B. H. L. championship race to be played at Campbellton on Wednesday night, and the selection must be made by the president of the league. It may be necessary to bring in a referee from outside the province. Campbellton, it appears, suggested Stanley Staples of this city or C. M. Murray of St. John. Chatham replied that neither was satisfactory, and declared for Frank Brown of Moncton. Chatham afterwards suggested the double referee system, with Brown and either Murray or Staples acting, but in the meantime several Nova Scotians had been communicated with.

N. H. L. Results.
In the National Hockey League fixtures played in Hamilton last evening Ottawa defeated the home team by a score of 7 to 3.
In Toronto St. Patrick's defeated the Canadians by a score of 10 to 6.

CURLING.
Thistles Win.
Owing to unfavorable weather conditions the second match between St. Andrew's and the Thistles curling clubs was not completed Saturday. In the afternoon the Thistles aggregated 122 points against their opponents 91. It was mutually agreed to call the match at the conclusion of the afternoon play.

Canadians Lose.
(Canadian Press Despatch)
Edinburgh, Scotland, Feb. 6.—The Canadian curlers on Saturday played the fifth test game with Scotland and were defeated in a close game by 117 to 104, thus losing both the game and the rubber.
