

PAGE BLURRED /
PAGE BARBOUILLEE

C164576

6

Possibly -- however -- the conflict between these two schools of thought is more apparent than real.

As free primitive man banded himself into tribes -- and ultimately into nations -- there was a progressive surrender of natural freedom to the point where -- in feudal times -- supreme power over property -- and over life and death -- was vested in despotic monarchs.