SECOND EDITION.

MRS. HAMILTON'S TRIAL. AN IMMENSE CROWD PRESENT IN COURT.

The Primaries Indicted for Arson in the case of Mrs. Hamilton, Judge Pollock presiding.

MAY'S LANSING, N. S. Sept. 18.—The court room was crowded this morning with people anxious to hear the proceedings in the case of Mrs. Robert Ray Hamilton indicted for arson.

Mrs. Hamilton looked pale and was her face showed evidence of her close confinement. She did not look towards the jury.

THE LONDON STRIKE. Dockers Resuming Normal Aspect.—Many Joining the Union.

LONDON, Sept. 18.—Work on the docks is assuming its normal aspect. Fewer non-union men are employed and many of the men engaged to fill the places of the strikers are joining the union.

There have been no attacks this morning upon "Blacklegs."

LONDON, Sept. 18.—Three thousand men assembled outside the Victoria Dock this afternoon and demanded the dismissal of the men taken on during the strike before they returned to work. The directors of the company refused to grant the demand. The men at work are guarded by policemen.

A Negro Beaten. BY TELEGRAPH TO THE GAZETTE. NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 18.—A negro named Gus Reed was arrested yesterday for beating a white man, and was taken to the police station.

Manchester Business Increasing. BY TELEGRAPH TO THE GAZETTE. MANCHESTER, Sept. 18.—The Guardian in its commercial article says: There has been a little increase in business, due to the conclusion of a few moderate contracts. The spot business is trivial.

Disturbances in the Bay. BY TELEGRAPH TO THE GAZETTE. ST. JOHN, Sept. 18.—A destructive storm, which has been blowing since Monday, has done much damage to the crops and several dwellings have already been destroyed.

The Weather. WASHINGTON, Sept. 18.—INDICATIONS.—Rain, followed by clearing weather tonight. Wind shifting to west-northwest, light to moderate.

The Proposed Crutcher.—H. S. Spiller, who assigned in trust on the 9th inst. to the Crutcher estate, has gone to the United States. The liabilities are placed at $1500. Assets are a stock of book debt $1500, and a tract of land in the charge of the estate, and will dispose of the stock at once. The land is in the charge of the estate, and will dispose of the stock at once.

THE PYTHIAN MARK.—A new march bearing the title Pythian March has been composed and arranged for the Pythian Bandmaster Jones of the 62nd Fusiliers. It is a brilliant and very pleasing and contains but little that would make the fingers ache at all. It is not an easy march, but it is a fine march, and is being taught to the Pythian March.

ILLUSTRATED LITERATURE.—A splendid opportunity will be afforded the public to obtain a comprehensive idea of the wonderful delineation of characters and places as depicted in Geo. Wallace's popular work, "Ben Hur." A lecture on the subject, prefaced by illustrations with line drawings, will be given at the St. John's Church Sunday-school room on Thursday evening, by Mr. L. O. Armstrong, whose powers of amusing and instructing are strongly commended by the press of this city and elsewhere.

CONSPIRACY AND LARCENY.

INDICTMENTS RETURNED IN THE HAMILTON CASE.

John Mann and His Mother, Webbogone and Whited, Appear in Court.

New York, Sept. 18.—The grand jury made very short work today of the Hamilton conspiracy case. They began their inquiry into the case at 1 o'clock.

Mrs. Hamilton, John Mann, her mother, and Mrs. T. Anna Swinton, his mother, jointly with a conspiracy to defraud Robert Ray Hamilton, and the other, also against all three, with larceny in the second degree. The grand jury selected the bogus baby transaction as the basis for both indictments.

The three women are charged with conspiracy to defraud Mr. Hamilton by the sale of a bogus baby. The grand jury also indicted the three women for larceny in the second degree. The grand jury selected the bogus baby transaction as the basis for both indictments.
