But our wise Creator does not pur-pose to permit sin to continue inde-finitely. Why should He permit sin to mar His great Universe? Before deciding that nothing can be done for humanity, God purposes to give the whole human samily an to return to harmony and fellowship with Him. the Kingdom.

These things have not taken the Lord by surprise. God foreknew it Pentecost. But long after Pentecost all from the beginning. It was a St. John prayed for this Kingdom to part of the Divine Program to permit His Son to me crucified; and know-ing that it was the Father's will, the on permitted His life to be taken from Him by wicked men. He hum-bled Himself and became obedient unto death, even the death of the

But His death as a man was the gateway to glory, when He was resurrected by the power of the Almighty, and sat down at the right hand of the Ma-jesty on High, there to remain until He should come to earth again to take His rightful authority as earth's Ruler for a thousand years.

seek to dishonor those who follow the Master and have His spirit. What shall we do when thus misrepresent-ed and defamed? Shall we return evil for evil? Oh, no! Our Lord Jeaus did not do so. (1 Peter 2: 21-23.) Although He had the power to do so, yet He would not use that power. He could have saved Him-self from the cross; but if He had done so, He would not have been the Saviour of the world. He knew that His enemies did not realize what they His enemies did not realize what they were doing. This was the testimony of the Apostles.—Acts 1: 13-17; 1 Corinthians 2:8.

Thus it has been all down the Gospel Age. The members of the Kingdom class have suffered violence from those who knew not what they were doing. Had they realized that they were persecuting the true Church of Christ, they would surely have refrained at once. But the Lord's faithful followers are to put up with this ill-treatment with good grace, knowing that it is working out for them a great blessing, and that in due time a blessing will come even to our persecutors.

This is God's arrangement for all Seeing these things, perceiving the whom He has called to be of the Gospel Church. If the Head of that Church, our Lord Jesus Christ, had not suffered, even unto the death of the cross, He would have not received the high reward of exaltation to the right hand of the Majesty on High. The same principle is operatwe miss the persecution, we shall also miss the blessing, the reward, (Romans 8:17; 2 Timothy 2: 11, 12.) We cannot change God's Plan. The Scriptures assure us, however, that this matter of suffering violence under present evil conditions will ultimately work out for the good of the saints of God. It is written: "We know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to the called according to His purpose." (Romans 8:28.) How reasonable a proposition, that He whom God has purposed shall be the great King to oring the fallen race of man back to harmony with Himself should first learn sympathy for those whom He would uplift and restore. How reasonable, too, that those called to be associate rulers and blessers with Him should learn the same lessons.

The Masterpiece of Deception.
There has been a great mistake made regarding the nature of the Kingdom of God and the time for its domination of earth. We have not properly understood the matter. We have thought that the Kingdom of God was already here, that its rule had already begun. Some have was crucified, violence was done to thought that it was set up when our Lord arose from the dead. Others have supposed that it was set up at come. (Revelation 22:20.) Still others have thought that it must have come with the destruction of Jerusalem. But it did not come

Many people Selleve that the Kingdom of God was established on earth in the year 800 A.D. Then the Roman Catholic Church had become very powerful, and the European kingdoms very weak. Religious leaders said, "We have waited eight hundred years for our Lord to return and set up His Kingdom. He has not come. But the Church is growing strong and influential. Surely it must be the will of Ged that we should set up the Kingdom."

According to this conclusion, the Holy Roman Empire was established about the year 800, with the Bishop of Rome as the Vicegerent of Christ His earthly representative. Doubt-less the leaders of this movement thought that they were following Divine instructions regarding the establishment of the long-promised Kingdom; but the Adversary deceived them. The Bible tells us that he has deceived the whole world. (Rewelation 20: 1-4.) For centuries this unmade kings, as appointees of God's Kingdom. For a while the kings had to walk very humbly and quietly; for if they displeased the Pope, he would depose them and appoint their successor. History records many humiliating experiences which disobedient European sovereigns were compelled to undergo as a result of the Pope's anger at their course. Counterfeit vs. Real Millennium. Surely the kingdom which had such power was not the Kingdom of Heaven which, according to our text, was to suffer violence at the hands of one under the direction of Satan, those object it is to destroy the true aints of God. But when the true Kingdom is set up, there will be a great change in this respect.

God's times and seasons are absolutely fixed. No one can hasten them. Everything is in the Father's power. Now we see that God wished the world to have six great Days of a thousand years each, during which to learn certain necessary lessons; and that these six Days were to be follow-ed by a Seventh Day, during which Christ and the Church will occupy the office of Prophet, Priest, and King, in order to teach, help, and uplift the world, restoring them to all that was lost in Eden and redeemed at Calvary.

The present order of things will not last. Our Lord will set up the Kingdom of God (Daniel 2:44). which will do away with this present order and will bring in the New Order. At that time He will have associated with Him all those who have been loyal to Him and His Cause, and who have proved themselves faithful from the sure Word of God the outcome of present events, the Lord's faithful people may well wait in patience for their deliverance, may well lift up their heads and rejoice. (Luke 21:23.) Daily we are getting ready for that Kingdom by prowing and manifesting that we have a thorough-going loyalty of heart to the coming Kingdom and its principles of righteousness. If we are willing to suffer violence for the Kingdom, and its that we are loyal to Him; and He will reward us openly. The deliverance of Daily are we seeking more and more to be conformed in character to the likeness of our Lord and Head, in order that we may be fitted for the glorious work beyond the veil. We are ambassadors for God, even though the world knows us not. firmly for all the principles of right-ecusness found in the Word of God. Of those who prove to be worthy it is written: "Blessed are they that have part in the First Resurrection; on such the Second Death hath no power, but they shall be priests of God and of Christ, and shall reign with Him a thousand years."
