OLD COUNTRY PICNIC Ladies' Aid Realize $100 From Social—Many Personal

A great number of residents here have visitors. Mrs. Macintosh, of Montreal, spent a few days with Mrs. Charity Morden, and has now come to visit relations at Bloomfield.

Miss Elva Garratt, of Ottawa, is having a holiday with her father, Wallace Garratt. Mr. and Mrs. Christie Bates, Frankford, visited Wallace Garratt on Sunday. This party started on the journey to Wellington on Saturday night, but, owing to a mishap at a sharp corner in Concession, they had to go back home with a disabled wheel, but they got the car fixed for the journey on Sunday.

A few members of Friends attended the Westlake monthly meeting at Bloomfield on Thursday morning, and a car load attended the Bloomfield meeting on Sunday afternoon. The sympathy of all the friends of Mrs. J. U. Robins goes out to her in her bereavement. Her sister, Miss May Archer, who has been a great sufferer for a long time, died last week at Little Britain, and was buried on Thursday. Rev. J. U. Robins and wife attended the funeral.

Thursday last was a kind of gala day here, and many of our people had great enjoyment. Being the half-holiday for the storekeepers, there was an expectant crowd waiting just after dinner for the aeroplane that was billed to deliver some B.H. paint to T. M. Nash, hardwareman. At about 1.30 p.m. the aeroplane was seen in the distance, and after hovering round a little, it alighted in the field at the rear of the Dominion Cannery factory, and the pilots on board, Mr. Wiltshire and Mr. Charbon, had the pleasure of delivering their supply of Brandham-Henderson paint, the first shipment of goods ever delivered in Wellington by aeroplane.

Owing to an electric storm a few days before, the big machine belonging to the B.H. Co. had to alight on an island in the St. Lawrence, but the B.H. Co., rather than disappoint their customers, according to advertisements, at once hired another Curtis aeroplane, which served their purpose. About 500 people turned out to see three or four of their neighbors loop the loop and take the nose dive, and perform other daring feats in the air with an expert pilot. Three hundred had registered for a free ride, the lucky numbers being 152, Sebourn D. Cronk (his ride was transferred to his son Barton); 181, Morley Stephenson; 185, Walter Young; Clare Platt, head clerk in T. M. Nash's store, also had a free ride. The crowd in the field watched with great interest the marvellous demonstrations of the skillful pilot. The weather conditions were good, and those who liked ice cream were served on the spot by Alex. Dunn and helpers with Campbell's tea cream. Thanks is due to Mr. H. D. Clemons of the Dominion Cannery Farm for the loan of the field.

A happy group of ten, including three children, from the Old Country, had a picnic party in Samuel Saylor's summer cottage by the lake on Thursday afternoon. Rev. Wm. Miller and wife who were on holiday there invited Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pitt and daughter, and their visitor, Miss Alice Durdan, of Crowborough, and James Wind and wife. While enjoying the social cup of black tea, there was friendly discussion and comparing of impressions on the land of their adoption, and all were pleased with the strong hand of friendship that exists between Canada and Dear Old England.

The Ladies' Aid arranged a cake and ice cream social in the park on Thursday evening. The Picton band rendered selections, and Mrs. (Dr.) Gibson sang a solo. The Leyhew twins, Hugh and Lew, played a violin duet. R. W. Ireland presided and expressed words of welcome to all who were there, including members of other churches. He regretted the absence of the pastor and his wife, owing to the death of Mrs. Robins' sister. The crowd gathered enjoyed the music and the social fellowship, as well as the refreshment, and it is understood that over $100 was taken for the parsonage fund.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Garratt, of North Bay, are on holiday at his father's, W. H. Garratt. Mrs. D. J. Isaacs and little son Frank from Toronto, are staying at J. Wild's. Mrs. E. B. Demille and daughter Theima, Toronto, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Williams.

APPLES AND PLUMS New Varieties Tested—"The Portia" Found to be the Champion Strawberry

OTTAWA, July 28.—(By Canadian Press)—Efforts of the Department of Agriculture to improve the varieties of fruits and vegetables grown in Canada are meeting with considerable encouragement, officials of the department state. While special consideration is being paid by the Horticultural division of the Experimental Farm System to the cultivation of the apple as the most exportable fruit, much attention is devoted to plums and other fruits.

There is a great part of Canada where the European or domestic plum do not succeed, whereas the native plum is found in very cold districts. The Horticultural division is striving to find improved forms of the native species, and some excellent early types have been developed at the central and other farms. Breeding new types, not only of plums, but of strawberries, raspberries, gooseberries and grapes is one of the important lines of work undertaken, and it has been found that "The Portia," originated in the division, is one of the best canning, most productive and handsomest of strawberries.

NOT QUITTING FOR BURNABY

Hon. W. L. M. King Opens Ontario Tour at Aylmer—Brampton Today

TELLS LIBERALS HOPES Deprecated Movements Which Set Class Against Class Group Against Group

AURORA, July 28.—Addressing voters of North York who attended the annual gathering of the Liberal Club of the riding here yesterday, Hon. Mackenzie King, leader of the Liberal party, told them that he did not propose to quit the contest in the riding simply because Mr. R. W. E. Burnaby, President of the Canadian Council of Agriculture, happened to be in the field.

He made the declaration at the close of his address in touching upon the result of a three-cornered contest which he had reminded his audience might result in the return of the candidate of the Meighen Government if the forces of Liberalism and Progress were divided. Hon. Mr. King remarked that he had been nominated to contest the seat before the formation of the U.F.O., and stated that he was prepared to leave it to his opponents and those of Mr. Burnaby as to who had prior claim to the nomination. "Don't Leave Contest. "But I do not propose to leave the contest now simply because as is in the field," declared the Liberal leader. Hon. Mr. King assured the gathering that he spoke only for the traditions of the Liberal party on all occasions when he told them that the great agricultural interests of the country would be taken care of. He added the Liberal party proposed to do its duty by industry, trade and commerce, Labor and Capital, and depreciated movements which set class against class and group against group, pointing out that progress would be made only by men and women of all classes and creeds working for the common good. It was the opening address of Mr. King in a series of meetings to be held in Ontario. He speaks in Brampton tonight.
