WHEN CHRISTMAS COMES.

By William Lytle.

Have you any old grudge you'd like to pay,
Any wrong laid up from a bygone day?
Gather them all now, and lay them away
When Christmas comes.

Hard thoughts are heavy to carry my friend,
And life is short from beginning to end;
Be kind to yourself, leave nothing to mend
When Christmas comes.

Do you know some fellow stranded and poor,
As good as you, but with much to endure?
Do not forgo him, however obscure,
When Christmas comes.

Are there not some little ones, fair and sweet,
Who know not as yet what they have to meet?
Perhaps with joy you could make their hearts beat
When Christmas comes.

Any cloud you can lift from hearts of care?
Any kind word needed—try to be there,
And always add help to sympathy's prayer
When Christmas comes.

Fear not, my friend, giving more than your due,
Remember the gift presented to you
In the long ago and try to be true
When Christmas comes.
