The "pop" concert at the Church of England Institute last night was a great success and the committee having charge of the concert would well to have another at some early date. The parlors were set apart for those gentlemen who wished to indulge in a cigarette, and if their lady friends did not object to smoking they could sit in the parlors also. It was distinctly a freer and pleasanter concert than has been held in the institute for a long time. Tables were placed in the lecture room and there ice cream and cake and other dainties were served to order, and during all this the stage at intervals was occupied by the Hispalia club chorists. They sang some of the old choruses that the public never tire of. Lieut. Everett also sang, and Mr. White sang "Love's Breeze." An instrumental quartette made up of Messrs. Unslake, Mott, Preston and Grant rendered several selections.

WINDSOR.

[PROGRESS is for sale in Windsor at Knowles, book store and by F. W. Dakin.]

JULY 25.—Windsor has had a musical treat the last week or two in the organ playing of Mr. Gaylor of Brockton and the singing of Miss Dymond of Boston who has a highly cultivated and very pleasing soprano voice. Informal recitals have been given in some of the churches and on Sunday last Miss Dymond sang and Mr. Gaylor played at the morning service in the baptist church, several solos were rendered most artistically and the large congregation present was delighted. It is rumored that Miss Dymond assisted by some of the musical and literary talent of the town will give a concert in the near future when everyone will have an opportunity of hearing some charming music.

Mrs. Cole, Mrs. McKean Mrs. McGregor and Mrs. Gass took the infant class of St. Stephen's school to Black's grove for a picnic on Friday, the day was fine and nice eatables were in abundance so the little ones were jolly and happy.

Mr. E. J. Lay and Miss Lou Lay have returned from Parrsboro.

The Misses Biles of Halifax are guests of Mrs. Elber Havelock street.

The sudden death of Mrs. Hensley which occurred early in the week has been with profound regret. I understand the cause was heart disease but have not as yet learned the full particulars.

PARRSBORO.

[PROGRESS is for sale at Parrsboro Book Store.]

JULY 30.—St. James' Sunday school Kentville came over by the Evangeline on Wednesday and spent the day at the Island.

In spite of heavy rain on Thursday morning the delayed excursion to Wolfville took place about seventy five persons going, mostly members of the Summer school of Science who were very kindly entertained by the people of Wolfville. After a visit to the Indian Seminary and the Manual training school a most temperate and heartily served lunch was partaken of in Chipman's hall with speeches and music afterwards in College hall and then as the weather had cleared carriages were provided for a drive to Grand Pri and through the Gaspean valley. A call was made at Acadia Villa school where the visitors were courteously received by Mr. Patterson and treated to his delicious cherries before leaving. The boat arrived at the wharf at Parrsboro about midnight, the delightful return trip by light of the full moon, largely compensating for the unpleasantness of the morning.

Mr. Kaddor of King's college gave one of his interesting lectures last evening in St. George's hall, Mrs. F. F. Eaton of Bon Bay is visiting Mrs. Muir.

A party of ten American ladies are staying at Mr. Smith's at Whitehall.

Dr. Johnson has taken the house last occupied by Mr. B. F. Young and begun housekeeping. Mrs. Johnson is back from a visit to her parents Dr. and Mrs. Burgess of Chertsey.
