VALUE OF VACCINATION.

The importance of vaccination, especially of children, cannot be too strongly urged. The history of medical science shows that it is the best means of preventing the spread of smallpox. Parents should second the efforts of the board of health and see that the work now being carried on by the medical men in the different wards is thoroughly done. A member of the Ottawa board of health, a few days ago said that in his opinion the chief danger lay in the young people not being vaccinated. Out of 75 or 80 cases in that city since the first outbreak considerably over half the patients were children who had not been vaccinated. In Quebec city, Dr. Catellier, who with a staff of physicians is at the Hotel Dieu Hospital every morning to vaccinate the members of poor families, has urged that all patients take advantage of the opportunity to have their children vaccinated free of charge, and declares that if all the people of Quebec will come forward and submit to vaccination smallpox will never cause the city any trouble. In Ontario the government has appointed a special medical inspector to visit the unorganized new districts in that province, with settlements scattered from the Ottawa river to the Manitoba boundary, to see that proper precautions are taken to protect them from any outbreak of smallpox. In Manitoba, where, as stated in Saturday's Star, the disease exists in quite a number of towns, vaccination is being done with a view to prevent its spread. Two city physicians with whom the Star talked on Saturday declared that with general vaccination there was no danger of smallpox becoming epidemic in St. John. It is gratifying to know that rapid progress is being made, and that the heads of families are heartily supporting the efforts of the board of health in this respect.

THE LIBRARY.

The question of how Mr. Carnegie succeeded in amassing wealth need not enter into the consideration of the question whether St. John shall accept his aid in securing a first class public library. His wealth is enormous, but his methods of securing it were not different from those employed in a smaller way in our own cities by people who, owing to limited opportunities, have only made thousands where he made millions. When these persons make gifts to churches or benevolent institutions, the money is accepted with thanks, and the donors are praised for their generosity. Mr. Carnegie is giving away his wealth so fast that one American journal humorously suggests that some thoughtful friend should urge him to make some provision for his own old age. The question to be considered by the citizens of St. John is whether they can afford to give the yearly grant called for by the terms of Mr. Carnegie's offer. It goes without saying that a modern library equipped and furnished as it would be with so large an expenditure as is proposed, would be a great benefit not only to the citizens, but would attract to the city many who would be glad to avail themselves of the opportunity it would afford for special lines of study. The Star is of opinion that in the interests of the city, which we all hope will grow in population and importance, Mr. Carnegie's offer should be accepted. To provide ourselves with a much less valuable library would, without this aid, involve a larger expenditure.

Paul Kruger urges arbitration as the proper means to settle the South African trouble, but when asked what he would do if the arbitrators decided against the Boers he is alleged to have declared that such a thing was impossible, and added: "We should take up arms if arbitration went against us. We should never submit to the results of the arbitration if the results were unfavorable to us. If Kruger actually made this statement, his brain must have lost some of its acuteness. It would be somewhat difficult to secure arbitrators if they were told beforehand that their decision would not be accepted."

Lord Strathcona, at the solicitation of Sir William Hingston and others, has agreed to become patron of the Montreal society for a popular sanatorium for the prevention and cure of consumption. Plans for a building have been prepared and a site has been donated by the Fathers of the Holy Cross. Lord Strathcona, whose gifts have already greatly enriched Montreal institutions, has promised to do all in his power to assist in this new work of benevolence.

A Buffalo despatch says: "Next Thursday the board of trade of a large number of the leading cities of the United States will have representatives in Washington, delegated to call upon the president and solicit his interest in the matter of closer trade relations between the United States and Canada. The intention is to have him incorporate in his message to Congress a strong recommendation for such measures as will make possible a fairer trade policy towards Canada."

A Filipino leader has gone into the proclamation business, after the manner of Gen. Botha. He warns the Filipinos that any of them who act as guides to the Americans will meet the fate of traitors, and the same will befall any who surrender to the Americans. The American papers, which have been poking fun at Kitchener, will now have an opportunity to change the subject.

The domestic problem in Toronto is offered a new solution. A lady who has been in Barbados for some time urges that colored girls from that island be brought to Canada to engage in domestic service. Mr. Blair's Chinese solution of the puzzle does not appear to be popular in the queen city.

Two winter port steamers are on the way to St. John. If St. John gets a share of the Jamaica service it will be because the citizens pleaded their own cause at Ottawa.

The Canadian government would not suffer either in dignity or popularity if a formal offer of another contingent for South Africa were offered. But Mr. Tarte and Mr. Bourassa doubtless object.

PREACHING OF MISSIONS.

The Dominion Fathers of Ottawa Have Been Busy This Year.

(Ottawa Journal.) The Dominion Fathers of Ottawa have since spring had a busy time in the preaching of missions or account of this being the jubilee year. As preachers the Dominicans are in considerable demand. At present Rev. Fathers Count and Archambault are preaching a mission in Gaspe, and in Rimouski and Bate de Chaleurs districts.

A new community of the Dominicans was last month established in Montreal. It consists of three priests and two brothers. The Ottawa establishment now includes about thirty-six members, made up of guests, brothers and novices. The novitiate contains about twenty students. Since their supervision is from St. Hyacinthe, Theology is the only subject taught in the novitiate here. A Dominican priest's course of study, before he is ready for actual ministry, covers a period of seven years. First of all he is put in at probation, then two years at philosophy and four years at theology. The probationers and students in philosophy pursue their studies at St. Hyacinthe, and those in theology at the novitiate here. The novitiate in Ottawa was established about a year ago.

THE IRISH LANGUAGE.

It Was Voluntarily Surrendered—A Point for the Gaelic Leaders.

DUBLIN, Nov. 7.—Lord Justice Fitzgibbon of Ireland rather damped the ardor of some of the Gaelic Leaguers by his speech at the inaugural meeting of the Law Students' society. He showed first of all, that Irish people had voluntarily surrendered their language, and that it was not taken from them by oppression. He did not believe much in bilingualism, for no man could have two mother tongues, any more than he could have two mothers. He asked those who wished to revive Irish and reduce English what period of Irish they proposed to revive? The modern Irish or classical Irish? The great difficulty that they had to contend with was that there was no fixed standard, for it was an inexorable law of nature that languages, like a human being or a decaying tree, must either grow or decay. The difficulty in this connection might be realized if he reminded them of the Irish proverb which asserted that a Connacht man spoke Irish with grace, but without grammar; but without grace, the Munster man spoke Irish with both grace and grammar, and the Ulster man with neither. (Laughter.)

D. G. MICA FOR ENGLAND.

Trial Shipment From New Mining District Near Golden Sent to Manchester.

(Vancouver World.) A trial shipment of one ton of black mica consigned to Manchester, England, has been made from the mica beds on Ice river, east of Golden, B. C. If this shipment gives satisfactory returns it will mean a great deal for Golden, as Ice river is only a few miles from it and is reached by leaving the railway at Leacholl and following up the west bank of the Beaverfoot until Ice river is reached, the mineral belt lying about four miles up the latter stream. The mineral on Ice river is not only mica, but a high grade of fine ore is found, while assays from a vein of gold copper ore give a value as high as $50 in gold per ton. A survey for a wagon road to this new and promising district is now being made by the provincial government.

TO DEVELOP QUEBEC.

QUEBEC, Nov. 8.—Recent newspapers from Gales, France, furnish some details of the present mission to Canada of W. Nordin of Paris and Chalais, who is now at Lake St. John. Mr. Nordin is a Swede, and head of the large lumber house of O. W. Nordin & Co. of Paris. Not only has he the intention of operating an immense forestry domain in Canada, of which the lumber and pulp experts will be shipwrecked to Europe, but he proposes also to establish a large colony of Finlanders in the Province of Quebec, and to attempt the winter navigation of the St. Lawrence. He is backed by a strong syndicate.

A full attendance of members of Carpenters' Union, 219, is requested on Wednesday evening, 12th inst., at 8 o'clock, at Sons of England hall, corner of King and Germain streets. Business of importance.

IN PRAISE OF JAPANESE.

Returning Missionary Speaks Highly of Education Under the Mikado but Anglo-Saxon is Better.

(Winnipeg Telegram.) The Rev. S. R. Hope, a missionary who for eight years has been in charge of the Presbyterian mission work at Kobi, Japan, passed through the city yesterday afternoon on his return journey to Japan. Mr. Hope has been enjoying a visit to his old home at Chester, South Carolina.

In conversation with a Telegram reporter, he spoke particularly of the wonderful school system of Japan. This system, he states, is managed by the government, from the primary schools to the university. The schools throughout the entire island are under government supervision, and are in a most prosperous condition. Private schools are few and far between, and are poorly patronized.

Cotton and cloth manufacturers, the missionary states, are in a highly advanced state, and all the latest modern appliances are in use. The government, which takes the form of a limited monarchy, is very popular, and the people since the abolition of the feudal lords, or Samurai, are gradually becoming more and more prosperous.

Mr. Hope speaks very highly of the Japanese intellect, but says that he thinks that the statements which have been made that they are as highly educated as the Anglo-Saxon race, are greatly exaggerated.

JEWES SERVICE TO MANKIND.

(National Magazine.)

In religion, in philosophy, in commerce, in the arts and—let it not be forgotten by the thoughtless who are accustomed to reward the Jews as unscrupulous money getters merely—in every struggle that man has ever made in any land, under any sun, since Abram tended his flocks, the Jews have contributed their full share to the advancement and the enfranchisement of mankind. A people without a country, they have made one; they have thriven on persecution and survived the despotism of blind hatred. They have, with a tenacity unprecedented, preserved their racial integrity while keeping pace intellectually, morally and in material prosperity, with man's utmost progress. In "The Jewish Encyclopedia," which is the product of more than 400 scholars, they have for the first time had full and fitting representation as a people.

CHURCH CLOSED.

Rev. Howard H. Roach, who has recently come to take charge of the Tabernacle Baptist church, Haymarket square, has informed the Sun that his church was closed last night and would not be opened until after the epidemic of smallpox had subsided. This precaution was taken to prevent the spread of the disease. The step was also taken in view of the panic which has caused a great dropping off in the number attending the Sunday services. Pastor Roach is very hopeful of the future, when the epidemic has subsided will open up again and that some of the monks have been arrested on the charge of complicity in the abduction of Miss Ellen M. Stone, the American missionary, and her companion, K. S. Tallich.

MAINE GRANITE INDUSTRY.

(Caldwell Times.) The granite industry of Maine is now enjoying a period of great prosperity, large orders being in hand for both rough and cut work, while many important contracts are pending. All of the companies are employing larger crews than for a number of years past, and wages are higher than for a number of years, with good help none too plentiful. In some departments of the work it is impossible to get men enough to do the quarries have so much work that new contracts are being refused every week.

STANLEY KIERSTAD DEAD.

Stanley Kierstead, formerly of the firm of McKewen & Kierstead of this city, died in Sussex at three o'clock yesterday morning. He has been a sufferer from paralysis for about five years. Mr. Kierstead has been located at West Superior since leaving St. John, but during the last few weeks has been back on a visit, accompanied by his wife. He went to Sussex about a week ago. The funeral will be held tomorrow from the Episcopal church, Bellefleur Creek, where his father, the late A. J. Kierstead, is buried.

Stone, the American missionary, and her companion, K. S. Tallich.

When in Bed.

Put some Vapo-Cresoline in the vaporizer, light the lamp and place it near the head of the bed. Then all the time the baby sleeps it will breathe in the healing, soothing vapor. For the hard colds and coughs of children nothing equals Vapo-Cresoline.

MRS. BORDEN RESIGNS.

It is announced that Mrs. E. L. Borden has resigned the presidency of the Halifax Council of Women on account of her prolonged absence in Ottawa. Mrs. Charles Archibald has been appointed in her place, but Mrs. Borden still retains the vice-presidency of the province of Nova Scotia. The Halifax council is a very active one, and its record for the past year is particularly satisfactory, including as it does a successful application for a law prohibiting exportation in public places. The council has also assisted, during the year, in a movement to have vested funds provided in street cars as a protection to the motormen.

There were only 76 pupils in the Aberdeen school on Friday last out of a register of 384. The Aberdeen is in the smallpox district.
