

Ottawa, December 7, 1910.

Rev. Sir,

I have to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 25th ultimo, and in reply I beg to say that the Department is very pleased to learn that you have so far found the fresh air dormitories recently erected in connection with the Peigan (R.C.) Boarding School satisfactory and it will be very glad to hear from you at a later date when you have had some experience with the colder weather.

Your obedient servant,

Asst. Deputy and Secretary.

Rev. J. U. Salaun,

Principal,

Peigan (R.C.) Boarding School,

Brocket, Alta.
