

once again than face an audience, he called upon Mr. D. M. Brodie, Police Magistrate of Sudbury, and one of the rescued passengers, to do the speaking for him. This Mr. Brodie did, in a most eloquent address.

