

THE ADDRESS OF THE
Canada Wesleyan Methodist Conference, 1870,
TO THE
CONFERENCE OF EASTERN BRITISH AMERICA, 1870.

REVEREND AND DEAR BRETHREN:—

We gratefully receive and cordially reciprocate the fraternal greetings borne to us in the Address issued at your last Annual Conference.

When we see you "stand in the old paths," and when we hear you summon "all men everywhere to repent," and declare unto them that it is the will of God, even their sanctification, we are not surprised to learn that the pleasure of the Lord so prospers in your hands, that you can annually point to hundreds who give themselves "first to the Lord and then to his Church by the will of God," and boast—"the seal of our Apostleship are these in the Lord!"

We cannot fail to recognize in the continued efficiency of your Educational Institutions, and in the liberal support of your Connexional Funds, the indices of a spiritual Church, as fully alive to her Scriptural obligations as exultant in her Gospel privileges.

We have acceded to the requisition of your College, and have authorized one of our esteemed young graduates, and a member of this Confer-
