In the Suffolk county superior court recently Blanche Emery had a marriage to J. A. Cameron annulled. It was found that Cameron had been married to Edith lielyea of Brussels street, St. John. In 1889 the first Mrs. Cameron obtained a divorce in Boston, but the decree had not become absolute when Cameron and Miss Emery were married.

WALL STREET TRAGEDY.

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—Using a new automatic machine pistol, William C. Turner, former president and treasurer of the Climax Bottling Co., today shot and killed W. J. Mallard, secretary and treasurer of the company, and Robert Hamilton, its president, and then killed himself with the same powerful weapon. A second revolver, loaded in every chamber, was found in Turner's pocket, and it is believed he planned to take more lives than he did. The shooting was caused by a quarrel between the three men over an alleged shortage in Turner's accounts, for which he was threatened with criminal prosecution. The tragedy occurred in the offices of the law firm of Cantor, Adams & McIntyre, in the heart of the Wall street district during the busy noon hour. Turner, who was 45 years old, and lived at Mount Vernon, N. Y., was a cousin of Governor Odell of this state, and the head of the law firm in whose offices the shooting occurred is President Cantor of the borough of Manhattan. NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—Edgard M. Leventritt, who was Turner's counsel in the affairs preceding the tragedy. WALL STREET TRAGEDY.

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—Edgard M. Leventritt, who was Turner's counsel in the affairs preceding the tragedy, and was present in the room at the time the shooting began, made a statement this evening, in which he defended Turner against the charge that he was a defaulter. "Mr. Turner," he said, "was not a defaulter. Me did not criminally misappropriate the funds of the Climax Bottle Co."
