
EDEN PHILLPOTTS

The Thief of Virtue

Cloth. 12mo. $1.50

"If living characters, perfect plot construction, imaginative breadth of canvas and absolute truth to life are the primary qualities of great realistic fiction, Mr. Phillpotts is one of the greatest novelists of the day. . . . He goes on turning out one brilliant novel after another, steadily accomplishing for Devon what Mr. Hardy did for Wessex. This is another of Mr. Phillpotts' Dartmoor novels, and one that will rank with his best. . . . Something of kinship with 'King Lear' and 'Pere Goriot.'" Chicago Record Herald.

"The Balzac of Dartmore. It is easy and true to say that Mr. Phillpotts in all his work has done no single piece of portraiture better than this presentation of Philip Ouldsbroom. . . . A triumph of the novelist's understanding and keen drawing. . . . A Dartmoor background described in terms of an artist's deeply felt appreciation. —New York World.

"No other English writer has painted such fascinating and colorful word-pictures of Dartmoor's heaths and hills, woods and vales, and billowy plains of pallid yellow and dim green. Few others have attempted such vivid character-portrayal as marks this latest work from beginning to end." The North American.

"A strong book, flashing here and there with beautiful gems of poetry. . . . Providing endless food for thought. . . . An intellectual treat." —London Evening Standard.

The Haven

Cloth. 12mo. $1.50

"The foremost English novelist with the one exception of Thomas Hardy. . . . His descriptions of the sea and his characterization of the fisher folks are picturesque, true to life, full of humorous philosophy." —JEANNETTE L. GILDER in The Chicago Tribune.

"It is no dry bones of a chronicle, but touched by genius to life and vividness." —Louisville, Kentucky, Post.

"A close, thoughtful study of universal human nature." —The Outlook.

"One of the best of this author's many works." —The Bookman.
