Remember Vimy Today and Give.

THE CHIEF INSPECTOR.
Chief Inspector Rev. W. D. Wilson, under the Prohibition Act, who was in the city yesterday attending court proceedings in the interest of the Prohibition Act, returned to his home in Fredericton last evening.

TRAIL RANGERS' CLASS.
Captain R. L. Stokes, General Secretary of the Y. M. C. A., addressed the regular meeting of the Trail Rangers' class from the United Church in the "Y" last night. His topic was "Scotland," illustrated, and was much enjoyed by the large attendance of boys under fourteen years of age.

APPEAL FOR VINNY DAY.
At several of the theatres last evening speeches were made from the stage in reference to the Tag Day for the U. W. Y. Special arrangements for the brief addresses to be given, and the applause which the mention of the object of "Vinny Day" received showed that the cause is a popular one.

FOURTY HOURS' DEVOTION.
The forty hours' devotion here conducted in the Cathedral parish, ends tomorrow evening with special services. Special masses were celebrated yesterday at the commencement of the exercises. Today special masses will be celebrated. Tomorrow is Holy Name Society Sunday, when the members of the Holy Name Society will attend the early morning Mass in a body.

CARS WELL SUPPLIED.
The colonist cars which carried the returning imperial troops and dependents to their homes yesterday from this port were each provided with 30 mattresses, 72 heavy blankets and 34 pillows and slaps. This work is undertaken by the Dominion Immigration Department, which does the same service for every troop ship which docks here. The average number of cars so equipped is 10 to each vessel.

THIRTY-THREE DRUNKS.
Two lone drunks were gathered in by the police last evening. With memories of the $1.00 collected in fines at yesterday's sessions of the police court, the inebriates refrained last evening apparently from the fluid. The grand total for the past week is thirty-two persons arrested for drunkenness, not a bad record for a prohibition town.

FREE DENTAL TREATMENT.
The first report of Dr. Mabel Hinton, just made public, shows that out of one hundred and fourteen pupils examined in grade two of the city schools, Aberdeen and St. Thomas, only twelve were found to be normal. Bad teeth came first in the list of defects, no less than twenty of the number needing attention to their teeth. She strongly recommends free dental treatment for those unable to pay for the necessary service.

SALE OF SOLDIERS' WORK.
Some fine results of the teaching of handicrafts to soldiers were shown yesterday, when the Royal Standard Chapter I. O. D. E. held at their room in Orange Hall a sale of baskets, trays and other articles. These were all made by the men in hospital and the making of them has proved a pleasant way of passing the time, which is so apt to hang heavily on their hands. Owing to the disagreeable day the attendance was not large, so the rooms will be open today. There was also on sale a number of articles of great beauty, wrought by hand from pure silver. The proceeds of the sale go directly to the men personally interested.

A PLEASANT SURPRISE.
Mrs. Robert Tennant, of 234 Crasie street, received a very pleasant surprise yesterday when her son, Pte. F. W. Tennant, arrived home on the morning train from Halifax, after nearly four years overseas. Pte. Tennant had written home nearly two months ago that he expected to sail for home almost immediately, and not hearing further news the relatives began to wonder why he did not return. Yesterday's surprise was all the more joyful therefore, Pte. Tennant went over with the 26th New Brunswick Battalion, and came through the war without a wound. He is being welcomed back by many friends.

HINES ORDERS BIG WAGE ADVANCE

The increase to Railroad Employees Aggregates $65,000,000.

Washington, April 11.—Wage advances aggregating $65,000,000 were ordered today by Director-General Hines for four hundred thousand railroad engineers, firemen, trainmen and conductors in both passenger and freight service—members of the "Big Four" railway brotherhood—retroactive since January 1, 1919.

DIED.

MCCARTHY.—In this city on the 10th inst. Mary Ann McCarthy, wife of John A. McCarthy, leaving her husband, one son, one sister and one brother to mourn their loss. Funeral arrangements later.

Nearly Six and Half Feet Tall

Captain Brian Terence O'Grady of North Vancouver Returned Yesterday After Doing His Bit Since 1915—Was Decorated.

An outstanding figure among the imperial officers who returned home yesterday on the S. S. Scandinavian was Captain Brian Terence O'Grady of North Vancouver.

Nearly six and a half feet tall, thin and jovial, he seemed the perfect type of an Irish soldier of fortune, but his war record was even a Kipling tale.

Captain O'Grady saw service as a private in the South African war and as a memento wears the Queen's and the King's medals. When the present war started he went overseas with the first contingent and early in 1915 secured a commission with the Lancashire Fusiliers, serving with the 22nd British Division.

With this imperial engineering battalion he saw considerable service at Salonica and for his services during the offensive attacks and retirement there was awarded the Military Cross in September, 1918. Before proceeding to Salonica Captain O'Grady was attached to the Allied staff of the Serbian army and for his splendid work in conducting the orderly and memorable retreat was awarded the Serbian Order of the White Eagle which was personally conferred by the Crown Prince in November, 1918.

Later Captain O'Grady fought in France and was severely wounded at the Somme engagement last year.

NOTHING DOING FOR RETURNED MAN

States When He Enlisted Employer Promised to Hold Position Open—Girl in His Place Now.

When the war outlook was not any too bright, back in 1916, a clerk in a local firm volunteered and was accepted for overseas service. He crossed to England that year, taking with him, he says, the promise of his old job back whenever he was ready for it. This he returned home some days ago, battle-scarred and war weary, received his final discharge from the army and immediately applied to his former employers for work.

However, for him, there was "nothing doing." A girl had been hired in his absence and was doing her work fairly well at much lower wages than he was paid. And of course, it's economical to keep that girl and let the returned soldier tramp from place to place looking for work.

This case has been duplicated in several instances in the city and it is rather and commentary on the times. It gives the returning soldier a mighty poor impression of the average employer.

HAPPY HOME COMING FOR YOUNG OFFICER

Lieut. H. S. Cotterill Arrived on Scandinavian Yesterday to Receive Telegram That Baby Boy Was Born in Home in Wawata, Sask.

"Boys, this is the happiest homecoming any man could have," declared Lieut. H. S. Cotterill yesterday when he was handed a telegram stating that a baby boy had been born at the home in Wawata, Saskatchewan.

Lieut. Cotterill went over in the fall of 1914 with the Strathcona Horse and later was transferred to that branch of the imperial cavalry known as Knolly's Yeomanry. With this unit he fought through the early engagements at the Egyptian theatre, later returning to France and to carrying on there with the British Tommies.

At the third battle of "Wipers," he won the military cross for frustrating a Hun raid and overpowering an enemy machine gun crew.

But to the lieutenant all his experiences paled into insignificance beside the fact that there was a boy at home, waiting to see his soldier dad. And besides the thrill of joy, there was a lightening relief as well, for he had not heard from Mrs. Cotterill since she sailed from Liverpool for home a month ago. It will be a happy reunion when the lieutenant gets back home.

FISHING SEASON AND RESTRICTIONS

Deputy Minister of Trades and Commerce, T. C. F. O'Hara, writing to enquire relative to the fishing season and those restrictions which may govern the industry during the present year, states that he believes few, if any restrictions will be placed on the industry this year, as the war brings over the markets will be opened up and the trade will boom. As to the minor restrictions which might be placed on certain kinds of fish products, the minister believes there will be of a light nature, so that the fishery trade in the Dominion should be brighter. Local fishermen are preparing for the opening of the season's industry and expect a good run.

Labor Conditions Over in England

Labor Leader J. C. Watters, Who Arrived on Scandinavian Yesterday, Says Conditions Still Serious But Believes Things Will Work Out All Right.

Among those who reached the city yesterday on the Scandinavian was J. C. Watters, the well known labor leader, who has been on the other side for about two and a half months. Mr. Watters when asked about labor conditions in England said they were still serious but from what he saw he believed things would work out all right. The labor leaders, representatives of the employers and of the government, were dealing with the problems in a broad minded way and he was satisfied would arrive at a solution of the problem which would be satisfactory to all concerned.

He had the privilege of attending the first meeting of the labor party, by invitation, at the opening of the British House of Commons and also of being present at the Industrial Conference held at Westminster, the latter gathering being probably the most unique in the history of labor. As a result of the conference he believed that labor would be given a larger measure of recognition than ever before.

Mr. Watters paid a visit to France and met his old friend, Sir Arthur Currie. He was personally conducted over the battle ground by Sir Arthur and Lady Currie and appreciated very highly the honor thus conferred, as he was the first civilian to be personally taken over the ground by the Canadian commander in chief. He was staggered by the devastation wrought and said it was absolutely impossible for anyone who had not seen the ravages committed to have any appreciation of the damage done to the country.

Mr. Watters will spend a few days in St. John before proceeding to Ottawa as he wishes to look into the conditions at the coal mines in the Maritime Provinces.

AMMUNITION CORPS COMES WITH 26TH

Unit is Now in England—Many Other New Brunswick Soldiers Are There Now Awaiting Transportation to Canada.

In a letter from a staff sergeant of the 2nd Divisional Ammunition Corps it is learned that that unit will probably return to St. John on the same vessel which will bring the Fighting 5th Battalion.

At present there are in England, awaiting transportation, the 1st Field Ambulance, the 1st Divisional Signaling Corps, the 1st Army Postal Corps and the 1st Divisional Ammunition Corps. Besides Major Magee's battery and the battery raised and commanded by Major Barker. On good authority it is learned that all these units will return before the 26th Battalion comes back and it is expected that they will each receive a hearty reception as that to be accorded to the infantry unit, particularly as most of the men are New Brunswick boys.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?
Shakespeare tells us there is nothing—and, if we have to believe the old adage which has come down to posterity, we are apt to accept him as the criterion. However, modern commercial progress has been fruitful in the matter of names. In any business, which has brought about many changes, which in their human relations have been especially constructive.

This situation is strikingly exemplified in the daily policy of the P. A. System and Co. In relation to the practice of which most business men are the question of "What's in a Name?" is affirmed, there's everything in a name, especially when an institution such as this has earned an enviable reputation for twenty-seven years selling always the best for the price, no matter what the price. Is it any wonder that a firm which has linked with its name a reputation for having the right goods, the fair prices, the courteous service, and the confidence of the people—should believe that there is everything in a name? A very hearty invitation is extended to every man and woman, Miss or Master. The extent of our efforts for many months are ready for you to see. We trust you will extend yourself the privilege of viewing magnificent stocks and Easter decorations contained herein at Dykeman's.

Nashwaak Mill Starts Monday

Manager Jones Speaks of the Arrangements Made—Notice Sent to Old Employees and General Workers.

R-NASHWAAK MILL.
S. J. Jones, manager of the Nashwaak Pulp and Paper Company in referring to the announcement of the reopening of the plant next Monday, has informed The Standard that the Nashwaak mill is only one in a chain, and that the close down since that fall was in line with the general policy.

The mill is all ready now to start operations on Monday morning, and though some of the crew will be put on a two tour shift of eleven hours one week and thirteen hours the next, it is the intention of placing a large portion of the help on a straight eight hour basis.

In starting operation with many new workers it was thought that the present is the most favorable time to put this arrangement into effect, also such an arrangement would work far better than if the system were put in force while the mill was running. The new plan will affect 60 men in a working force of two hundred.

As to the old employees and general workers yesterday is as follows:

NOTICE.
We are pleased to notify our employees that we will start our plant on Monday, April 14th, the following wage scale to apply:

Two-hour men formerly working 11 and 13 hours to be placed on three-hour basis of eight hours each (7 a.m. to 3 p.m.; 8 a.m. to 11 p.m.; 11 p.m. to 2 a.m.) Same rate of wage per hour as applied on November 30th, 1918 plus 10 per cent. No extra pay for overtime.

Day men working nine hours will be paid at the same rate per hour as on November 30th, 1918, to nine hours work, and nine and one-half for all work over nine hours, or work performed on Sundays and Holidays.

It is our plan to have the entire mill in operation as soon as possible. On account of warming the digesters, making up a supply of acid, etc., there may be a few days delay in starting some departments. We will be pleased to notify our employees to report for work as fast as they are needed.

LOCAL VENDOR PAID A VISIT

Liquor Inspectors Inspected Premises Yesterday as Result of Woman's Complaint—Everything Found Satisfactory.

The liquor inspectors made a visit on a local vendor yesterday to ascertain if the provisions of vendophore were being carried out to the letter and detection of the law. It appears a complaint was laid by a woman, whose better half got too much of the drink and was creating a disturbance, she immediately called upon the inspectors who journeyed to the place. After a lengthy explanation on that they will each receive a hearty reception as that to be accorded to the infantry unit, particularly as most of the men are New Brunswick boys.

During the battle of the Somme, in 1916, he was twice wounded, twice mentioned in dispatches and won the M. C.

The Canadian nursing sister who brought him back to happy health is now the wife of Lieut. Gray, Calgary, who served over three years overseas with the Royal Scots.
