

9. All entries should, if possible, be made on first day of Show.

10. No persons shall be allowed to remove any article from the Tent before 4.30 o'clock p.m., on second day of Show under penalty of forfeiting prizes.

11. Articles must be of such quality as the Judges approve, otherwise they will not be entitled to a premium.

12. The directors will not be responsible for loss or damage to any article, but will endeavor to preserve all articles shown in the tents free from injury.

13. All animals and articles must be entered in their proper class.

14. When a dispute arises the ONUS of the proof lies with the exhibitor.

15. One dollar will be retained from all male prize winners, a membership for fee 1897.

16. All prizes that are not called for before the 1st of January, 1897, remains in the treasury, and belongs to the Society.