

3. CONNEXIONAL MEMBERS OF CONFERENCE.

That there be three Brethren appointed to attend Conference, including Bros. R. Walker and J. Bugg, to be called Connexional members of Conference, who shall hold their position for life, or until age or infirmity shall prevent them attending conference, for three consecutive years; of these, two shall be laymen and one minister. District meetings shall be at liberty to nominate brethren for this position, but the appointment shall be with the Conference; but the Conference shall be expected to give the preference to seniority of years, membership, and official life.

That Bros. W. Bee, R. Cade, and M. H. Matthews, be a committee to prepare rules relating thereto.

4. SUPERANNUATED MINISTERS.

(a) That the rule made at last Conference in reference to superannuated Ministers having a seat and voice in Conference, be repealed, but that any superannuated Ministers affected by the last year's rule while in force shall not be deprived of the privilege which it gave them.

(b) That in future superannuated Ministers shall answer the question on Historical Report, "Is he embarrassed in his circumstances?"

5. CHILDRENS' FUND.

That the apportionments to the stations for the Childrens' Fund be made in future on the following principle, viz. Fifteen cents per member, and six per cent on the ordinary income, but that the Finance Committee and Conference shall have power to make exceptions in what they consider special cases.

6. CONNEXIONAL HYMN BOOKS.

That all our churches and sabbath schools be affectionately urged to use the Connexional Hymn Books, both in our sabbath schools and ordinary services.

7. SICK MINISTERS SUPPLY.

That Mission Stations be reminded that if a Missionary, through sickness becomes unable to perform the duties of his station, application must be made to the Missionary, or Executive Committee, who will as soon as possible, provide a supply, and the station, in behalf of the Missionary Committee must, in the usual way, apply for the allowance from the Relief Fund.

8. CONSOLIDATION OF MINUTES.

That a committee of five members of Conference be appointed to consolidate the new legislation passed since the Conference of 1872, also to consider what other new regulations or modifications of existing rules, might be made with advantage, and to report through the general committee to the next Conference, and the following shall be the committee, viz.—Revs. R. Boyle, J. C. Antliff, B. D., H. Harris, R. Cade and W. Bee.
