Herzog Comes to Terms.
Macon, Ga., April 2.—According to Manager Stallings of the Boston Braves an agreement has been reached by the Boston Club and Charles Herzog and the latter will join the Braves at August on Wednesday.
He believes that Herzog and President Haughton of the Boston Club will patch up all differences on Wednesday and bring to an end the long squabble which affects the New York Giants as well as the Braves. Stallings met Herzog at Jacksonville Saturday night while en route from Miami to his home at Haddock, Ga., and a settlement was agreed upon. The Boston manager was reached by long-distance telephone at Haddock yesterday afternoon and confirmed the report that the trouble between club and player had been adjusted.

Pacific Coast League Opens.
San Francisco, April 2.—The Pacific Coast League baseball season opened today, with a prospect of ideal playing weather in all three California cities where the six teams met for the initial games. San Francisco opened on the home grounds with Oakland, Salt Lake City played at Los Angeles, and Vernon at Sacramento.

The Portland club withdrew from the league some months ago and its place has been taken by Sacramento.

of the Eastern Baseball Association has Mass. It was announced here tonight.

The business will include action on the proposal to take Providence, R. I., into the league in place of Portland, Me.; selection of an eighth city in place of Lawrence, Mass., and decision as to the manner of collecting the war tax on admissions.

Stallings Counts on Minors.

"THE PAINTED DOLL"

A Russian Art Film in Five Parts

"After having seen one of the Russian Art Films, one of the best yet probably not the best, Mr. William A. Johnston, president and editor-in-chief of the Motion Picture News, sat down and wrote Mr. N. S. Kaplan, of the Russian Art Film Corporation, and unsolicited letter, from which this is an extract—
"I think that it is only fair to write you my impressions of your picture which I viewed yesterday —fair to you and the motion picture as I see it.
"The acting in the picture is the finest I have seen in photoplays.
The story gripped me as few picture stories have. I can best explain my feeling toward this kind of picture in the following way:— Compared with popular American pictures, it bears the same relation that a story of Guy de Maupassant has to popular magazine fiction and the best selling novels of the day. For my part, I prefer the de Maupassant stories." Mr. Johnston went on to say that there are many others who prefer real stories and pictures of the same calibre and he closed with this statement:—
"I think it regrettable that we do not aim to attract more of this class of the public to our picture theatres with more pictures of the artistic and literary distinction of this one."
