Rescued From Drowning at Indiantown—Brought up With Pike-pole
John F. Nagle of Chesley Street
Run Over by Car and Killed
This Morning

To be plunged into the chilling waters of the river, with heavy boots and cumbersome working clothes on to drag him steadily downward, and without an intimate knowledge of the art of swimming, was the bitter experience of Edward Linton, an employee of J. H. Holly & Son, yesterday afternoon at Indiantown. He had been aboard the tugboat James Holly and was about to jump from her into a rowboat near at hand. It was off Bowan's wharf, and the tugboat was moving, a little and it was difficult to calculate the distance and as he jumped the two boats seemed to move farther apart. He missed and went into the water.

His fellow workmen, in the rowboat put about to his rescue. Linton struggled against the tide, although chilled by the freezing waters about him, but the vent down for a second time just a little before the row boat reached him, the heavy working clothes and top-boots which he wore being weighty factors in keeping him below water. He had his dinner-pail in his hand at the time and it could be seen glimmering and shining through the depths of the water as he was fast sinking to the bottom, and this was the guide which served the men in the boat in his rescue, for they dived a pike pole towards it, the pole caught and he was pulled to safety aboard the raft-boat, and after a little was sufficiently revived to be taken home.

LOCAL NEWSMORE GIRLS THIS WEEK

There were ten marriages reported to Registrar J. B. Jones this week and sixteen births—twelve girls and four boys.

SIX DEATHS

At the board of health offices today six deaths were reported for the week, one each from the following causes: Phthisis, fever, paralysis, bronchitis, acute peritonitis, and cerebral hemorrhage.

MARRIED IN ROXBURY

Word received in Digby this week tells of the marriage of Florence Turnbull, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Turnbull, to Miss Mary G. Robinson, daughter of Captain and Mrs. Fred A. Robinson, all of Digby, which took place in Roxbury, Mass., on Monday, the 11th inst.

ALLIANCE COMMITTEE

The committee appointed by the Evangelical Alliance to investigate local conditions, consist of Ven. Archdeacon Raymond, Rev. J. C. B. Appel, Rev. M. P. McEachern, Rev. J. E. S. St. John, H. A. Anderson and Rev. H. C. Thomas. They will begin work at once.

PLENTY OF POULTRY

There was an abundance of poultry in the country market this morning as many farmers brought in a large stock. Prices were not much higher than last week, at about thirty-two cents a pound, chickens from 65 cents to $1.25 a pair, and geese about $1.25. Eggs and butter were scarce and prices firm.

REV. MR. APPEL WILL SPEAK

Rev. Lowell C. McPherson is conducting services in the Sydney street church, Digby. Christian meetings will be held all next week, continuing over the following Sunday. Rev. Mr. Appel, president of the New Brunswick and P. E. I. Synod, School Association, is expected Monday to assist Mr. McPherson.

AN AMHERST INDUSTRY

News—The Amherst Boot & Shoe Company is making a great record for itself these days, the output so far this year being more than $100,000 ahead of the same period of last year. If the same clip can be maintained to the end of the year, the company's output will pass the $1,000,000 mark this year, or more than $125,000 ahead of the last previous year in the company's business.

TIVERTON TO BE PORT OF ENTRY.
Tiverton, N. B., which has hitherto been a preventive station in the customs department, will ere long be created a port of entry. Meantime, in order to accommodate the business interests, the customs officers will be authorized to receive duties on imports, and the inconvenience which hitherto resulted from dutiable goods going to the Sandy Cove or Freeport customs offices will be avoided.

FIRST OF SEASON

The members of the Mesmerettes' Club of the St. John Power Boat Club will gather this evening about the fireplace for the first time since the opening of the season last spring. They enjoyed a pleasant series of gatherings on Saturday nights of last year, and these are to be continued through this season, a smoke-talk being held and refreshments served in the cozy club room at Marble Cove.

KNIGHTS AWAY

A large number of the members of St. John Council, 937, Knights of Columbus, will leave this evening for Moncton, to be present at the exemplification of degrees which will take place in the council rooms there. Others will go tomorrow in a special car. Several of the knights will remain until Monday to attend an assembly which is to be held on that evening and to which the visitors have been invited.

I. L. & B. ASSEMBLY

An informal assembly is to be held on Tuesday evening next in the rooms of the I. L. & B. Association, Union street. The speakers will be Messrs J. A. Barry, Philip Fitzpatrick, M. O'Neill, H. J. Sheehan, R. E. Fitzgerald, J. Henneberry, W. Harris, M. Bolan, and J. Daley, while the committee in charge is composed of James McManus, R. E. Fitzgerald, Roy O'Neil, F. J. Casey, G. Stafford, J. Daley, J. Barry, J. O'Brien, W. P. Higgins, M. O'Leary, F. Cronin, and Walter Harris.

WITH THE STEAMERS

Practically all the river steamers were late in getting away from Indiantown this morning, and some had not left up to press time this afternoon. The steamer D. D. Purdy, due at Indiantown about 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon did not arrive until about one o'clock this morning. The trouble was caused with the boiler tubes. Repairs were made today and she will probably get away this evening between seven and eight o'clock. The steamer Champlain with a heavy cargo left about half an hour behind her scheduled time while the May Queen was about six hours behind time in departure.

John F. Nagle of Chesley Street
Run Over by Car and Killed
This Morning

At the works of the Metal Construction Company at Blue Rock, a fatal accident occurred this morning, when John F. Nagle, of Chesley street, lost his life by being crushed beneath a flat car. The accident happened about half-past eight o'clock. Mr. Nagle, who had been in the employ of the company for about two weeks, was working on the gravel cars, removing the gravel which was being carried from the pits. While working on one of the cars this morning he stepped off to unloosen the cable which was attached. The car was still in motion and he was struck and knocked underneath the car and dragged for a considerable distance before the car was brought to a standstill. His body was badly mangled, his chest and side being literally crushed in. The ambulance was summoned and the unfortunate man was taken to the hospital. He suffered great pain and died a little before noon. He was unconscious most of the time, but regained his senses a few moments before dying.

Mr. Nagle was by trade a fisherman, and was engaged in that business in St. John for many years. He worked at sea all summer, and at the close of the season went to work with the Metal Construction Company. He was a prominent resident of the North End, and had a large number of friends in this city and elsewhere who will hear of his death with regret.

He is survived by his wife, two sons, three daughters and four sisters. The sons are: Urban, of the Detroit & Michigan R. R., Detroit, and Frank, who is at present residing in the city. The daughters are: Mrs. Robert Millett, of Atlantic Mass.; Mrs. John McMillan, of Belmont, Mass.; Mrs. Joseph Nagle, of Portland, Me.; Miss Josephine Nagle, of Boston, and Mrs. Michael Corr and Mrs. John Rooney, of this city, are sisters.

THEFT CHARGED;
SAYS IT WAS A JOKE

Steamer Youth in Trouble With Police—Other Cases Heard

Moey Kraska, aged 16, was arraigned in the police court this morning on the charge of stealing clothing to the value of $22, the property of Carl Hume from the steamer Westport, lying at Thorne's wharf. He pleaded guilty, but said that he took the clothing as a joke, and intended to return it today. He told the court that he worked on the steamer with Hunt and that the latter had been teasing him and that he wanted to get even. Hunt said that, besides the clothing, a valuable watch had been taken. The prisoner, when arraigned, had four suits of clothing, a razor, a comb, and a pair of shoes. He was charged with stealing the watch, and was fined $5 or two months in jail, and another got off with a fine of $4 or ten days in jail.

One prisoner charged with drunkenness was fined $5 or two months in jail, and another got off with a fine of $4 or ten days in jail. Otis Kelly and Henry Murphy, arrested several days ago on a vagrancy charge, were again brought before the court and were fined $5 or three months in jail. Two other prisoners, who were in jail on remand, were brought before the court and fined $15 or two months in jail.

MALDEN BRIDE WAS FORMERLY OF ST. JOHN

A pretty wedding, of much interest to a large number of St. John friends, was solemnized in Malden, Mass., on November 8 by Rev. Mr. Dowry, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church, when Miss Jennie M. Hampton, of Everett, Mass., was united in marriage with Edwin J. Thibodeau, of Lynn. After the wedding a tempting repast was partaken at the residence of the bride's mother, 10 Park road, Everett.

Formerly St. John people present were: Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Allingham, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Carleton, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Ritchie, Miss Bertha M. McMurphy, and Miss Bertie McPherson, Mrs. C. M. Macdonald, Fred DeVine, went from St. John to attend. The bride was the recipient of many useful and valuable presents, including cut glass and silverware, and a substantial check from her aunt, Mrs. J. C. Mack. Mr. and Mrs. Thibodeau were serenaded to the train by many of their young friends who gave them a very hearty send off. They will reside at 37 Franklin street, Lynn.

GOOD WORDS FOR ST. JOHN NURSE

The Warren and Barrington Gazette, of Warren, Rhode Island, in its issue of November 8 has two articles of interest to St. John because they deal with the work of Miss George P. Foster, district nursing association, Miss Foster is thanked "for the great good work she is doing here, whole hearted and untiringly." In addition to her other duties, Miss Foster was appointed medical inspector of Warren a few months ago and the paper also refers to good results from her activity in this service. Miss Foster is a niece of Arthur Foster, Carmarthen street.

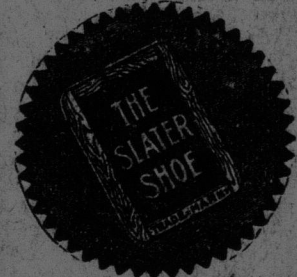

AUTO JAMMED BY CARS

The delivery motor car owned by W. & K. Pederson, of Charlotte street, was damaged about one o'clock today in Dock street, near Union when it became caught between two cars, traveling in opposite directions. It was said that the driver of the car had attempted to cross the tracks while both cars were coming towards him, and he probably did not see one of the cars and in trying to avoid the colliding with one came forcibly in contact with the other, riding partly over the fender before the auto was partly caught by both cars. It suffered damage towards the rear. The accident held up traffic for a little while. The driver of the automobile was uninjured. The motor was only a few weeks in use and was practically a new car.
