

III. All books belonging to the Library shall be recalled annually on the 25th day of March, and none shall be given out until the first day of April following, and a fine of twenty cents shall be exacted for every volume retained, by whomsoever retained, during the whole or any part of the interval between these dates.

IV. An annual inspection of the Library by the Curators shall take place between the 8th and 16th of November, during which period the Library shall be closed, and all books, by whomsoever borrowed, must be returned to the Library before the commencement of that period, otherwise a fine of fifteen cents per volume shall be exacted, which fine shall be repeated weekly after the expiration of the time of inspection, so long as any volume is retained, until a copy of such volume of equal value be placed in the Library at the expense of the borrower.

V. Readers sending their books to the Library, or having books sent to their order, must bear all risk of loss or damage thereby occurring, and make good any loss or damage actually arising.

VI. No works of reference are allowed to be taken out of the Library, and encyclopædias, dictionaries, gazetteers, books of plates or designs, manuscripts, works in natural history bearing on classification, and all quarto and folio volumes, are to be considered as works of reference, unless otherwise marked by order of the Curators. The Curators may make arrangements for allowing such works to be consulted.

VII. Single numbers of magazines and periodicals are to be regarded as volumes.

VIII. A donation of fifty dollars or upwards, or of books to that value, entitles the donor to the use of the Library during his lifetime, but only in accordance with the by-laws respecting the number of books which may be borrowed, the time during which they may be retained, deposit, fines, &c., applicable to registered Students.

IX. Any Trustee or Professor, or any person in the company of a Trustee or Professor, may visit the Library at any time, but particular care must be taken when handling a book not to displace it.

X. Former by-laws are repealed, and these by-laws shall be printed and a copy handed to every reader at the time of his becoming a reader, and they shall also be written in a book over the words, "I hereby agree to observe the above by-laws and be subject to all the conditions therein contained, in so far as they are applicable to me, during the whole time I shall continue to borrow books from the Library of Queen's University." And every person on becoming a reader shall be required to write his name under the foregoing words of obligation.
