At the Bar.

"Who speaks for this man?" From the great white Throne,
Veiled in its roseate clouds the voice came forth;
Before it stood a parted soul alone,
And rolling east and west, and south and north,
The mighty accents summoned quick and dead:
"Who speaks for this man, ere his doom be said?"

Shivering he listened, for his earthly life
Had passed in dull, unnoted calm away;
He brought no glory to its daily strife,
No wreath of fame, or genius' fiery ray;
Weak, alone, ungifted, quiet and obscure,
Born in the shadow, dying 'mid the poor.

Lo, from the solemn concourse hushed and dim,
The widow's prayer, the orphan's blessing rose;
The struggler told of trouble shared by him,
The lonely of cheered hours and softened woes;
And like a chorus spoke the crushed and sad,
"He gave us all he could, and what he had."

And little words of loving kindness said,
And tender thoughts, and help in time of need,
Sprang up, like leaves by soft spring flowers fed;
In some waste corner, sown by chance-flung seed,
In grateful wonder heard the modest soul,
Such trifles gathered to so blest a whole.

Oh ye, by circumstances' strong fetters bound,
The store so little, and the hand so frail,
Do but the best ye can for all around:
Let sympathy be true, nor courage fail;
Winning among your neighbors poor and weak
Some witness at your trial hour to speak.

NEWS FROM IRELAND.

DUBLIN.

The extensive saw mills and timber yard of James Fitzsimon & Son, Bridge street, Dublin, were destroyed by fire on May 18th. The fire at first made rapid headway, but the flames were confined to the saw mills. These are entirely destroyed.

A dispatch from Dublin reports another case of incendiarism on the farm of the Duke of Leinster. The house from which the Widow Colgan was recently evicted was set on fire and destroyed. The inmates narrowly escaped being burned to death.

KILKENNY.

The Synod of the diocese of Ossory, under the presidency of the most Rev. Dr. Moran, adopted two sets of resolutions at the close of their meeting on May 18th. The first regarded the education question, and the second the land. The latter has been forced by circumstances into position so prominent that we take especial notice of the set of resolutions emanating from so eminent a body regarding it. The Ossory Bishop and priests begin by deploring the distress, which they ascribed directly to the unsatisfactory state of the land laws. They then call upon the Legislature to enact a law securing the tenants in their holdings, and express their opinion that the "gradual establishment" of a peasant proprietary would produce in Ireland similar salutary effects to those which it has resulted in other European countries, and finally thanking the foreign nations that have been the benefactors of the country, they earnestly call upon the Irish party to press on the Government the settlement of the land question. On the question of Education, the Synod demanded a Catholic Training School and such endowments as will enable Catholics to compete with others in the higher walks of instruction.

KILDARE.

On May 17th, a strange occurrence took place at Blachall, the residence of C. C. Rynd, Esq., J. P. Mr. Rynd is agent to Lord Cloncurry, and during the day a tenant was seen loitering about the place. The police were apprized of the fact, and while out on patrol between ten and eleven o'clock at night found him concealed underneath Mr. Rynd's bed-room window. They immediately arrested him, but the people inside of the house, alarmed by the noise, and thinking they were attacked, fired on the patrol. Fortunately the police received no injury.

WESTMEATH.

Very Rev. T Gillooly, D. D., the brother of the venerated Bishop of Elphin, and the President of the well-known College of Summer Hill, Athlone, died on May 15th, deeply and deservedly lamented. The deceased clergyman, Dr. Timothy Gillooly, succeeded the Very Rev. Dr. Coffey in the presidency of the seminary, where he had up to that time been professor. The college chapel was, on May 18th, the solemn scene of the obsequies, and his brother priests assembled in supplication for the soul of one who was himself generally admired and respected, and whose distinguished brother has now ruled the ancient see of Elphin for four-and-twenty years.

CORK.

The Apostolic College, Cork, which belongs to the Society of African Missions, and which has been in existence less than two yeaas, is already crowded with candidates for a missionary life.

A praiseworthy case of saving life from drowning was investigated by the Committee of the Royal Humane Society, on May 19th, and the Society's medallion unanimously awaraded. The circumstances are as follows: Mr. J. A. Pratt, as lieutenant in the Cork Rifles Militia, saved the life of a boy named Fredrick Jolly, on the 29th ult., at Kilsale, Cork. The boy was standing on the thwart of a boat, sculling, when the oar was dislodged from the scull-hole, and Jolly, becoming overbalanced, fell into the sea. Mr. Pratt, who was on quay, witnessed the accident, and without waiting to divest himself of any of his clothing, immediately jumped from the quay into a boat moored there, and plunged into the sea. The tide was full in and the water very deep; but Mr. Pratt, after swimming a considerable distance, at length came up with the drowning lad, who was unable to swim, and had sunk twice, and caught hold of him, but then the real difficulty commenced, for Jolly convulsively clung to his would-be rescurer, who was much hampered by his wet clothes, and they were both in peril of drowning. At length extracting himself, however, Mr. Pratt ultimately succeeded in holding up the lad with his left hand, while he swam with his right to the boat and placed him in safety.

KERRY.

A land meeting was held at Killarney, on May 20th, The O'Donoghue presiding. Mr. Par[illegible] addressed the meeting. A resolution was adopted that eviction for non-payment of rent, arbitrarily fixed by the landlords calls, emphatically for the condemnation of all lovers of justice.

CLARE.

The Rev. Michael O'Donohue, P. P., Portroe, has been translated by the Most Rev. Dr. Fitzgerald, Bishop of Killaloe, to the pastorship of Carrigaholt, rendered vacant by the death of the Rev. Father Fogarty. The Rev. Daniel Smyth, C. C., Roscrea, has been appointed parish priest of Portroe.

TIPPERARY.

On May 19th, the Royal Humane Society awarded its medalion to James Walsh, caretaker of the Clonmel Rowing Club, who saved the life of a child named Adam Blyth, on the 2d March. The boy accidentally fell into the River Suir, which was very much swollen at the time, and the water twelve feet deep, with a strong current, which was rapidly carrying him away, when Walsh, hearing cries for help, at once jumped in to the rescue. After swimming about 150 yards he came up with the drowning boy, and, after much difficulty, ultimately succeeded in taking him ashore, but in a state of insensibility.

Sunday, May 16th, was a day of great edification and joy to the people of the parish of Galbally, who came in their thousands to hear and welcome their truly loved, universally admired, and most distinguished archbishop, the Most Rev. Dr. Croke. The occasion which caused the people of these populous and extensive parishes, together with large contingents from the neighboring districts, to assemble in such unusually large numbers was the solemn installation of the new pastor, the Very Rev. P. Ryan, P. P., V. G., in room of the late Very Rev. Canon Feehan. At the conclusion of the Mass, the music of which was exquisitely rendered by a choir of lady and gentlmen amateurs from Tipperary, the new pastor, kneeling at the foot of the altar, and having made a solemn profession of faith, and having sworn to fulfil, maintain, and defend the laws, ordinances, and dogmas of the Church, received from his Grace the keys of the church as the insignia of his authority. The ceremony of induction concluded, his Grace in most touching and earnest words addressed the immense congregation, first on the nature of the ceremony which they had just witnessed, and showed how that ceremonial was adopted even by the State, which did on permit those whom it invested with high authority to exercise that authority until they were sworn to be loyal to the reigning monarch and defend and uphold the constitution of the realm He next very forcibly dwelt on the solemn, responsible and grave obligations conferred on the new pastor.

ANTRIM.

The emigration from the North of Ireland continues at a most extraordinary rate. On the 15th of May 250 fine, healthy young men and women, ranging in age from 19 to 26, left Belfast by special train on the Northern Counties Railway for Larne, where they embarked on board the steamship State of Alabama for New York. The vessel, which is one of the State Line, left Glasgow on the previous night. One hundred and fifty of the emigrants belonged to the county Fermanagh. They were sentout to America by the Fermanagh ReliefAssociation. This association sent a numerous batch by the State Line a fortnight before. The remainder of the emigrants belonged to the counties of Antrim, Tyrone, Armagh, and Down. During the previous week an unusual number left Belfast, almost every evening, by the various cross-Channel steamers, en route to America. The stream of emigration from Ulster has been very gaeat during the past few week. On an average about 200 emigrants leave Larne weekly for the State Line steamers, which call at that port every Saturday on their outward voyage. Hundreds take their departure every week by the cross-Channel steamers for Liverpool and Glasgow, en route to America.

GALWAY.

On May 20th, in the vicinity of Loughrea, a farmer named Quirk was working in a pit, when the bank gave way, instantly killing the unfortunate man. After two hours's digging his remains were taken to the surface in a frightfully mangled form. An inquest was held, and a verdict in accordance with the facts returned. Deceased leaves a wife and seven children to mourn his loss. Several other laborers narrowly escaped.

Destitution is rapidly increasing in the Tuam union. The resources of the poor are exhausted, the supplies are to a great extent cut off, and there is no remunerative employment for the laboring classes. Typhus and typhoid are spreading, "the predisposing causes being," as one of the medical officers reports, "filth, ill-feeding, and depressing influences in general." The guardians of the Union, at their meeting, on May 19th, passed the following resolution: "That this board cannot without dismay see the delay that is occurring in the beginning of the public works. They are acquainted intimately with the condition of the people, and with their poverty. If works be not immediately inaugurated, deaths from hanger and diseases that spring from hunger must ensue. In drawing the immediate attention of the Government to this (the conviction of the board) this board feel that a grave responsibility will rest on the authorities if any further delay occur."

AN IRISH EVICTION SCENE.

A correspondent of the Western News writes:—"By mere chance I was enabled to be present at an eviction which took place near Duniry, in the vicinity of Loughrea, on Friday, 30th ult. As I neared the locality I observed the tears running down the cheeks of many of the peasantry who were present. The party evicted a widow named Burke, with five helpless children. The eviction was for non-payment of rent. The poor woman, not having the whole amount, begged of her landlord to leave herself and her little children in the home of their fathers—the one spot on earth dearest to them—until they would be able to pay the rent next year. The landlord declined to hear the prayer of the widow and her orphans. At 1:30 the bailiffs commenced their work briskly, in order to remove the furniture from the dwelling-house; chairs, tables, pots, kettle, beds, and every article which the house contained were carried out by the bailiffs and piled beside the ditch. The closing scene then commenced. The fire was put out and quenched, and it only remained to eject the widow and her orphans. As the widow and orphans moved from their dwelling (crying bitterly) many a tear was shed, and loud were the curses which were heaped on the Government which tolerates such scandalous conduct. The minions of the "law" then nailed up the door, and handed the key to the agent, who was present. I have learned that the poor widow and her five children slept beside the house from which they were evicted the night after the eviction. During the proceedings there were some peasantry and a number of constabulary present.

POVERTY AND SUFFERING.

"I was dragged down with debt, poverty and suffering for years, caused by a sick family and large bills for doctoring, which did them no good. I was completely discouraged, until one year ago, by the advice of my pastor, I procured Hop Bitters and commenced their use, and in one month we were all well, and none of us have seen a sick day since, and I want to say to all poor men, you can keep your families well a year with Hop Bitters tor less than one doctor's visit will cost, I know it. A Workingman."

NIAGARA FALLS, ONTARIO.

At this season many inducements are held forth to visit the grand cataract of Niagara, which numbers amongst its attractions a boarding school, under the charge of the Ladies of Loretto, whose reputation as educators of youth is not necessary to remark. The increased accommodation afforded by the large addition now in progress, together with its well-known advantages of position, should decide, those desirous of choosing a peculiarly charming Convent home for their daughters. Terms: $15.00 monthly.

See what the Clergy say.

Rev. R. H. CRAIG, Princeton, N. J., says: Last summer when I was in Canada, I cought a bad cold in my throat. It became so bad that often in the middle of my sermon my throat and tongue would become so dry I could hardly speak. My tongue was covered with a white parched crust, and my throat was much inflamed. An old lady of my congregation advised me to use the Shoshonees Remedy, which she was using. The first dose relieved me, and in a few days my throat was nearly well. I discontinued the use of it, but my throat not being entirely well became worse again. I procured another supply, and am happy to say that my throat is entirely well, and the white crust has entirely disappeared. I wish that every minister who suffers from sore throat would try the Great Shoshonees Remedy.

Rev. GEO. W. GROUT, Stirling, Ont., says. Mas. Georger Francis was severely afflicted with Kidney disease, and had been under the care of three physicians without any beneficial result. She has since taken four bottles of the Shoshonees Remedy, and now enjoys the best of health.

Rev. T. C. CROWN, Brooklyn, Ont., says: My wife was very low with Lung disease, and given up by her physician. I bought a bottle of the Shoshonees Remedy, and at the end of two days she was much better. By continuing the Remedy she was perfectly restored. Price of the Remedy in pint bottles, $2; Pills 25 cents a box. Sold by all medicine dealers.

ELEGANT HAIR is woman's crowning beauty. When it fades she fades as well. While it is kept bright, her personal attractions are still maintained. By preserving the hair fresh and vigorous a youthful appearance is continued through many years. Those who grieve over their fading hair turning gray too early, should know that Ayer's Hair Vigor prevents it, and restores gray or faded hair to its natural color, It is a clean and healthful preparation, containing neither oil, dye, or anything deleterious, and imparts to the scalp what is most needed—a sense of pleasant and delightful freedom from scurf or dandruff.—*New Berne (N. Ayer's Sarsaparilla

For Scrofula, and all scrofulous diseases, Erysipelas, Rose, or St. Anthony's Fire, Eruptions and Eruptive diseases of the skin, Ulcerations of the Liver, Stomach, Kidneys, Lungs, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Blotches, Tumors, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Ulcers, Sores, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Pain in the Bones, Side and Head, Female Weakness, Sterility, Leucorrhœa, arising from internal ulceration, and Uterine disease, Syphilitic and Mercurial diseases, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Emaciation, General Debility, and for Purifying the Blood.

This Sarsaparilla is a combination of vegetable alteratives—Stillingia, Mandrake, Yellow Dock—with the Iodides of Potassium and Iron, and is the most efficacious medicine yet known for the diseases it is intended to cure.

Its ingredients are so skilfully combined, that the full alterative effect of each is assured, and while it is so mild as to be harmless even to children, it is still so effectual as to purge out from the system those impurities and corruptions which develop into loathsome disease.

The reputation it enjoys is derived from its cures, and the confidence which prominent physicians all over the country repose in it, prove their experience of its usefulness.

Certificates attesting its virtues have accumulated, and are constantly being received, and as many of these cases are publicly known, they furnish convincing evidence of the superiority of this Sarsaparilla over every other alterative medicine. So generally is its superiority to any other medicine known, that we need do no more than to assure the public that the best qualities it has ever possessed are strictly maintained.
