10,000 BOERS SURRENDERED

Very Rapid Steps Made Since the Conclusion of the Peace.

Friendly to British but Bitter Towards Both France and Germany.

Pretoria, Wednesday, June 11.—In all, 10,255 Boers have surrendered up to date. Many are youngsters of 11 years old and upward. The majority of them are under 30, though some of the burghers who have surrendered are septuagenarians. Reports from all the districts say that the burghers are increasingly friendly. The only bitterness observable among the leading Boers here is against France and Germany. They declare the war was protracted unnecessarily, owing to hopes held out by the French and German press. Some of the Boers are so incensed that they have expressed the hope that some day they will fight on the side of the British against one of these powers. The anticipated friction between the surrendered Boers and their former comrades of the National Scouts has not materialized to any extent. The Boers admit that they used most of it in hunting game since the peace agreement was signed.

SURRENDERS AT MAFKING. Pretoria, June 12.—Commandant Kemp and a number of Boers have surrendered at Mafeking. Commandant Kemp says that he is reconciled to the new situation.

USED IN HUNTING GAME. The Boers of the Orange River Colony are handing in only a small percentage of their ammunition. They explain that they used most of it in hunting game since the peace agreement was signed.

NO SYMPATHY

Colonel Lynch Finds the Irish Nationalist Party Disgusted With His Apology.

London, June 12.—"Col." Lynch gets little sympathy from the Irish party members of which were disgusted by his letter to the Speaker of the House of Commons, apologizing for the part he took in the Boer struggle. The Irish party knows nothing of his plans or motives in challenging arrest, and regards his action with some doubt. It has been suggested that he was in communication with the British government before he arrived. LEYDS OCCUPATION GONE. The Brussels correspondent of the Times says that the Transvaal agency in Rue de Livourne will shortly be rented as a private dwelling. Dr. Leyds is now busy with the final work of liquidation. The rumor is untrue that the Boer delegates to Europe or the personnel of the late agency are about to take the oath of allegiance before the British minister.

EXAGGERATED

Wild Stories in Circulation Today—A Mishap on the Lake Erie Railroad.

This has been a very busy day for the town gossip who have been working overtime concocting wild stories, which have circulated from mouth to mouth all over the city. The sad death of Dr. Backus, and the boy in Wallaceburg and the accident on the Lake Erie have furnished a great scope for the manufacturing of sensational stories and advantage was certainly taken of it. First William Turtle was reported killed in the accident, then a Maple City drayman was reported killed by lightning, and so these stories went on, until it would almost appear that the half of the people in Chatham had been wiped out of existence in the short space of 24 hours.

The accident on the Lake Erie was of a much less serious nature than reported. Engine No. 40 taking a special freight west ran off the track at Leamington about four o'clock this morning, derailed six cars. Mr. Turtle was in Chatham last night and was not even on the unfortunate train. He was put in charge of the auxiliary, which left here at six o'clock for the scene of the accident. Engineer Austin in charge of No. 4 engine and brakeman Eastman also went out on the auxiliary. An accident of a similar nature almost happened at Leamington once before. The country there is somewhat hilly and the wind storm last night blew the sand over the track, blocking the line. No one was injured last night.

PROGRAM FOR CORONATION

Their Majesties Have Completed and Authorized It—A Rehearsal.

Held Last Court of the Season Ere Leaving for Windsor to Await Festivities.

London, June 11.—King Edward and Queen Alexandra were engaged to-day in what was practically a rehearsal of the coronation ceremonies. Accompanied by Princess Victoria and a suite their Majesties drove to Westminster Abbey. They were quietly received by the Duke of Norfolk, earl marshal, and chief butler of England, who escorted their Majesties through the abbey, and in order to prevent the possibility of a hitch in the proceedings coronation day all the details of the procession and ceremonial were explained to them. The royal visit to the abbey was accomplished very quietly and but few of the persons about the building were aware of the presence of their Majesties.

THE ROYAL PROGRAM. London, Friday, June 13.—The final court of the season will be held at Buckingham Palace to-night. Their Majesties will then go to Windsor and will not return to London until Coronation week. The program of functions for coronation week is as follows:—

Monday, June 23.—Arrival in London of the royal representatives; dinner at Buckingham Palace and reception of the suites.

Tuesday, June 24.—Their Majesties will receive the special foreign envoys and deputations to the coronation and give a state dinner at Buckingham Palace.

Wednesday, June 25.—Reception of the colonial premiers and other envoys; the Prince of Wales will give a dinner party at St. James' Palace to the Prince and envoys.

Thursday, June 26.—The coronation. Friday, June 27.—The procession through London, which will be a military pageant two miles long, representing every portion of the British dominions. In the evening their Majesties will attend a reception at Lansdowne House.

Saturday, June 28.—The royal party will leave London for the naval review.

Sunday, June 29.—Dinner to the foreign princes by their respective ambassadors.

Monday, June 30.—Their Majesties turn to London; gala performance of opera.

Tuesday, July 1.—Garden party at Windsor Castle.

Wednesday, July 2.—Departure of the foreign princes and envoys; their Majesties dine at Londonderry House.

Thursday, July 3.—Their Majesties attend the service at St. Paul's and lunch at the Guildhall.

Friday, July 4.—Their Majesties attend the reception of Indian Princes at the India Office.

Saturday, July 5.—King Edward's dinner to the poor.

BOY KILLED

Little Nelson Woods, of Wallaceburg, Struck by Lightning—Killed Instantly.

Special to The Planet.

Wallaceburg, June 13.—A terrific storm passed over Wallaceburg last evening, doing a great deal of damage in and around town, and which caused the death of Master Nelson Woods, second son of Mr. Woods, blacksmith, who resides opposite the River House. Nelson and a young friend were playing in the blacksmith shop, when the boy was struck and instantly killed by the lightning. The family have the sympathy of the entire community in their sad bereavement.

SURROUNDED IN WOODS.

Salem, Ore., June 12.—Governor Geer called out a company of the National Guard yesterday and ordered it to Gervais, where Tracy and Merrill, the convicts who escaped from the penitentiary on Monday, after killing three guards and shooting a life prisoner, are surrounded.

The convicts, heavily armed, are hiding in the woods near Gervais, a station on the Southern Pacific Railway, 30 miles south of Portland. Reinforcements have started both from Salem and Portland. Sheriff Durbin, who is leading a posse from here, intends to throw a cordon around the woods and make escape impossible, and starve the men out. Police authorities, however, believe Tracy will never be taken alive, and that he will make a break for liberty.

A report from Gervais says that a battle is in progress between the posse and the outlaws, Tracy and Merrill.

DEPUTIES FIRED ON THE CROWD

A Twelve-Year-Old Boy Seriously Wounded—The Mob Stone Street Cars.

Pawtucket, R. I., the Scene of a Serious Riot, the Outcome of a Strike.

Pawtucket, R. I., June 12.—The city officials having declined to increase the police force to meet the unusual conditions resulting from the strike of the Union Traction Company's men here and in Providence, eight companies of infantry and two troops of cavalry are patrolling the streets to-day by order of Governor Kimball.

Last evening a detachment of sixteen special deputy sheriffs was attacked by a crowd which had held up and demolished a street car. The officers were stoned and a number of persons were injured, but none fatally. There was no trouble this forenoon. Cars were run guarded by deputy sheriffs, with some regularity, but few passengers.

Since the strike began on June 2, crowds have opposed the running of cars, and the guards of deputies on each car have encountered growing hostility. Mayor Fitzgerald was appealed to to increase the number of police, but he declined, on the ground that the city's financial condition would not permit of it. The national guardsmen ordered out were supplied at Providence with shot and ammunition.

About noon four cars became stalled in a crowd on Pawtucket avenue. They were each guarded by deputy sheriffs and special officers. Troop K, of the cavalry, and Company A were hurried there. Part formed ahead of the car and part behind. A bombardment of stones began and several officers and men were struck and slightly injured. A volley of shots was fired by the deputies. The crowd fell back, and the car proceeded.

Chief of Police Rice advised the people to quit the streets, but the crowds were disposed to be insolent. Soon after a car, escorted by cavalry and filled with deputy sheriffs, was stalled on Main street by a mob. Stones crashed through the windows, and a volley was fired by the deputies. Tanner Patterson, 12 years of age, who was in the crowd, fell shot. This staggered the crowd, and the car passed on, badly battered. A doctor said that the boy was critically injured.

The astonishing increase in the number of lawless acts directed against the U. S. Traction Company, whose union men have been on strike since June 2 and the inability of the limited police force and deputy sheriff to suppress the rioting induced Governor Kimball to call out the militia. Numerous scenes of disorder occurred during the day, and more than a score of persons were injured, one fatally. No cars were operated to-night, but they will run again in the morning, and further trouble is feared. While the militia is policing the city, Pawtucket is not under martial law. Tonight Mayor Fitzgerald, who has been away on his wedding trip, returned, and is using his influence with the populace to maintain order. In the presence of about 1,000 persons and the militia this evening Adjutant-General Sackett read the riot act.

A VILLAINOUS TRAFFIC.

Montreal, June 12.—Representations have been made to the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Women and Children that a regular traffic in young Syrian women is being carried on between the old country and Canada, with the object of robbery or gain through handing them over to people interested in the traffic in immigrant women for immoral purposes. The case arose through the assault and robbery of a young Syrian woman named Akhoril, in this city. The secretary intends to make representations to the authorities at Ottawa on the subject.

WAS DETAINED OVER TIME

Friends of McLeod Objected to his Lengthy Incarceration in Police Cells.

Officer From Berlin Appeared Last Night and the man was Taken Away.

Chief of Police John Klippert, of Berlin, arrived in the city last night. He wanted John McLeod, arrested on Tuesday night, on the charge of appropriating $85. He left this morning with his prisoner.

McLeod had been locked up at the police station since Tuesday night. Yesterday his friends here were talking out habeas corpus proceedings. Chief of Police Holmes consulted Mayor Sulman, and Mayor Sulman consulted the city solicitor. The solicitor said that the police were only justified in keeping the
