3,000 CARS PASSED THROUGH HANTSPORT

The weather man favored the motorists in providing a fine day for 'Blossom Sunday'. The shower on Saturday had laid the dust, and from early morning there were cars, and cars, and more cars, and by the afternoon, over three thousand had passed through the town. A number came in on Saturday from Amherst, Sydney, Truro and other points. Over one nundred were served to dinner at Wall's Hotel on Sunday, and a large number for supper, and equally as many on Saturday.

AN ENQUIRY

Dear Editor,—I recently had a discussion with a friend over the spelling of the name of our attractive suberb. Mount Denson. That is the way that I have been accustomed to spell it, but I do not be take the woman for his wedded wife.

"Aye, I'm willin", was the reply, "but I'd rather have her sister".

Marriage contracts were in vogue among the early Egyptians, according to tablets found in the Nile region by explorers. The earliest known nuptial contract there dates from 590 B. C., the terms of which were drawn by the husband. It has been translated as follows: "Since God willeth that we should unite one with the other in right-eous wedlock, after the manner of every free man and every wise woman, therefore I have given thee four dollars in gold as a bridal gift. And for my part I will not neglect thee. Neither shall I put thee forth without a cause, having legal ground. But should I wish to put thee forth, I will pay 17 dollars for the matter."

A Scottish minister asked the bride-groom if he were willing to take the woman for his wedded wife. "Aye, I'm willin", was the reply, "but I'd rather have her sister".
