Sir

to

I have the honor to acknowledge your letter of 19th April last regarding Mr de Henderson's account for services in the case of Regina & Waugh.

In reply I beg to state that I made no arrangements with Mr Henderson as I was not authorized to do so; but was only told that his services had been secured in this case.

I have the honor to be
Sir

Your obedient servant
R H Pidcock
