Extract from Despatch No. 277
High Commissioner for Canada in Australia
June 10, 1941

---

" There was a time when one hoped to be worthy of the traditions of some ancestral home in England.

But these are days when for myself I am content to try to be worthy of the glorious 1941 tradition of Bermondsey, Shoreditch and the London docks."

(Menzies' address at Town Hall Homecoming address, May 31.)
