HAD A STAB-LIKE PAIN THROUGH THE HEART.

MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS CURED HER AND SAVED HER LIFE.

When you get down to the least bit out of rhyme, your nerves unhinged, don't wait until you are prostrated on a bed of sickness. Take Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. They'll put you in such condition you'll know where to turn a hand, make your brain clear and active, your nerves strong, your blood rich and pure, and your whole being thrill with a new life.

Mrs. John C. Yensen, Little Rocher, N.B., writes:—"I was troubled with a stab-like pain through my heart. I tried many remedies but they seemed to do me more harm than good. I was advised by a friend to try Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, and after using two boxes I was completely cured. I cannot praise them enough for the world of good they did me for I believe they saved my life."

Price 50 cents per box or 3 boxes for $1.25, at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

A Rockland, Me., despatch of the 16th says: Capt Charles E Rhodes of Northport was drowned and his mate, Robert Baker of Lynn, Mass, had a narrow escape from death that afternoon by the capsizing of the two-masted schooner Lizzie of Belfast. The two men were the only persons on board. Capt Rhodes had been a deep sea sailor most of his life, voyaging to all parts of the world. Thursday night the schooner was still adrift in the bay on her beam ends.

MONCTON, N. B., April 22—While a west bound freight special in charge of Conductor Russel was approaching Jackpot River last night the train was parted and a number of cars were derailed. The cars were badly damaged and the road bed torn up. An auxiliary was sent out from Campbellton.

RECENT DEATHS.

WATSON A. KINNEY.

BRIDGETOWN, N. S., April 17—The death occurred here on Sunday morning of Watson A. Kinney, a well and favorably known merchant of this town. Mr. Kinney had been a sufferer from Bright's disease for the past year or more and his friends have realized for some time past that even his naturally strong constitution could not much longer endure the fatal malady.

Mr. Kinney was a native of Alber, N. B. but moved to this town when quite young and took up farming. After following this for some years he decided to enter mercantile life and engaged in the grocery business with L. D. Shafner. He afterwards gave up this business and accepted the government position of instructor of bridges, which position he held to the time of his death. Mr. Kinney will be greatly missed, not only in his family, where he was a model husband and father, but also in the business and social life of the community, where his genial personality has been so long familiar. He was a constant adherent of the Methodist Church and a prominent member of the Rothesay Lodge of Masons.

A widow and eight children survive him—Mrs F R Fay and Mrs R B Ricks of Bridgetown, Miss Emma Kinney of Ottawa, Arch and Fred Kinney and three younger children, to whom the sympathy of the community is extended in their sad bereavement.

DEATH OF PROVINCIALISTS.

Among recent deaths were the following in Boston, April 12, Annie McGowan, 21 Union Park street; April 11 John McBride, 38 Cambridge; April 11 Mrs. Albert Ritchie, daughter of the late Thomas Golding, of Wickham, N. B.; April 11 Hyde Park, Mrs. Mary B Wye, wife of Edison T Wye, aged 53, formerly of Pictou, N. S.

STANLEY HARRIS.

Mrs. A. E. McLeod received a telegram last Tuesday announcing the death of her oldest brother, Stanley A. Harris, at Boston on Monday, 13th inst. Mr. Harris was about 40 years of age, and resided at New Hampshire and was in Boston presumably on business. It is supposed that he was smitten by paralytic stroke.

MISS CHARLOTTE E. HART.

The death occurred at Whitestone, N. Y., on Saturday, April 16th, of Miss Charlotte E. Hart, a native and long a resident of this city, where she had a large circle of friends by whom she was greatly beloved and esteemed. The deceased was well known in musical circles here, and was for years organist in several of the principal churches. She was a daughter of the late Jarvis W. Hart, once principal of Horton Academy, Wolfville, N. S., and of the Girls' High School in St. John. She is survived by one brother and three sisters—George LeBaron Hart of New York; Mrs. Frances Annetta, wife of Dr. G. U. Hay, and Prudence Boardman, wife of Wm. Gilchrist of this city; and Emma Florence, wife of Charles A. Prichard of Whitestone. Two sisters, deceased, were Jennie, wife of Dr. Henry Hart of New York, and Sarah, wife of W. Harrington of Philadelphia; and Professor Charles Fred. Hart, who died at Rio Janeiro, Brazil.

MRS. SARAH I. PHAIR.

The death of Miss Sarah Isabel Phair occurred Saturday afternoon at the residence of W. C. Lee, 4 Wall street. The deceased was in her eighty-fifth year. She was the daughter of the late William B. Phair, formerly postmaster at Fredericton.

MRS. EDWIN CLAY.

Rev. Fred M. Clay passed through St. John, Saturday, with the remains of his mother, the widow of the late Dr. Edwin Clay, formerly emigration agent at the port of Halifax. Mrs. Clay died on Wednesday at the home of her son at Medina, New York. Dr. Clay was at one time pastor of the Carleton Baptist Church, and Mrs Clay was a daughter of the late Honorable H. G. Pineo, Pugwash, N. S.

MRS. PATRICK KILLORN

BRIDGETOWN, N. S., April 20—The death occurred at her home at Lawrencetown, on Thursday last, of Mrs. Wellington Daniels, after a brief illness from pneumonia. Her health had been precarious for some time past, and a weakness of the heart caused the distress to terminate rapidly within a few hours. Mrs. Daniels was over eighty-two years of age, but sustained her years remarkably well. She was the woman of the presence and had many sterling qualities by which she was endeared to a large circle of friends. Her husband died some years ago and she is only survived by one son, the Hon. O. T. Daniels, K. C., M. P. P. for Annapolis County

SPOKE AGAINST LICENSE SYSTEM

Fredericton License Men Secure Toronto Speaker in Their Behalf

FREDERICTON, April 22.—The Scott Act advocates held a meeting at the Opera House this evening, which was well attended. John J. Weddall presided and addresses were made by Rev. G. Foster, principal of the High School, and Hon. Robert Maxwell of St. John. The former argued along lines that the Scott Act law was preferable to any license law. He had lived in Fredericton many years and seen their both tried. Mr. Maxwell delivered the speech. He spoke at the evils of the liquor traffic and the growth of the temperance movement throughout the world during recent years. He condemned the licensing of liquor in any form and said that the law was more violated in the city of St. John than the Scott Act was in Fredericton.

The meeting closed with the singing of a hymn.

The license party has engaged W. F. Summerhays of Toronto to deliver a series of addresses here beginning on Sunday evening next and speaking Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. The Masonic hall has been engaged for the occasion next week. It is expected the contest will become somewhat warm.

CHILD FELL UNDER THE CAR WHEELS

Little Girl Had Foot Amputated Yesterday Afternoon

ST. STEPHEN, N. B., April 22—A terrible accident occurred in Calais late this afternoon. An accident that had undergone repairs was being tested on a stretch of track in front of the car barn and was then run across the Rev. Wm. G. Lane pastor of the Wesley Methodist church. The little one was taken to Chipman Memorial Hospital, where Dr. Murray and Dr. Holland attended her and found it necessary to amputate the foot just above the ankle.

EASTER CONCERT

The Baptist congregation at Upper Jemseg enjoyed a treat on Easter evening in the form of an Easter concert given by the combined Sunday school and mission band. The building was crowded, some 200 people being present. The pastor's wife, Mrs. Dr. Miller, who has had charge of the whole preparation, with the assistance of a committee consisting of the teachers and officers, took charge of the programme. Every one of the 23 numbers on the programme was responded to in good fashion. The children acquitting themselves with great credit and good taste. An especial feature was the serious and reverent manner in which the children and young people repeated the solemn words and thoughts of Easter day which are frequently so sadly marred by unseemly levity in such occasions. The whole proceedings reflected the highest credit upon all concerned, and the large audience left the church delighted with all they had seen and heard.

THROWN FROM TEAM; HAD NECK BROKEN

New Glasgow Man Lost Life Yesterday Morning

NEW GLASGOW, N. S., April 22—An accident by which John J. Turnbull lost his life occurred about a mile from his residence at Springville near Thorn-burn today. Mr. Turnbull, who is one of the most respected residents of Mc-Lennons Brook, is a dealer in cream and comes into town every day with the cream from his dairy. This morning he left home with his milk wagon laden with his usual load. His place is about four or five miles from town. When about half way his team was thrown out. Mr. Turnbull had a man of about 56 years of age, was married and had a family. An inquest was held before Dr. Kennedy and a jury of twelve men, and a verdict returned in accordance with the facts.
