The Board adjourned until Saturday week. The circulation of the DAILY TRIBUNE is rapidly increasing. Portland Police Court. There are not many in the Town o Portland now who feel inclined to get drunk; but the time of the Court is taken up with settling cases of abusive language and assault, of which there seems to be a full harvest. Sixteen convict boys escaped yesterday to the Long Island shore from the schoolship Mercury, and the country is now being scoured for them. One Frank Londenbern was severely shot in the hip and to be a full harvest.

Daniel Connolly was the only one to answer for being drunk, and he was fined $4.

John Fitzgerald and Daniel Ross were John Fitzgerald and Daniel Ross were charged with assaulting Bridget Myers.

Charles Wilson, captain of a scow boat, pounded his wife and threw her overboard

The assault was fully proved, and Fitzgerald was fined $20, and Ross $10. Ruse McGuskin used abusive language to Mary Baxter, and was fined $4. Bridget Treever was charged with abusing Johanna Steeves, but the case was dismissed. Peter Britt and William Connors were Platt, keeper of a Water street den, called to answer a charge of assaulting Charles Segee. This case was also dismissed on payment of costs.
