

324 A PRISONER'S STORY OF THE CROSS

priest. To-morrow morning at six o'clock all will be over."

A short silence. Then the father answered :
"Your Excellency, the criminal, Ferleitner, needs neither priest nor judge. He has been pardoned."

THE END