RECENT WEDDINGS

Friends in St. John will be interested in a wedding which took place yesterday in Fredericton when Miss Beatrice V. Crockett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. H. Crockett, was married to Harry C. Moore by Rev. J. H. Sutherland. Miss Violet Wilson was bridesmaid and Harry Wilson best man, and Misses Elsie Trites and Eileen Crockett flower girls.

Miss Verna Leola Baird of Fredericton and Henry James Francis of Portsmouth, England, were married in Fredericton yesterday by Rev. J. S. Sutherland. Mrs. and Mrs. Francis will make their home in Winnipeg.

G. Herbert Vail, formerly of St. John but now residing in Truro, was married at Pictou Landing last week to Miss Greta Campbell Wall of Truro.

RECENT DEATHS

Irene Louise, four-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Cyr of Carleton street, died yesterday afternoon. Friends sympathize deeply with those bereaved.

Henry Hamilton Godard, formerly with J. & A. McMillan office staff, died in the Winnipeg General Hospital on Aug. 9. He had recently been with the C. P. R. at Brandon. Interment took place in Revelstoke, B. C.

Many will sympathize with Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Fisher, 188 Bridge street, in the death of their infant daughter, Rheta Elizabeth, which occurred last evening.

Walter Burns of Fredericton Junction died suddenly at his home yesterday. He leaves his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Simeon Burns.

The death of Mrs. Nellie E. Burgholt occurred at her home in Lunenburg, Arizona, on Tuesday. She was a daughter of the late S. Wells Tingley of Dorchester, N. B., and leaves her mother and three sisters, besides her husband and infant child.

MISS CARTIER WILL MEET THE PRINCE

Miss Hortense Cartier, only surviving direct member of Sir George Etienne Cartier's family, arrived in Montreal this week after an absence of forty-six years from Canada. She came from South France, where she has been living since the death of her father, in 1878. Her visit to Canada is due to the centenary of her father's birth, which is to be celebrated in Montreal by the unveiling of a monument on Mount Royal Park, and other monuments at St. Antoine-sur-Richelieu and at Quebec.

The daughter of the great French-Canadian who wrote his name in history as one of the fathers of Confederation, comes as the guest of the Cartier centenary committee, and during her stay in Montreal will be the guest of the dominion.

When Miss Cartier arrived at Windsor station she was met by Acting-Mayor Le Roy Shaw, who welcomed her in the name of the city, after which she was presented to members of the ladies' committee of the Cartier celebration.

Miss Cartier did not show any traces of fatigue from the long journey. She made the trip from Havre to New York on board La France, the first trip the big French liner has made since it was leased from government service. From New York to Montreal she was escorted by E. W. Villeneuve, president of the Cartier celebrations.

The distinguished visitor was not too well impressed by the sight of New York during the few hours she spent in the big American city. She thought that the skyscrapers were horrid, but she appreciated the comfort of American hotels and Pullmans, which, she said, were superior to anything of the kind in Europe.

Miss Cartier will visit the Cartier Fair, and she is going to Quebec, and will meet the Prince of Wales, who is on a special invitation of the government. Miss Cartier is seventy-nine years old.

To Drop 'Obey' From Marriage Ceremony

Radical Changes Proposed in Report For Revision of Episcopal Practices

New York, Aug. 21—Radical changes in the sanctioned practices of the Episcopal church are provided for in a report made public here today of the Church's Commission on the Revision and Enrichment of the Book of Common Prayer, to be submitted to the general convention of the church in October. The report makes provision for faith-healing, anointing with holy oils, requiem, communions and prayers for the dead, reservation of the sacrament and intinction—the use of a dipped wafer instead of the common communion cup. There are a score of radical proposals, and bitter controversy is looked for over them on the convention floor.

The commission, constituted in 1918, is a joint body, acting with the authority of both the House of Bishops and the House of Deputies of the Episcopal church.

The recommendations for changes in Episcopal church practices include: Elimination from the marriage ceremony of the word "obey" for the bride, and "with all my worldly goods I thee endow" for the groom.

A prayer for the dead. Change Whitsunday to the Day of Pentecost and all Sundays from then until Advent to read as Sundays after Pentecost.

Abbreviation of the ten commandments for the use of the clergy (their language not altered, but certain explanatory or opposite statements eliminated).

Alter the order for administration of the Lord's Supper in its designation, to read:

"The Divine Liturgy, being the order for the Lord's Supper, or Holy Eucharist, commonly called the Holy Communion."

Denies Report

Ithica, N. Y., Aug. 20.—Robert E. Treman, today absolutely denied a report published in New York city to the effect that he and Mrs. Irene Castle were married at Pickett (S.C.) in May 1918. Mr. Treman in his denial states that at that particular time he was not in South Carolina but was stationed near Detroit (Mich.) in the army service.
