posal all of the resources of the reatest newspaper in existence--the wonder of modern journalism--"America's Greatest Newspaper," as it has been justly termed--The New York World.
Its political news is absolutely im-value in the Presidential campaign com-

The best of current fiction is found in columns.

attack a costly result may be. On the West side General Methuen still remains in his old position on the banks of the Modder River. He has had heavy reinforcements of men and guns since last engagement and the prospect is that the next battle will be an artillery duel. The same condition of things exist here as with General Buller in Natal. The Boers occupy the hills and have thoroughly entrenched their camp, until it is almost impossible to drive them off by assault.
General Gatacre is still on the defence, for reinforcements seem to the liveliest commanders at present, with on perhaps of General White-th. Heavy guns are arriving and are being rushed as fast as possible to the front, as if some terrible has been done somewhere to the supply of heavy field-guns. It is outrageous to think that the Boers have better guns than our army. Our military men are receiving pointers from the Boers in many branches of their profession, and with the present conditions, are deplorable there is no doubt that the British army will emerge out of the campaign in South Africa in a vastly more effective state than it has been in the past.

The members of Howick and Carrick fresh-beef-union held their annual meeting on Oct. 14th and as usual great interest was manifested throughout the the past year all the members were well satisfied with the way the beef ring was carried on. All the officers were re-elected for another year and the ring will open the last week of June 1900. Number of pounds dressed in the season, 7082. The heaviest animal dressed, 520 lbs and lightest 359 lbs, average for the season 442 lbs, hides were disposed of by the butcher at 7 1/2 cents per lb. Those who are anxious to know how to carry on a beef ring satisfactorily should drop into some of our meetings in school house of section No. 9, Carrick, or consult any of the officers, James Ritchie, Pres., W. E.
