When framing a picture it is a good plan to paste a piece of brown paper over the back to keep out the dust. If this is done by pasting the paper in the ordinary way, a lot of creases will be left, and the paper will not fit properly.

A better method is to wet the paper, all round. Now paste these edges, lay the paper over the back of the picture, and allow it to dry. When dry, the paper will be quite tight and smooth.

PEOPLE OF SACKVILLE WANT ELECTRIC POWER DURING DAY

Argument Heard Before Public Utilities Commission Yesterday Afternoon—Agreed to Hold Sittings in Sackville and Examine Witnesses There.

The hearing of the complaint made by the town of Sackville against the Eastern Electric Light and Power Company took place yesterday afternoon in the government rooms before the Public Utilities Commission. Those present as members of the commission were G. O. Dickson, Q. C., chairman, A. B. Connell, K. C., and Felix Mitchell, M. G. Teed, K. C., and A. B. Copp were present on behalf of the town of Sackville and Attorney General J. B. M. Baxter and R. Trites represented the company.

Mr. Teed in speaking for the town said: "We have come to the Public Utilities Commission to ask for the continuation of the electric light service by day, which the Eastern Electric Light and Power Company has wrongfully discontinued without the sanction of this board." He submitted that it was the duty of the board to investigate the trouble which was causing, he said, so much inconvenience to the residents of Sackville no matter if a complaint was made or not. He contended that the company had done what it should not have done. It is asked that this board order the service to be restored pending this inquiry.

On the other hand the Attorney General said that the company had discontinued its service because it was losing money hand over fist and that the consumption during the day did not warrant the company's continuing the supplying of light. The company, A. B. Copp and R. Trites both gave a review of the trouble which had occurred between the town and the company. Mr. Copp said when the Eastern Electric Company took over the old company's plant, light was being supplied until 12 o'clock midnight. The new company then made a proposition to the town stating, providing the townspeople would wire their houses, the company would supply light day and night. The company then went home, he said, and cut off part of the service during the night and later the noon hour during the day.

Trites in reply said the company finding that it was suffering financial loss to the town at a great loss was obliged to discontinue the service by day on April 1st, 1914 at the same time serving a written notice to each of the consumers signifying this intention. A petition signed by the town council including the mayor was presented to the company asking it to continue the service until July 1st. This action was taken by the town with a view of incorporating a plant of its own or allowing the present company to increase its rates. The company continued the service until July 1st, but as no bona fide offer of interest was taken by the citizens in the matter at all, the company discontinued the service on that date. So, contended Mr. Trites, the step was not taken in such a hasty arbitrary manner as it would appear. The company does not intend to act unreasonably neither does it wish to conduct the service at a loss.

At present the service is good and adequate without light during the day. Mr. Teed said this involves the calling in of witnesses and asked that a hearing be held in Sackville.

Mr. Copp said the residents were anxious for the service and must have it. "We want to know if the company will continue to supply us the light else we shall start a plant of our own," said Mr. Copp. "We have had the service and we cannot get along without it."

Chairman G. O. D. O. Trites said that although the commission knew the company had done wrong in discontinuing the day service without their sanction yet they did not feel justified in ordering them to continue it pending the inquiry at a loss of money.

Attorney General Baxter said if the hearing is to be held in Sackville, the company is prepared to go there at the same time or begin to submit evidence if the commission sits in St. John.

It was finally decided to hold the hearing in Sackville on Wednesday, Sept. 8th, at 8 o'clock p. m. Witnesses will be on hand for both parties and a settlement of the situation is looked forward to on that date.

The board will hold another meeting this afternoon when business will come up for discussion.

During the afternoon arrangements were made with the matron of the Evangeline Home to adopt the infant until the police authorities decide what will be finally done with it.

An endeavor is being made by the police to discover the person who abandoned the child.

It has been learned however that the new clothing left with the infant was not purchased in the city but has been imported from the United States. It is not home made but of the sort that can be purchased in the stores.

There was no note left in the satchel or any clue that could be easily worked on by the police and the task of finding out anything further about it is rather hard.

Last evening Inspector Wickham was called on by no less than three city ladies who wished to adopt the little girl, but this official could not hand the infant to any person until the decision of the court is given.

Union of N. B. Municipalities.
The tenth annual convention of the Union of New Brunswick Municipalities is to open in the Council chamber at the City Hall, Fredericton, today, and forty delegates are expected to attend. King McEwen, K. C., the president, will deliver the opening address, and the principal subject for discussion is to be the civic importance of patriotic work. Papers will be read on technical education and municipal well-being. G. M. McDade is acting secretary. Among the cities and towns to be represented will be St. John, Sussex, Moncton, Fredericton, Woodstock, Campbellton, Newcastle, St. Stephen and St. Andrews. The following counties will be represented: Restigouche, Westmorland, St. John, Charlotte, York and Victoria.

Narrow Escape.
A serious accident was narrowly avoided about 9:30 o'clock on Monday morning when an auto owned by A. W. Adams collided with an express train driven by Henry Garnett at the corner of Union and Waterloo streets. The auto was coming down Union street and on making the turn into Waterloo street the accident occurred. The front wheels of the express wagon were broken and young Garnett as well as a lad named Gilbert, who happened to be on the vehicle at the time, were thrown off and bruised considerably.

BYE-LAW VIOLATIONS.
G. E. Crow, reported in the police court for having an auto with the rear light a considerable distance from the number plate, stated that he had since moved his light so that it now conformed with the law, and was allowed to go after the officer had verified his statement by examining the light.

Frederick Roderick, reported for driving his auto without having the rear light illuminated, was allowed to go on making a satisfactory explanation.

George Allen, reported for allowing

BOARD OF HEALTH TO RETAIN LINE

Want telephone rate for Epidemic Hospital to be as for ordinary subscribers.

The Board of Health held a special meeting yesterday afternoon regarding the telephone line out the Sandy Point Road. It was decided to adhere to the original agreement.

Thirteen years ago when there was an epidemic of smallpox in the city, the board bought a place out the Sandy Point Road, to be used as an epidemic hospital and for its own convenience erected a telephone line to that place at a cost of about $250. For service the board was to pay the New Brunswick Telephone Co. an annual rental fee of $25, which was at that time more than was paid by the ordinary subscriber. A few years ago the company got a subscriber out that way and obtained permission from the board to run the phone in from the line owned by the board. For this the company allowed the board $5 annually.

Since then, however, the company has put several subscribers on that line without asking permission of the board. Not long ago, the company communicated with the board regarding this line and the board offered to transfer the line to the company for $50, provided the price of a private service should remain the same. The company not only refused this, but announced that it would have to ask an annual fee of $60. Secretary Burns said that while the dispute did not involve a great amount of money, yet it was very annoying and that if the telephone company is allowed to erect a new line, the line owned by the board would be useless and the board would then have to pay whatever the company demanded and on this account the board is anxious to hold to its original agreement.

Rivals Her Daughter in Youthful Beauty

A well-known society matron whose youthful beauty is so well preserved that she is regarded as her daughter's rival in this respect—though she does not pose as such—attributes her girlish complexion chiefly to two things. She says: "I am convinced that many cosmetics, by overloading the skin and pores, tend to age the complexion. Mercifully was I spared the temptation. I keep the pores clear, permitting them to breathe, and removes dead particles of cuticle which are constantly appearing and which give the complexion that faded look. Whenever my skin begins to get the least bit off color, muddy or faded, I go to my drug-gists for an ounce of mercurized wax; I apply this nightly, like cold cream, for a week or so, washing it off every morning. This is what keeps my complexion so fresh, white and velvety, even during the trying days of summer."

"The absence of wrinkles and flabbiness I owe to the use of a simple face bath prepared by dissolving one ounce of powdered salicylic acid in a half pint of water. This keeps the skin tight and firm."—Social Register.
