IN SMILING MEADOWS.

In breezy meadows where the sun
Is seen without a cloud,
The happy, happy children run,
And play and sing aloud.

And I, who love all sights on earth, All sounds, revealing joy, Would crown a thousand days with mirth
For every girl and boy.

For soon, too soon the days depart, And soon the golden hair Is touched with snow, and mind and heart Too soon are filled with care.

So let the little children run,
And play, and sing aloud,
In smiling meadows where the sun
Is seen without a cloud.

THE LITTLE DOVE.

There is a true story of the childhood of a good German Count, named Von der Recke, who lived to be a great blessing to the poor of his country, and an example to those who would do good in every land.

It was spring; a storm had just passed away in the night, and a very fine morning seemed to make all nature glad. The flowers were refreshed by the rain, and looked bright. The little birds sang a merry song in the air and among the trees. Little Adalbert—for that was the name by which good Count Von der Recke, was called when a child—little Adalbert was not less gay than the birds that sang that merry song. He looked up into the clear blue sky, to trace the little birds like living specks as they flew across it, and as he looked he saw some pigeons at a distance which seemed as much to enjoy the morning breeze as he did—all but one tiny dove, which flew very feebly on its little wings; its short circle showed its strength was nearly gone; the rest flew around it. There was a large pond in the garden, with a bridge over it and a boat on it; but the bridge was so high and the boat so far off, that should the pretty bird drop into the water, the little boy could not hope to reach it. With a sad heart he looked at the poor little dove as it faintly spread out its newly got wings to keep itself up in the air. It grew weaker and weaker, till almost worn out, he saw it fall, just as he feared it would, into the water. The little German's heart felt much, very much for the little drowning dove.
He saw, a short way off, a little washing tub left by the servant maids, who had used it for their linen. He rolled it to the pond, caught up a pole which lay near, leaped into it, and pushed off.
With a pole for an oar, he paddled along till he came close to the drowning dove, and just as it was sinking he snatched it from the water. On getting back to the bank he wiped its wet wings with his handkerchief, opened his jacket, and laid the dove in his bosom, covering all but its bill, and with a hasty step reached home, so happy in his prize. Rest and warmth soon made the little dove much better. It opened its red eyes, and Adalbert took part of his bread, put its bill to his mouth, and fed it with all the kindness of a mother.

The Countess, his own dear mother, had all this time been watching from the castle window all that her boy had done. She loved him very much, and feared as she saw him get on the water; she was delighted with his kindness to the dove, saw him land safely, but said nothing. When he came in, his eyes bright with joy, she let him tell his own story, for her child had always been led to tell her all that was in his heart, and had not the least wish to hide anything.
When he stopped speaking, she said:

"I saw all. I guessed what you were about; but were not you afraid, my love, to get on the water in so unsafe a thing as a washing tub?"

"Oh," he said, "but the poor little dove was drowning."

His mother looked at him most tenderly, as she threw her arms around him, she said, in a very earnest tone: "God bless you, my dear child! may you never be less brave in trying to save unhappy men?"

These words went to the heart of her child; they seemed to him like a message from God; and through life he showed that this message was never forgotten.—

CONSUMPTION CURED.

An old physician, retired from active practice, having had placed in his hands by an East Indian Missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma, and all Throat and Lung affections; also a positive and radical cure for General Debility, and all nervous complaints; after having thoroughly tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, feels it is his duty to make it known to his fellows. The recipe, with full particulars, directions for preparation and use, and all necessary advice and instructions for successful treatment at your home, will be received by you by return mail, free of charge, by addressing with stamp or stamped, self-addressed envelope to PUNCTUALITY V. PROCRASTINATE.— Punctuality is the soul of business; procrastination—that thief of the greatest gift going—unbings and retards all the fine machinery of which business is composed. He that would emulate the former and eschew the latter should be in possession of a time-piece that is not always—except when it stops—five minutes too fast. The best regulated watches can be had at Woltz Bros. & Co., 29 King-street East, Toronto.

A Pleasant and Effective Cough Remedy. If you will go to your nearest druggist and ask for a 25 cent bottle of Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam, you will possess the best known cure for Coughs, Bronchitis, Asthma, Hoarseness and all throat and lung troubles that terminate in Consumption.

"THE ONLY ONE IN AMERICA." The International Throat and Lung Institute, Toronto and Montreal, is positively the only one in America where diseases of the air passages alone are treated. Cold inhalations are used through the Spirometer, an instrument or inhaler invented by Dr. M.
Souvielle, of Paris, ex-aidé surgeon of the French army, with proper dietetic, hygienic and constitutional treatment suitable to each case. Thousands of cases of Catarrh, Laryngitis, Bronchitis, Asthma, Catarrhal Deafness and Consumption have been cured at this institute during the last few years. Write, enclosing stamp, for pamphlet, giving full particulars and reliable references to 173 Church street, Tor-

24 STOP ORGANS for $59.—The offer made in to-day's paper by Mayor Beatty, of Washington, New Jersey, of a 24 stop organ for $59, delivered at your very door, is one that lasts but ten days from the date of this newspaper, and our readers should take advantage of it at once. The well won reputation of the house assures buyers that they will get just what he advertises; and the price, with all freight prepaid, should give him, as it will, thousands of additional satisfied customers. We are informed by good authority that Mr. Beatty is manufacturing and shipping sixty-nine organs daily, and running his factory nights in order to fill his orders promptly.

The Washington (New Jersey), Star
says:

The Hon. John Hill, member of Congress of Boonton, New Jersey, accompanied by his wife, visited the Beatty Organ Factory, at Washington, New Jersey, on Tuesday last. He expressed himself not only gratified, but astonished, at the extent and activity of Mayor Beatty's organ works. The prejudice which every young business man has to confront whose success is rapidly achieved is giving way before Mayor Beatty, and his wonderful business capacity is coming to be generally recognized and acknowledged. We clip the following editorial from last week's Christian at Work:

"Hon. Daniel F. Beatty, whose indefatigable pluck has raised him from a poor boy to a reputed fortune of half a million, is an example of what can be done by fair dealing and persistent effort. He has the largest organ factory in the country, and makes 50 to 60 instruments daily."

GOOD ADVICE.—If our readers will accept proffered advice, they will always keep a bottle of Hagyard's Yellow Oil at hand for use in emergencies, such as Burns, Scalds, Wounds, Lameness, Croup, Chills, Rheumatism and all varieties of aches, pains and inflammation, it will ever be found reliable.

SCIENTIFIC.—The reason why the system of treating affections of the Throat and Lungs by the inhalation of vaporized remedies as practised by Dr. Malcolm since 1863, has been so eminently successful, is because the remedies are applied directly to the seat of the disease in the lungs, and are so carefully adapted to the requirements of each particular patient, as only a lengthened experience in the practice of the branch of the profession can give. No two cases of disease are precisely similar, neither will all constitutions be acted upon in the same manner by the same remedy.
The idiosyncrasies of each one must be carefully considered before prescribing for the disease, and then only such remedies prescribed, as long experience has proven, best adapted to remove those affections. This duty is attended to by Dr. Malcolm personally, no subordinates in his office being allowed to prescribe for his patients.

Patients unable to visit Toronto can receive treatment at their own homes by sending a full statement of their own case by mail or otherwise. Consultation free. Office hours, 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.
Send for book. Address Dr. J. Rolph Malcolm, 85 Simcoe street, Toronto.

AN ONLY DAUGHTER CURED OF CONSUMPTION.

When death was hourly expected, all remedies having failed, and Dr. H.
JAMES was experimenting with the many herbs of Calcutta, he accidentally made a preparation which cured his only child of Consumption. His child is now in this country enjoying the best of health.
He has proved to the world that Consumption can be positively and permanently cured. The Doctor now gives this recipe free, only asking two three-cent stamps to pay expenses.
This herb also cures night-sweats, nausea at the stomach, and will break up a fresh cold in twenty-four hours. Address CRADDOCK & CO., 1032 Race Street, Philadelphia, naming this paper.

Mr. C. P. Brown, Crown Land Agent, Sault Ste. Marie, writes: "Two or three of my friends and myself were recommended to try Northrop & Lyman's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil and Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda, in preference to Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites. We prefer your Emulsion, and think it better for the system than the Syrup, &c."
