Endorses Mrs. Nation

Rev Clarence McKinnon, pastor of Park street Presbyterian church in Halifax, preached Feb. 17th, on Mrs. Nation and her doings. Mr. McKinnon's text was from Judges, where Gideon's breaking down the altars of Baal is described. The minister held that it was right for Gideon to destroy the idolatrous groves and alters, that it is also right for Mrs. Nation to smarh the salo right for more rangers' tables in the more changers' tables in the ne. The action of Jesus in overthrow-g the money changers' tables in the emple and the conduct of Mrs. Nation ere parallel cases, and both are justi-ile. Mr. McKinnon said he was not in favor of prohibition, but of a reasonable license law. We have, he said, such a law in Halifax, yet it is openly violated, and he warned the authorities that unless an effort is made to enforce the liquor law, that a Mrs. Nation may arise who will take the law own hands in Halifax .- St. John Sun Did anybody ever start a news-
