When You Sit For Your Photograph

NEVER visit the photographer unless you are feeling absolutely well, is my advice to you. While the retoucher can remove the wrinkles, the hollow places and the puffiness under the eyes caused by illness, lack of sleep or bad temper, in doing so he will also remove all hint of expression. You don't want to look like the wax dollies that the little toddlers adore, do you?

Another thing, don't insist, as so many many women do, on arranging your hair in some new and possibly startling fashion after you reach the "picture man's." Wear your hair in some accustomed and becoming way and you will obtain pictures that will look like you, instead of a hairdresser's model.

Always insist upon having at least ten or twelve proofs and study them carefully when they arrive. I say "arrive" because skilfully applied rouge. The eyebrows, too, should always be brushed carefully into a pretty arch as they have much to do with the beauty of the face. Do not be afraid of looking "made-up," as you must be clever enough to make the unreal seem real. That is quite a task, I have set you but I feel convinced you are equal to it.

What say you?

Least, but decidedly not least, never forget that one side of your face is probably prettier than the other and "put your best side foremost" when being photographed!

LIQUOR LAW FOR REVENUE IN CHATHAM

Some Amazing Statements Made at Meeting of the Town Council

A very interesting state of affairs exists in Chatham in relation to the Scott Act. The Commercial, in its report of the last meeting of the town council, says:

The report of the Scott Act inspector was read and showed eight convictions and one case pending.

Ald. Neale then introduced the matter of Scott Act enforcement, and asked Ald. Snowball, as chairman of the police committee, how many fines had been paid in this year. Ald. Snowball replied that he had no idea, but he thought about $6,000.

Ald. Neale said that there was no use beating about the bush, and that everybody was aware that favoritism was being shown, and all the liquor sellers were not given a square deal.

He said that the Scott Act in Chatham was a farce, and was being run for revenue, but he knew and was prepared to back his statement with money that there were men selling liquor who had never been fined at all, while others were fined two and three times a month. He said there was too much drunkenness and too many saloons, and that at a meeting some time ago it was decided to have nine or ten lines a year, but the council had not stuck to this. So many were selling that they could not afford to pay the heavy fines, and consequently are selling rotten booze. The men who were not fined had a pull with the council. He had been in cases where convictions had been secured, and he said that he had always spoken the liquor dealers and would continue to do so. He admitted that some of them did not live up to the contract.

Alderman Tweedie joined in and said that if the council were backing the liquor sellers they should pay fair. He was against liquor selling, but thought that the dealers should live up to the regulations.

Alderman Walsh said he thought they were all being used fair.

Alderman Morris took exception to his remarks. He said that he knew of two cases where convictions had been secured, but he had not heard of them, when no evidence had been secured.

Alderman Snowball said that two years ago Alderman Snowball was for putting all offenders in jail, but now he had changed. He wanted to know why?

Alderman Neale thought that the council should know what the inspectors' instructions were. He did not pose as a popularity politician, but he wanted things done on the square. The report of the inspector was then received and ordered filed.

LAXATIVE FOR OLD PEOPLE—"CASCAETS"

What Causes Are to Weak Eyes, Cascaets Are to Weak Bowels—10-cent Box Will Truly Amaze You

Most old people must give to the bowels some regular help, else they suffer from constipation. The condition is perfectly natural. It is just as natural as it is for old people to walk slowly. For age is never so active as youth. The muscles are less elastic. And the bowels are muscles.

So all old people need Cascaets. One might as well refuse to aid weak eyes with glasses as to neglect the gentle aid to weak bowels. The bowels must be kept active. This is important at all ages, but never so much as at fifty.

Age is not a time for harsh physics. Youth may occasionally whip the bowels into activity. But a lax can't be used every day. What the bowels of the old need is a gentle and natural tonic. One that can be constantly used without harm. The only such tonic is Cascaets and they cost only 10 cents per box at any drug store. They work while you sleep.

THE FIRST GRAY HAIR SIGN OF AGE

Easy Way to Preserve Natural Color of the Hair and Make it Grow

A harmless remedy, made from common garden sage, quickly restores gray hair to natural color. The care of the hair, to prevent it from losing its color and lustre, is just as important as the care for teeth to keep them from discoloring. Why spend money for cosmetics and cream to improve the complexion, and yet neglect your hair, when gray hair is even more conspicuous and suggestive of age than wrinkles or a poor complexion? Of the two, it is easier to preserve the natural color and beauty of the hair than it is to have a good complexion.

All that is necessary is the occasional use of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, a preparation of common garden Sage and Sulphur, combined with other valuable remedies for dry, harsh, faded hair, dandruff, itching scalp and falling hair. After a few applications of this simple, harmless remedy, your hair will gradually be restored to its natural color, in a short time the dandruff will be removed, and your hair will no longer come out but will start to grow as nature intended it should.

Don't neglect your hair, for it goes further than anything else to make or mar your good looks. You can buy this remedy at any drug store for fifty cents a bottle, and your druggist will give you money back if you are not satisfied after using. Purchase a bottle today. You will never regret it when you realize the difference it will make in your appearance.
