

FALL WORK IS WELL ADVANCED

Land is Getting Too Dry for Plowing.

Roots Doing Fairly Well—Hay Good.

Toronto Despatch—Fall work generally is still well advanced, although plowing has slackened somewhat, especially on clay fields, as the land has been getting dry again, say representatives of the Ontario Department of Agriculture.

Some fall wheat is yet to be sown, but the bulk of the crop has been put in, and much of it is already showing up nicely.

Early potatoes are being dug, but the yield is rather light. Late potatoes are still growing and promise to do better.

Roots are now doing fairly well, except turnips, which in several counties are suffering from the attacks of aphid.

Corn cutting is proceeding actively, and generally speaking the crop will be a fair one. Silo filling has begun, and the indications are that nearly all the corn will be well matured and make good silage.

Pastures generally are only fair, and many farmers are doing some feeding. Norfolk, however, claims that alfalfa is giving good pasture.

There is a good supply of hay on hand, but there will be less grain for feeding than last year, and straw will be relatively scarce. Haldimand states that co-operative clubs will engage in the sale of their hay, and are already looking to increasing their supply of concentrate stock feeds.

Lincoln claims that more men are going on the farm for winter than in previous years.

AWAITS SPEECH BY LLOYD GEORGE

Britain Keenly Anxious as to His Words

At Brotherhood Congress To-night

London Cable—(By the Associated Press)—Premier Lloyd George's return to England last night from his vacation at Deauville, France, and a brief visit in Paris, will be followed to-night by an address, which will be delivered at the London City Temple, and which, in view of the extreme political and economic unrest prevailing in the country, is awaited with keenest curiosity and interest.

Among the many topics which the public is eager to hear the Premier discuss are the Russian tangle; Ireland; the reduction of national expenditures; industrial developments; the probable dissolution of Parliament, and a general election. An election would be particularly welcomed, but it is doubtful if the Premier will speak on that subject to-night, it being suggested that he will probably avoid controversial topics as far as possible. In view of the fact that the speech will be addressed to the International Brotherhood Congress, Mr. Lloyd George will probably confine himself mainly to elaborating his recent appeal to the nation to co-operate in the establishment of a new world order, leaving other matters for addresses he has promised to deliver elsewhere.

Squash Recipes

Squash, writes Mrs. Hazel Blair Dodd, is regarded as an insipid vegetable by many, but if prepared with generous seasoning it makes an appetizing accompaniment to a meat or vegetable dinner, and is a pleasant change from starchy vegetables.

In addition, squash may be prepared as a dessert for luncheon, or best of all, converted into the always welcome squash pie.

Summer squashes are usually consumed green, the seeds being cooked with the flesh. They should be young, tender and thin-skinned. The common varieties are the white round and the yellow crook-neck.

The most common way of cooking is to boil the squash, but with this, as with other vegetables, there is less loss of food value when the squash is steamed.

STEAMED SQUASH.

Wash the squash and cut into thick slices or quarters. Place in the steamer and cook over boiling water until tender. Mash and season with butter, salt and pepper.

FRIED SUMMER SQUASH.

Wash and cut in half-inch slices. Sprinkle with salt and pepper. Dip in crumbs, egg and crumbs again, fry in hot fat and drain.

BAKED SQUASH.

Baked squash is a good vegetable accompaniment to heavy meats like steak, beef, etc. It is simple to prepare. The squash is cut to about the size of potatoes, seeds and stringy portions are removed, and then set to bake in oven for about forty minutes. It is served in a hot dish, just like baked potatoes.

SQUASH SALAD.

Quarter two tender, but well-grown, crook-neck or marrow squashes, and boil twenty minutes. Drain thoroughly, pressing out the superfluous water, cool and cut the solid part in cubes, rejecting the seed. Season with shavings of onion and serve in tomato shells or sweet pepper cups with any good cooked or cream salad dressing.

EGGLESS SQUASH PATTIES.

Two cups cooked and sifted squash, 1-2 cup sugar, 2-3 teaspoon salt, 1 tablespoon dried and sifted crumbs, 1-2 teaspoon lemon extract. Mix sugar, salt, sifted bread crumbs and lemon extract together. Line patty pans with paste, fill with squash and bake in hot oven about 25 minutes.

SQUASH CUSTARD.

Two cups mashed squash, 2 eggs, 1 teaspoon salt, pepper to taste. The squash and well-beaten egg yolks are mixed together. Salt and pepper are added, and then the stiffly-beaten whites are folded in. The mixture is then poured into custard cups and placed in a pan of water, in oven, until baked firm.

Par-melee's Vegetable Pills are the very best medicine compounded to deal with dyspepsia, and their sterling qualities in this respect can be vouched for by legions of users.

PROFITEER IN CLASS WITH RAT

British Government Will Crush All Such Vermin.

Street Markets Are Cutting Prices There.

London Cable—Charles McCurdy, Parliamentary Secretary to the Food Minister, declared yesterday that the Government classes the profiteers with rats and other vermin, and is determined to stamp them out. Mr. McCurdy was speaking at the opening day of the administration of the new Profiteering Act and allude to the new Canadian statute dealing with a similar evil.

Criticism against the English act is mainly on the ground that it will never scotch the big profiteer, but merely render the small trader liable to espionage and prosecution. Meanwhile street markets are increasingly instituted in the crowded districts. Their establishment is frequently followed by a drop in prices at the neighboring shops. The lack of housing accommodation is certainly as vital a problem as profiteering.

Houseless ex-soldiers at Newport, Monmouthshire, interrupted the Borough Council meeting, protesting from the gallery. There were, they claimed, 600 homeless families in the town. Liverpool corporation is spending £22,000 sterling in converting army huts into private dwellings. Other local authorities are also attracted by this temporary solution.

PEACE CONFERENCE HAD NO SAY AS TO IRELAND

President Wilson Gives Plain Answer to Agitators in the United States

Nations League Will Be Forum to Hear All Self-Determination Claims

On Board President Wilson's Special Train—Setting forth publicly for the first time his interpretation of the League of Nations covenant as it affects Ireland, President Wilson said in a statement to-day that the League would constitute a forum before which could be brought all claims for self-determination which are likely to affect the peace of the world.

"The covenant would not bind the United States to assist in putting down rebellion in any foreign country," he asserted, "nor would it limit the power of this country to recognize the independence of any people who seek to secure freedom."

He said Ireland's case was not heard at Versailles because it did not come within the jurisdiction of the Peace Conference.

The President's statement was in reply to a series of questions sent to him by the San Francisco Labor Council. It is understood that within a few days he will reply similarly to the questions put by other labor bodies regarding Shantung and the representation of the British dominions in the League Assembly.

The President's statement detailing the Labor Council's questions and his answers follow:

"(1)—Under the covenant does the nation obligate itself to assist any member of the League in putting down a rebellion of its subjects or conquered peoples?"

Answer: "It does not."

"(2)—Under the covenant can this nation independently recognize a government whose people seek to achieve or have achieved their independence from a member of the League?"

Answer: "The independent action sorship was drawn yesterday, and since that time little has been learned of events in the city.

The Jugo-Slav peace delegation in Paris has issued a statement indicating that Italian regular troops are moving on the city. The Italian battleship Dante Alighieri is said to have been damaged by her crew, and has been unable to leave the port of Fiume. British, French and American detachments which were in the city at the time of D'Annunzio's coup are reported to have boarded ships and departed.

BADOLGIO'S APPEALS.

Paris Cable—Of the Italian sailors who landed in Fiume only 100 remained in the city at the last advice, the others having rejoined their ships, the official advice state. It is announced, however, that Rear Admiral Casanova, who landed yesterday in an attempt to restore order, has been "illegally detained" on shore.

General Badoglio, who was sent by the Government to Fiume to handle the situation has issued a proclamation to the troops, inviting them to remain faithful to discipline. His proclamation denounces the volunteers as men "who abandoned their posts and went to Fiume, creating a state of things which cannot be approved or tolerated."

Miller's Worm Powders are not surpassed by any other preparation as a vermifuge or worm destroyer. Indeed, there are few preparations that have the merit that it has to recommend it. Mothers, aware of its excellence, seek its aid at the first indication of the presence of worms in their children, knowing that it is a perfectly trustworthy medicine that will give immediate and lasting relief.

KING'S APPEAL IS A SUCCESS

Majority of Staple Trades Accept Scheme

For Employment of Disabled Soldiers.

London Cable—(Reuter's despatch)—The King's appeal to employers to employ disabled ex-soldiers has been received favorably. Everywhere there are prospects that the solemn obligation mentioned by His Majesty will be generally supported. The Ministry of Labor denies that fifty thousand disabled soldiers seeking work and fifty thousand more for whom work is wanted will shortly be discharged from hospitals and convalescent homes. The scheme put forward as an addendum of the King's proclamation invites employers with over ten employees to take five per cent. of disabled men on their establishment if possible. It is not intended the proposals will lead to the dilution of unskilled labor. Wages of the men who have been trained will be governed by conditions laid down in agreement with trade advisory committees and disability pensions will not be taken into account. A majority of the staple trades of the country have accepted the scheme. Participants in the scheme are entitled to use on their correspondence paper a device indicating the fact.

D'ANNUNZIO STILL MASTER OF SITUATION AT FIUME

London Hears Italy is Acting to Meet the Trouble There.

Geneva Cable—Gabriele D'Annunzio is still master of the situation at Fiume, of which he took possession recently at the head of insurgent Italian forces, refusing to obey the Italian Government's order to return with his troops, according to advices which have reached here despite the extreme rigor of the censorship which has been set up regarding the Fiume developments.

The British and American contingents in the city were jeered and hissed by the population as they marched to their workshops, the advices state, but embarked safely on their vessels without further incident. The French contingent is said to have remained in Fiume, barricaded in its barracks.

ITALY ACTING.

London Cable—Fiume has been isolated from the world by the Italian Government, which is apparently taking steps to meet the situation that has arisen through the action of Captain Gabriele D'Annunzio in forcibly taking possession of the city and forcing Allied and Jugo-Slav forces to leave. The evil of the cen-

U.S. REQUESTS UPON JAPAN

Tokio Cable—According to the Jiji Shimpo, the United States Government has requested a memorandum from Japan stating, first, that Japan has no aggressive designs on the Province of Shantung; second, that Japan is to abandon her rights to the establishment of an exclusive Japan settlement in Tsing-Tao; and, third, announcing the exact date for the return of Shantung to China, and also the date for the withdrawal of the Japanese troops there.

The newspapers point out that it will be difficult to fix the dates, as this must be settled by direct negotiations between Japan and China.

Huns to Wear Bark Shoes.

To help out in the present great scarcity of leather and the consequent dearth of footwear, a German army authority recommends the introduction of linden bark moccasins such as worn by the Russian peasantry. Made from the bark of young twigs, these shoes are said to stand two years' wear; yet they are light and easy and can be made to fit well. The linden forests of the prince of Monaco, near Laon, France, Germans say, would supply sufficient bark to make 1,000,000 shoes, and the making of them would furnish excellent light occupation for prisoners and slightly wounded.

HUN IN BALTIC

Military Strength in Courland is Growing.

Berlin Cable—The assertion is made by the Vortwaert's correspondent that the German military movement in the Baltic provinces is rapidly growing, and that officers and men are arriving there daily from Germany. Even the smallest places in Courland are strongly occupied. Posters displayed in the office of Staff-Captain Stoewer at Bausk, Courland, says the correspondent, read: "Fight for the Kaiser and the Empire against democracy. We had rather die than be dishonored."

"Pretext is being made of the disbandment of a few units, the correspondent adds, but the troops are being transferred to Admiral Kolchak's army."

LOVES IRELAND

But Will Not Exploit It for a Living.

New York Despatch—The following letter was made public at the Mayor's office in the city hall yesterday, as having been written to John Devery, editor of the Gaelic American: "Sir,—My attention has been called to an editorial in your paper of Sept. 13, in which I am picked out for personal abuse as a non-sympathizer with the hopes and aspirations of the Irish people.

"Nothing could be uttered or published that would be more completely opposed to the truth.

"You have put a petty and unwarranted misconstruction upon an official courtesy properly shown by me, as a representative of this cosmopolitan city, to the Prince of Wales, and your state of mind concerning the British Government is no excuse for it.

"My sympathies with Ireland are fully as deep and as great as yours. The fact that I have not made my living exploiting it is not necessarily a test of my sincerity. Respectfully yours, (Signed) 'John F. Hylan, Mayor.'"

EX-KAISER PLANS A BIG HOUSEHOLD

London Cable—"It seems as if Holland were to become the dumping ground for all of Germany's royal exiles," says a Rotterdam despatch to the Daily Telegraph. "The Duke of Brunswick has bought a house at The Hague in one of the best parts of the town. It is said the ex-Kaiser will take up residence in the house he purchased at Doorn after the new year, and that fifty railway wagons will come from Germany with material to furnish the house."

The images are arranged in a grid-like fashion, with numbers 1 through 7 in circles. Below the images is a list of captions for each photo.

In days not further back than five years ago, the glorious scenery of the Canadian Rockies in central British Columbia, which has been opened up by the construction of the Grand Trunk Pacific railway, was reserved for the intrepid hunter or prospector and the native red man. Today this playground, so expansive that distances do not describe it, is virtually at the door of tourists, travellers, alpinists and sportsmen. This unspoiled wonderland had been penetrated to the very heart in luxurious, modern railway trains.
