From a Porecarding Merchant of St. Louiz, Phb. 4, 1858.

Da. Araf; Your Pills are the paragon of all that is great in medicine. They have coned thy little daughter-of alcerous access upon her hands and feet that had proved incurable for years. Her mother has been long grieved incurable for years. Her mother has been long grieved incurable for years. Her mother has been long grieved incurable for years, and in her hair. After our child was cured, she also tried your Pills, and they have cured her.

Too much cannot be said of your Pills for the curs of contracters. If others of our fraternity have found them as efficacious as I have, they should join me in proclaining it for the benefit of the multitudes who suffer from that complaint, which, although bad cough in itself, is the progenitor of others that are worse. I believe contenues to originate in the liver, but your Pills affect that organ and cure the disease.

From Mrs. E. Staart, Physician and Mulwife, Beston.

I find one or two large doses of your Pills, taken at the proper time, are excellent promotives of the natural scretion when wholly or partially suppressed, and also very effectual to cleanize the stomach and expel worms. They
