

The House again divided :

Yeas 32
Nays 4

ORDERED, that the blank in the said Bill be filled with the words "first day of July next."

Mr. Bourdages moved, seconded by Mr. Durocher :

That the said Bill be engrossed.

A division ensued :

Yeas 32
Nays 4

ORDERED, that the said Bill be engrossed.

A Petition of James Strothers and Robert Gilmore, whose names are thereunto subscribed, Executors to the last Will and Testament of John Conrad Marsteller, when living, of Montreal, was presented to the House by Mr. Solicitor General, and the same was received and read :—SETTING FORTH ;—That the Petitioners were appointed Executors of the last Will and Testament of the late John Conrad Marsteller, who, on the 17th day of May, 1808, died, without heirs in this Province, leaving the following real and personal property : viz —Two Lots of Land, situate in the St. Mary Suburbs of Montreal, with the Houses and other Buildings erected thereon, and Goods and other personal estate, to the amount of five hundred pounds—all his debts paid.—That the said John Conrad Marsteller, by his Will, devised and bequeathed the said real estate, and all the residue of his estate, (his debts, and certain small legacies, being first paid) to the establishment of an House of Industry, upon the plan of Count Rumford, as carried into execution at Munich, in Bavaria :—And did leave to the Petitioners, the possession and occupation of the said two Lots and Houses, for two years, on condition that they should endeavor to obtain the said House to be established by an Act of the Provincial Parliament.—The Petitioners, anxiously desiring to