

County and District

The Impersonator of J. Harry Flynn Was Arrested in Syracuse.

BOYS STOLE PIGEONS.

Prince Was Embarrassed in New York.

Wanted for Murder.—A. M. Ross chief constable of Ottawa, has forwarded to Chief Burke the description of one Rocco Baris, alias Pasquale Samsaverino, who is wanted on a charge of murdering Salvatore Russo. Baris is described as follows: Age, 37 years; height five feet and eight inches; weight 180 pounds; stocky build, dark complexion; clean shaven, gold tooth in front of upper jaw, large rough features. Wore blue suit, dark overcoat and peaked cap.—Brockville Recorder and Times.

More Liquor Seized.

At Brockville on Tuesday evening Chief Burke, Sergt. Davison and Constable Lennox, armed with a search warrant visited the residence of a mariner on water street west, and seized two trunks containing about five cases of bottled whiskey. Next morning the accused appeared before Magistrate Page and a fine of $205 all told was levied.

Raised S. S. Outland.

The Donnelly Salvage and Wreckage Co., was successful in raising the steamer Outland which sank on Saturday at the M. T. Co's wharf at Kingston, following a buffeting on the Lake. The wreckers removed 20,000 bushels of damaged wheat from the hold and pumped out the water. They will now enter the dry dock at Kingston.—Brockville Recorder and Times.

Made Fine Capture.

John S. Box of Calabogie, returned from a hunting trip up the Madawaska river, bringing with him a female deer with horns. Mr. Box has hunted deer every year for several years, but he has never before shot or seen a horned doe, though having occasionally heard of such freaks of nature. The doe weighed 140 pounds. The horns were in the velvet condition common with deer in September.

The Bogus Flynn.

A man is under arrest at Syracuse N.Y., who is supposed to be the impersonator of J. H. Flynn, of Toronto, President of the United Veterans' Association, who operated in Belleville on the day of the Provincial election. The police were informed of the arrest and a photo procured of the man arrested is a striking likeness of the election day Flynn. Not only is the imitation Flynn wanted in Belleville and Napanee, but in other places in the Province.

Young Kingstonian Called to Bar.

Among the thirty-two young lawyers who received a call to the Ontario Bar at Osgoode yesterday was Collier C. Calvin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Calvin. He graduated from Queen's University in arts in 1914.

Ask More Gas Buoy.

Assistant Engineer J. C. Churchill, of Oswego, N. Y., yesterday spoke before Ogdensburg business men relative to the extension of a survey of the St. Lawrence channels from Alexandria Bay to Ogdensburg. A committee was appointed to take up the matter as well as to have additional gas buoys and range lights placed between Alexandria Bay and Brockville.—Brockville Recorder and Times.

Military Notes.

Capt. J. Edwards returned from duty at Ottawa on the 20th. Major C. Y. Bishop, R. C. A., is granted leave of absence from 22nd Nov., to 22nd Dec., 1919.

Lieut. John Edward Lyon, R. C. D. reports to his P.F. Unit, retaining his temporary C.D.F. status, pending reconstruction of the permanent force, effective 1st Oct., 1919.

To be Lieut. Colonel—Lieut. Col. Richard Francis Parkinson, D.S.O., M. D. No. 3, 19th July, 1919.

To be Captain—Capt. Sidney James Gilmore, E.O.R. 1st Oct., 1919.

Capt. D. Wilson, C.A.D.C., M. D. No. 3 proceeded on duty on the 20th inst. to Belleville, Lindsay and Cobourg, and will return on completion of same.

Veterans Store Incorporated.—Letters of incorporation have been

RHEUMATISM FOR OVER 16 YEARS

No Return Of The Trouble Since Taking "Fruit-a-lives"

108 Church St., Montreal.
"I was a great sufferer from Rheumatism for over 16 years. I consulted specialists, used medicines, used lotions, but nothing did me good. Then I began to take 'Fruit-a-lives', and in 15 days the pain was easier and the Rheumatism much better. Gradually, 'Fruit-a-lives' overcame my Rheumatism; and now, for five years, I have had no return of the trouble. I cordially recommend this fruit medicine to all sufferers."

P. H. Mc HUGH,
50c a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size 25c.
At all dealers or sent postpaid by Fruit-a-lives Limited, Ottawa.

MONASTERIES ON PRECIPICE

Few religious movements of recent times have aroused such world-wide discussion as the proposal to form a league of churches along lines parallel to the political league of the Nations.

This proposal came from the most unexpected source, from the Patriarch of the Greek church, who left the Ecumenical throne violating a precedent of four hundred years, to present his plans at Paris. Unexpectedly, it explains, because the Greek church not only is remote from the western world's affairs, but many of its own strongholds are isolated and breathe the spirit of past ages. As an example it points to the monasteries of Thessaly, nature-made skyscrapers reached by unique elevators, which are described by Elizabeth Perkins as follows:

"There is a legend, perhaps it is history, that there was once a ruler in Constantinople who disliked his brother and wished to banish him to the remotest corner of his kingdom. Consequently the monarch built a monastery on a well-nigh inaccessible mountain in Thessaly and founded a brotherhood, about 400 years ago, in what seemed to be the uttermost corner of the earth.

"The monastery was called 'Meteora,' meaning 'domicile of the sky' After the original was built, twenty-three others grouped themselves around and were inhabited for a while. They were, however, finally abandoned, with the exception of three which are still in use."

"The seven hours' trip across the plains of Thessaly to the town of Kalabaka is most enchanting. Occasionally a Greek priest, with long beard, long hair, and long garments, rides by. His high hat and his large cross indicate prominently his calling, and, if he is not in too great a hurry, a pedestrian may touch him in his cross, and be stamped on the forehead with a little switch, presumably dipped in holy water, and the sinner obtains absolution for the day.

"We left the train at Kalabaka, and there took horses and guides to climb to the high-built monasteries. For three hours the horses had to pick their way over hillside where in the month of February no trail was visible.

"As we looked in wonder at one detached colossal pillar of stone, we discovered on its seemingly unattainable summit a building. This habitation of man, half natural rock and half artificial, and most extraordinary. Our guides drew attention to the higher precipices, and as we grew accustomed to their outlines we saw, on all sides, monasteries tucked into the ledges of the perpendicular walls. They are not all inhabited today, but they are there, bearing testimony that man has climbed, and built, and lived on crags that seem impossible for goats to climb.

"The whole of the west plain of Thessaly lay at our feet, and the white mountains of the Pindos range rose rugged and imposing before us. At the base of the rock on which Trinity is perched like an eagle's nest, our guides hallooed and beat with a stick on a tin can, found in the bushes. Soon an answering call came back, and over the precipice, some 300 feet above us, the peering faces of several monks were seen. Then something serpentine flew into the air, and as it dropped perpendicularly we saw dangling from a coil of rope what looked like a small fish net. Down came the cable until it touched the earth at our feet, and the fish net proved to be a large sized rope bag, which opened and spread out flat on the ground.

"One at a time we were invited to step into the middle of this net and squat, Turk fashion. The edges were gathered together on to a large iron

Two Years of Pain Then Quick Relief

John Weidman Used Dodd's Kidney Pills

Springville, Sask., Nov. 24.—(Special) Dodd's Kidney Pills are worth their weight in gold. This glowing tribute to the good old Canadian kidney remedy comes from the lips of Mr. John Weidman, a well-known and highly-respected resident here. And Mr. Weidman justifies the tribute out of his own experience. "I was suffering from backache for two years," he says. "I could hardly stand up straight. I tried all kinds of medicine but none of them seemed to give me relief. My back seemed to get worse all the time. Then I decided to try Dodd's Kidney Pills and sent for two boxes. I used one up and my back improved. I used four boxes in all. They cured me completely.

"My backache's name back was caused by sick kidneys. That's why he got such prompt and permanent relief. I decided to try Dodd's Kidney Pills and sent for two boxes. I used one up and my back improved. I used four boxes in all. They cured me completely.

"Mr. Weidman's name back was caused by sick kidneys. That's why he got such prompt and permanent relief. I decided to try Dodd's Kidney Pills and sent for two boxes. I used one up and my back improved. I used four boxes in all. They cured me completely.

"I have seen and hunted moose under many circumstances and conditions; often have I watched them when they felt the presence or fear of neither man nor beast; I have followed and observed them in the summer's lakes and muskages and in the winter's snows; I have seen the bull with the hairy stubs of string and the gallant antlers of fall, and I have seen the ungainly mother and her funny calf, writes William Rindfors in Hunters-Travellers-Trappers. In fact, I have known the noble but incongruous, the powerful but awkward moose so long and under such varying circumstances that to me he is no longer an animal to seek and kill for sport, but a sort of bullish, overgrown over-muscled freak of a fellow to watch with interest and amusement. When I first see him each season I have an instinctive desire to first admire his ungainly, foolish, green strength and then walk up to him like an old country friend slap him on the back and say, "How are you, old fellow? I sure am glad to get back in the country again."

To me the moose is different from any other animal. Different in appearance, actions, habits and food. Compare his appearance. Note the long but useful upper lip; the long, awkward, but reliable ears; the humped-up fore-quarters, that make me sometimes think of our "comic artist" portrayals of a combination elephant and donkey. Compare his actions: What other animal can trot like "Maude S." through down timber, brule and jackpine, and yet with a noiseless speed; can swim for hours in the lakes, dive to the bottom for food and walk through quagmire with a natural desire; is equally at home on high land and low land, on snow, ice and water, in open glade and thicket brule; could live and yet so awkward, bullish, blind-fury defence against the cold-blooded, skillful, calculating attack of the wolf. Surely the moose is different. The "last" of a vanished type of the distant, misty past. A hold-over of the carboniferous age, a huge one of the herbivorous age. But I like him at any rate and I never glad over his body since I killed the first one long ago. Now I kill him for a useful purpose or not at all.

Some of my first hunting experiences were with moose. How well I remembered one frosty morning in New Brunswick. Hubald Martin was the guide's name, who hauled me on

up in the Moose

I have seen and hunted moose under many circumstances and conditions; often have I watched them when they felt the presence or fear of neither man nor beast; I have followed and observed them in the summer's lakes and muskages and in the winter's snows; I have seen the bull with the hairy stubs of string and the gallant antlers of fall, and I have seen the ungainly mother and her funny calf, writes William Rindfors in Hunters-Travellers-Trappers. In fact, I have known the noble but incongruous, the powerful but awkward moose so long and under such varying circumstances that to me he is no longer an animal to seek and kill for sport, but a sort of bullish, overgrown over-muscled freak of a fellow to watch with interest and amusement. When I first see him each season I have an instinctive desire to first admire his ungainly, foolish, green strength and then walk up to him like an old country friend slap him on the back and say, "How are you, old fellow? I sure am glad to get back in the country again."

To me the moose is different from any other animal. Different in appearance, actions, habits and food. Compare his appearance. Note the long but useful upper lip; the long, awkward, but reliable ears; the humped-up fore-quarters, that make me sometimes think of our "comic artist" portrayals of a combination elephant and donkey. Compare his actions: What other animal can trot like "Maude S." through down timber, brule and jackpine, and yet with a noiseless speed; can swim for hours in the lakes, dive to the bottom for food and walk through quagmire with a natural desire; is equally at home on high land and low land, on snow, ice and water, in open glade and thicket brule; could live and yet so awkward, bullish, blind-fury defence against the cold-blooded, skillful, calculating attack of the wolf. Surely the moose is different. The "last" of a vanished type of the distant, misty past. A hold-over of the carboniferous age, a huge one of the herbivorous age. But I like him at any rate and I never glad over his body since I killed the first one long ago. Now I kill him for a useful purpose or not at all.

Some of my first hunting experiences were with moose. How well I remembered one frosty morning in New Brunswick. Hubald Martin was the guide's name, who hauled me on

Wanted, Warned

Stole a Car — Magistrate Bradford Warns All Future Offenders.

Lindsay, Nov. 22.—Three young men in town who were implicated in removing a car belonging to Mr. W. E. Baker on Sunday night last while Mr. Baker was attending church at St. Mary's appeared before Police Magistrate Bradford yesterday afternoon. They were left off on suspended sentence, the Crown Attorney recommending that such action be taken, the owner of the car stated that he did not want to press the case. They, however, paid the costs of the court and were given a strict warning: by His Worship that the offence was a very serious one and that they were liable to a heavy penalty. Magistrate Bradford also warned others that future offenders would be dealt with without fear or favor. It was a very serious offence to tamper with a car and there was too much stealing of cars in Lindsay.

CHEESE BOARD.

On Saturday at Belleville Cheese Board, 635 boxes of colored were offered at 27½ cents with no sales and 90 white at 26½ cents with no sales.

Music is said to be the food of love, but after marriage there is apt to be a demand for liver and bacon.

Wedding Bells

PATRICK — SINE.

The marriage took place at the Rawdon Methodist Parsonage by Rev. Jas. Batstone, on Wednesday, Nov. 19th of Lottie Naomi, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hubbard Sine, of Rawdon, to Mr. Edward Patrick of Frankford. The bride wore a very becoming navy blue travelling dress with hat to match. The young couple were unattended. After the ceremony they motored to Trenton en route for Toronto and other western points. On Monday evening Miss Sine was given a miscellaneous shower and received a number of handsome gifts.—Striving Leader.

HIGHT — KERBY.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at St. James Church at nine o'clock on Wednesday morning, Nov. 19th. The Nuptial Mass was celebrated by Rev. Father O'Reilly, uniting in marriage Miss Helen Kerby, of Mr. John Hight of Toronto. The bride wore a very becoming suit of navy blue serge, with hat to match and sable furs, and was attended by her sister, Miss Tilly Kerby, who wore a suit of navy blue serge and fur stole. The groom was assisted by Mr. Michael Fitzgerald of Thurlow. During the service Miss Clara Martin presided at the organ. After a dainty wedding breakfast at the home of the bride's mother, the happy young couple, midst showers of confetti and best wishes, motored to Belleville, leaving by the afternoon express for Detroit and other American cities to spend their honeymoon. The groom's gift to the bride was a fur coat, to the bride a set of gold initialed cuff links.—Striving Leader.

HUFFMAN — PATTERSON.

A pretty home wedding was solemnized at Maple Nook, Moscow, on Nov. 12th, at 11.30 a.m., when Jessie Alexandra, fifth daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Patterson, was united in marriage to Mr. La Verne Cecil Huffman second son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Huffman, Moscow, who enlisted in the 146th Battalion in 1916 and served with the 4th C.M.R.'s in France. Floral decorations of white chrysanthemums and carnations banked with evergreens, decorated the living room where the ceremony was performed by Rev. J. F. Emerson. The bride was given away by her father, and wore a simple gown of white georgette and silk. Her Tulle veil was held in place by pearls and bridal roses, and she carried a sheaf of beautiful white roses. Miss Joy Patterson was her sister's bridesmaid, and wore white embroidered net with bands of blue satin, and carried an armful of pink poppies. Mr. Kenneth Huffman attended his brother, while little Jean Warman, niece of the bride, wearing a cute frock of French embroidery and pink sash, was flower girl. Mendelssohn's wedding march was played by Miss Mariel Wilson. After the ceremony Miss Joy Patterson sang "Because." Luncheon was served in the dining room, the tables being prettily decorated with yellow chrysanthemums and smilax. Later in the afternoon the bridal couple left for Toronto, en route for Chicago, the bride wearing a nigger brown velvet suit with beaver hat to match, and black wolf furs, the gift of the groom. The groom's gift to the bride was a brooch set with pearls, to Miss Wilson a silk parasol, and to the best man a gold chain. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Huffman will reside in Moscow, and will be at home to their friends after the New Year.—Napanee Beaver.

Smith - Mills.

On the evening of November 19th at nine o'clock past nine, at the wedding of Dr. Harold Smith and Miss Carmen Mills was solemnized in Trinity Church, in the presence of the immediate families of the contracting parties. Immediately following the ceremony the party repaired to the home of the bride's parents where the wedding dinner was served. The happy couple left on the midnight train for Cleveland, Ohio, amid showers of confetti and good wishes, to spend the honeymoon with the bride's brother Mr. Geo. C. Mills.—Napanee Express.

Real Estate

- James Livingston Tower, M.D., 84 Victoria Ave., Belleville; Ontario. Office hours: 2 to 4 and 7 p.m. and by appointment. Phone 1046.
- WHEN YOU REQUIRE ANYTHING in the line of HARDWOOD FLOORING get your prices before placing your order as I keep all varieties in stock and prices right.
- Arthur A. Sills
Tel. 145-74-1.
R. F. D. 3, Belleville.
- INSURANCE
- Fire, Life, Auto and Accident. Rates, and the best English, Canadian and United States Companies. Your business will receive prompt, careful and expert attention. Insure with The H. F. Ketcheson Co., Limited, H. F. Ketcheson, Mgr., 28 Bridge St., Belleville, Ont., Phone 225.
- R. W. Adams, established 1864. Fire Insurance Municipal Debentures and Real Estate, Marriage Licenses issued. Office 24 Victoria Ave. Phone 555.
- Farm Insurance, Frame, Buildings, 75c to $1 per $100; Brick Buildings, 50c to 75c per $100; reduction of 10c for lightning rods or metal roof. Why higher rates when you can get cheaper rates and Company guaranteed? Bring in your policies and let me quote many rates before you renew your insurance. Chas. Ashley, 299 Front St., Belleville.
- W. J. Rhodes, London Mutual Fire Ins. Co., Phoenix, (of London) Assurance Co., Nova Scotia Fire Underwriters, Union (of Paris) Fire Ins. Co. Insurance of all kinds transacted at lowest rates. Phone 965 Office, Box 35, Union Bank Chambers.
- Real Estate INSURANCE ESTATES MANAGED J. C. MCCARTHEY, 270 FRONT ST.
- Frank Baalim, Barrister, Solicitor, Notary Public, Conveyancer, etc. Money to loan. Office in Madoc open Friday and Saturday. Opposite Post Office. Office in Burocoty open Tuesday and Wednesday.
- Mikel and Alford, Barristers, Etc., Solicitors for the Mohawk Bank, W. C. Mikel, K.C., G. Alford, Offices: Belleville and Trenton.
- Malcolm Wright, Barrister, Solicitor, Notary Public, Etc. Office 15 Campbell St., Belleville. Money to loan at lowest rates.
- Ponton & Ponton — Barristers, Solicitors, Notaries Public, Commissioners. Office East Bridge St. Solicitors Merchants Bank of Canada, Bank of Montreal and Town of Deseronto, Money to Loan on Mortgages.
- W. N. Ponton, K.C. R. D. Ponton, Offices: Belleville and Striving.
- Porter, Butler & Payne, Barristers, Solicitors, Notaries, Etc., Solicitors for Union Bank. E. Gus Porter, K.C., M.P. E. J. Butler Chas. H. Payne Money to Loan on Mortgages, and Investment made Office 319 Front St., Belleville, Ont.
- Wm. Carnew, Barrister, Etc., County Crown Attorney, Office: Court House Building, Phone: office 238, house 435.
- Cut Flowers in Season; Weddings and Funeral Designs a Specialty. OOLLIP, Phone 205, night Phone 175.
- Norman Montgomery, Auctioneer, Brighton, Box 180, telephone 101.
- Belleville Assay Office — Ores and Minerals of all kinds tested and assayed. Samples sent by mail or express will receive prompt attention. All results guaranteed. Situated on Victoria Avenue, East Belleville, Phone 392.
- F. W. Aylenworth, Ontario & Dominion Land Surveyor and Civil Engineer, Madoc, Phone 6.

FISHER
to W. H. Hudson)
Insurance Agent of Marriage Licensed Auctioneer arm sales a specimen reasonable. Campbell St., phone 168. Telephone 1110.

Satisfaction
O. TICE
and Experienced ioneer
Suits Sales
Where Any Time
Any Kind of my expense and and see you—P. O. Address—Mont St., Belleville.

CRACKERS
S
Ist received the largest direct from London. Smith's celebrated crackers or Cosques into our city. These and on display in and we would suggest picking out your man of these amusing, novelties.

S. CLAPP

Optical
ervice
st careful ex-— couldn't so anywhere reasonable fee. and accurate made possible up-to-date, coming-plant premises. for appoint-

JS McFEE
OPTICIAN

ds That Scarce

VEN, FINE WOOLS, D LINEN GOODS, CY TOWELS, SSES, TRAY CLOTHS ES & DRESER SCARFS
any of these goods advise you to buy now, all on hand that we the Holiday Trade.

BEEHIVE

N. SULMAN

Dream
ne
et Water
Powder and Cream
latest creation
Quality Toilet
Necessities

TROMS
G STORE
Best in Drugs"