

Fused Joints are Air-tight

Fused Joints are used only in "Hecla" Furnaces. They are made by bringing the iron and steel of the radiating chamber to a white heat and fusing the metals into one piece—making a joint so permanent and so tight, that it prevents for all time the escape of smoke, gas and dust into the house.

"Hecla" Furnace

joints are just as tight, after ten years service, as when first installed.

"HECLA" FUSED JOINTS are covered by patents and are used exclusively in "Hecla" Furnaces. The cemented and bolted joints in other furnaces are soon impaired by the unequal expansion of the steel and iron. The cement drops out; the bolts work loose; soon leaving openings through which gas and dust escape. FUSED JOINTS make "Hecla" heating ample, economical, sanitary and healthful.

CROSS ATLANTIC IN A DAY.

Aerial Navigation to Shorten Voyages to Twenty Hours.

London, April 30.—Dr. Alexander Graham-Bell said Sunday night that it was only a question of a brief period when the progress of aerial navigation would make it possible to have dinner in America and breakfast the next morning in Europe, covering the distance across the Atlantic in considerably less than twenty hours. "My expectation," said Dr. Bell, "is that an airship will be perfected capable of making 150 to 200 miles an hour. My opinion, however, is that the next step in aerial flight, will take the form of such improvements as will make possible the creation of aerial battleships."

Appointment Was Not Made.

Ottawa, April 30.—At the session of the Ontario Legislature which closed last week an act was passed dividing the judicial district of Nipissing into two parts, with a judge for each. The statute of the Ontario Legislature on the subject, however, only reached Ottawa on Thursday or Friday last, and there was not time to put the matter through before adjournment, and the appointment accordingly will have to stand over till next session.

DIVISION OF KEEWATIN ABSOLUTE SECURITY.

ONTARIO, MANITOBA, SASKATCHEWAN WOULD RE-MAKE MAP.

What the Three Provinces Ask in Proposed Extension of the Boundaries—Manitoba Wants All the District of Keewatin, But Ontario Disputes Broad Claim As It Wants Northern Seaport.

The accompanying map shows the provinces of Ontario and Manitoba and the district of Keewatin which it is proposed to divide between the two provinces. Manitoba has asked for the whole of Keewatin, as shown on the map, which would give her a large area to the north of Ontario, and between the latter province and the shores of Hudson Bay.

Ontario has also asked that Keewatin be divided, but between the two provinces as shown in the cut, the division line following the present eastern boundary of Manitoba to the Churchill River, and then along the centre of that river to Hudson Bay, leaving Fort Churchill in the territory to be added to Manitoba.

This division would give each province a port on Hudson Bay aside from that on James' Bay already in the possession of Ontario, which has long been claimed to be insufficient for this province's needs.

In addition to the claims of the two provinces mentioned, the new province of Saskatchewan is asking for an extension of its territory northwards, so as to secure a port on the great inland sea. The portion of Keewatin desired by Saskatchewan has not yet been designated, and is, therefore, not shown on the map.

The question of this extension was raised by the application of Manitoba for an increase of territory. The Dominion Government, with a view to making an equitable distribution, recently called the different elements together, in order to have their respective claims fully set forth before the division is made.

Manitoba's claim apparently covers all the territory under discussion except that to be allotted to Quebec, which includes that part of the district of Ungava which does not belong to Labrador.

Ontario naturally disputes this very sweeping claim to a very large portion of territory which for geographical reasons alone, if for no other, naturally belongs to the latter. Manitoba asks that her boundaries be not only produced northward to Hudson Bay, but that they should also extend eastward to include the district of Keewatin, which lies directly between Ontario and Hudson Bay, and would thereby cut off this province from access to that body of water, except via James Bay which is shallow.

KEEWATIN AS IT MAY BE.

Ontario's claim is that, while Manitoba should have her boundaries extended northward to Hudson Bay, all the territory lying to the east of her eastern boundary should go to the province, including access to Fort Churchill, which investigations have shown, is the only deep water harbor on the great inland sea.

In the memorandum submitted to the Dominion Government, the claims of Ontario are set forth as follows by its representatives:

"(1) That in their opinion the boundaries of Manitoba should be extended northward so as to take in Fort Churchill.

"(2) That they do not care to discuss any question of the alteration of the boundaries of Saskatchewan.

"(3) That in order to carry out the suggestion in paragraph 1, the eastern boundary of Manitoba should be produced northward until it strikes the Churchill River, the middle of the channel of the said river should then become the boundary.

"(4) That the remainder of the territory of Keewatin lying to the eastward of such boundary line be allotted to the Province of Ontario."

These are backed up by a long and carefully prepared argument dealing with the whole matter from its inception.

These suggestions if carried out would enlarge Manitoba's present area of 73,700 square miles to about 230,000 square miles, and that of the Province of Ontario from 260,800 square miles to about 450,000 square miles. Saskatchewan at the present time has an area of 260,500 square miles.

Accompanying their communication Ontario's representatives forwarded a memorandum containing extracts from a number of reports of the Geological Department and other sources, bearing out the contention that Port Churchill is the only real port on Hudson Bay. The mouth of the Albany River, Ontario's present northern boundary, cannot be entered by vessels drawing more than 10 or 11 feet of water, and by them only at high water.

Churchill River possesses a fine harbor. It has a depth of seven to ten fathoms and four fathoms at low water, and is perfectly sheltered for nearly a square mile in extent. The harbor is a safe one, its approaches are well marked, and it is admirably suited for a railway terminus. The necessary docks could be easily and cheaply built, and the deep water basin enlarged at small cost. Stone is lying at the water's edge to be laid into docks and piers.

SIR WILFRID MAY GO.

Will Visit the Transvaal if It Is at All Possible.

London, April 30.—(C. A. P.)—The Canadian Associated Press understands that Sir Wilfrid Laurier promised, if he found it possible he would accept Gen. Botha's invitation to visit the Transvaal, but when Sir Wilfrid extended a like invitation to the Transvaal Premier, Gen. Botha replied that it would not be possible for him to leave the Transvaal again for some years.

Sir Wilfrid has accepted an invitation of the London Gaelic Society to a Scottish concert to be given in honor of the Colonial Premiers on May 11.

The freedom of the city will be presented to Sir Robert Borden on Wednesday morning at Guild Hall.

The Modesty of Women

Naturally makes them shrink from the indecent questions, the obnoxious examinations, and unpleasant local treatments, which some physicians consider essential in the treatment of diseases of women. Yes, it helps can be had, it is better to submit to this ordeal than let the disease grow and spread. The trouble is that so often the woman undergoes all the annoyance and shame for nothing.

Thousands of women who have been cured by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription better write in appreciation of the cure which dispels all the examinations and local treatments. There is no other medicine so sure and safe for delicate women as "Favorite Prescription." It cures debilitating drains, irregularity and all weaknesses. It always helps. It almost always cures. It is strictly non-alcoholic, non-secret, all its ingredients being printed on its bottle wrapper; contains no deleterious or habit-forming drugs, and every native medicinal root entering into its composition is the best of its kind.

Endorsement of those most eminent in the several schools of medical practice. Some of these numerous and strongest of professional endorsements of its ingredients, will be found in a pamphlet wrapped around the bottle, also in a booklet mailed free on request, by Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. These professional endorsements should have far more weight than any amount of the ordinary lay, or non-professional testimonials.

The most intelligent women now-a-days insist on knowing what they take as medicine, instead of opening their mouths like a lot of young birds and gulping down whatever is offered them. "Favorite Prescription" is of known composition. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. It contains stamps for paper-covered, or so stamps for cloth-bound. If sick consult the Doctor, free of charge by letter. All such communications are held strictly confidential.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets invigorate and regulate stomach, liver and bowels.

NO CALL FOR PREFERENCE.

Because, Says Australian, Colonies Will More Than Supply Empire.

London, April 30.—(C. A. P.)—Pulseford, an Australian Senator, has issued, in connection with the meeting of the Colonial Conference, a lengthy memorandum upon the question of the preference containing a statement of the economic position as it affects the colonies. Pulseford argues that the demand for a preference cannot be justified on the basis of the fact that the production of the colonies in nearly all food and natural products will, in a short time, be in excess of the consuming capacity of the Empire.

The Duke of Connaught yesterday gave a private luncheon to the Colonial Premiers and ladies at Clarence House, St. James' Palace. Later there was a reception, and a large number were present.

The seer is naturally serious.

GIRL AIDS POLICEMAN

Badly Scorched, She Assists in Saving Family of Four.

Child Directs His Attention to Room in Flames—Mother and Children Unconscious on the Floor—Rescuer Falls Insensible on Sidewalk—Police Nearly Suffocated in Blaze at Tenement House.

New York, April 30.—Five women and children overcome by smoke were carried yesterday from a blazing tenement house at No. 12 McKinney street, Brooklyn, by policemen who were themselves almost suffocated in their act of heroism. And a little girl proved herself a real heroine.

Policeman Gallagher heard a boy crying out an alarm, but was unable to learn the cause until he had soothed the child. As he turned in an alarm, Gallagher directed the boy to run to the Fulton street police station, telling him to get the reserves to the scene as quickly as possible.

As Gallagher ran toward the house, a little girl was waving her hands frantically from a window on the second floor. Flames were bursting from the third floor. Policemen Green and Denny dashed upstairs, broke open the door, and saw Mrs. Mary Page, with a two-year-old girl baby in her arms, unconscious on the floor.

A few feet away lay William, seven years old, and Teddy, five. The little child at the window was Hannah, nine years old. Denny picked up the mother and child and staggered to the street with them in his arms. Green turned to Hannah.

"Take the others. I'll follow you," the child said resolutely.

She clung to his coat tails as he went downstairs with the other children in his arms. They were all scorched pretty badly, for the flames had reached the second floor and quickly gutted it, as had been the case on the third floor. Denny fell unconscious when he reached the sidewalk.

Dr. Premise, from the Brooklyn Hospital, resuscitated mother, children and policeman.

After the fire had been extinguished Gallagher went up to the rooms of Mrs. Page and recovered a purse containing $140. Then Mrs. Hannah Polan sent him up for hers and he brought it back. It contained $300 in scorched bills.

The article, signed by Mr. Emmerson, was in the issue of the Freeman of April 27, 1907.

COLLISION NEAR WHITBY.

One Man May Die, and Another Is Seriously Injured.

Whitby, April 30.—A freight train from the north on Sunday night ran into the rear car of a number, which had been switched too far on to the northern division main line. Brake-man Farrell of Lindsay had a leg broken in two places and his head badly injured, and it is reported he may die. He was removed to Lindsay. Engineer McCutcheon of Lindsay had a leg badly cut. The property damage was slight.

Cloudburst Causes Flood.

Oklahoma City, Okla., April 30.—A cloudburst over Capitol Hill, a suburb of this city, just south of the Canadian River, flooded that place. Seven persons are missing, and believed to be drowned. Many persons encamped on the lowlands near the river were caught unawares, and had but little time to make their escape. The river is bank-full, and it will be some time before it can be determined whether any lives really were lost. There was another heavy rainfall yesterday, which caused the river to rise higher, endangering property in the lowlands.

New Bailiff in Huron.
