There are two exhibitions connected with the School, one of $40 and the other of $20, and a prize of $15 for French.

Rules Regulating the Collegiate School Prizes or Exhibitions.

"The exhibitions shall be annually contended for, the first prize to be open to the Senior form alone; the second to all the forms of the School except the Senior."

The exhibition of forty dollars shall be awarded to the pupil of the Senior who shall stand first on the list of Examiners, and the second exhibition of twenty dollars to the pupil of all the other forms who shall stand first on the list of the Examiners.

No pupil shall be entitled to the highest exhibition unless the examination he has passed shall be such as to qualify him to matriculate at King's College, though it is not necessary for him so to do.

Several years ago a third prize was added to the number, viz. : one of ten dollars for the best Scholar in the French language, open for competition to the whole school.

The Committee in charge of this prize fund offer for the year 1891 a prize of fifteen dollars for the best scholar in French, open to all the school, and five dollars for the best scholar in German, also open to all the school.
